FEATURING THE DELUXE M.S. AMADEUS ROYAL

AUGUST 2 TO 12, 2009

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO ALUMNI

Dear Chicago Alumni and Friends:

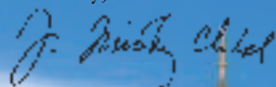

From the dawn of civilization, the Danube River has ranked among the world's most storied waterways. Over the course of the past two millennia it has seen the passage of Roman legions, hosts of crusading knights, the indomitable Janissaries of the Ottomans and the proud Hussars of the Habsburgs. Today, the river serves as a corridor for the exchange of commerce and ideas, linking the heartlands of Central Europe with the nations of the Black Sea and the Orient beyond.

Join this custom-designed travel program through the enchanting eastern Danube River Valley, a region shrouded in mystique and steeped in natural beauty that remains virtually unknown to American travelers. Aboard the prestigious M.S. AMADEUS ROYAL, cruise from the Habsburg's imperial capital of Vienna through the tranquil foothills of the Carpathian Mountains in Slovakia and Hungary's fabled puszta (plains) to the ancient lands of Serbia and Romania, where a rich mosaic of medieval cities, charming villages, and rugged countryside awaits discovery. From the glittering palaces of Budapest and the fin de siècle elegance of Bucharest to the Byzantine and Ottoman splendors of Istanbul, experience some of Europe's greatest cultural and natural treasures, including four UNESCO World Heritage sites.

Immerse yourself in the rich Slavic heritage of medieval Belgrade; admire a masterful display of traditional horsemanship in the Hungarian heartland; and witness Eastern Europe's spectacular scenery, including the lush wetlands of the Danube Delta, on your Danube cruise aboard the M.S. AMADEUS ROYAL, a deluxe vessel renowned for its world-class service, finely appointed accommodations and superior amenities. Also, enjoy exceptional hotel accommodations in the famous Athénée Palace Hilton Hotel, a historical landmark property in the heart of Bucharest, and in the centrally located, five-star Ceylan InterContinental Istanbul Hotel, a sanctuary of luxury overlooking the magnificent Bosphorus Straits. You are also invited to join the special two-night Vienna Pre-Program option and the exclusive Post-Program Option in Cappadocia, Turkey.

As this brochure goes to print, our Chicago faculty leader has not yet been confirmed. Please check our Web site, www.alumni.uchicago.edu/study-trips.html, for program updates. We anticipate that this popular travel program will sell out quickly, and we encourage you to make your reservations today, while Early Booking Savings are available.

Sincerely,

J. Timothy Child, AM'85, MBA'05

The Danube River divides this stately city into two halves—Buda on the hilly west bank and Pest on the lower-lying east bank. This morning, the city orientation tour begins in Pest. View the neo-Gothic Parliament building, the magnificent Town Hall and Heroes' Square, constructed in 1896 to commemorate the one-thousandth anniversary of the Hungarian conquest. Cross the historic Chain Bridge to Buda and visit the Matthias Church, noted for its ornate interior, and the Fishermen's Bastion, which offers exquisite panoramic views of the city. After an afternoon pursuing individual interests, bask in the beauty of Budapest at sunset during the evening river cruise.

KALOCSA

Dock in Kalocsa and set out across the puszta, the sweeping plains celebrated in Hungarian song and folklore. Visit a csarda, an authentic working farm, and observe a commanding display of horsemanship. Return to Kalocsa, a town known for its creation of finely worked embroidery and the cultivation of paprika, the fabled spice that adds zest to Hungarian cuisine. Attend the organ recital in the town cathedral, followed by visits to a traditional Hungarian house and to the Paprika Museum, the only one of its kind in the world.

BELGRADE, SERBIA

Thursday, August 6

One of the oldest cities in southeastern Europe, Belgrade traces its origins from the Stone Age; in later centuries Romans, Byzantines, Serbs, Turks and Austrians each left lasting impressions. Visit the imposing Kalemegdan Fortress, overlooking the confluence of the Danube and Sava rivers, the Military Museum and Turkish baths. Drive past Terazije Square, the Palace of Prince Milos and the imposing Church of St. Sava, Serbia's patron saint. The afternoon is free in Belgrade. The ship cruises late this evening.

DANUBE RIVER/IRON GATES

Today, relax aboard ship as you continue cruising toward the Black Sea through some of southeastern Europe's most impressive scenery—the legendary Iron Gates, a canyon carved by the Danube River in the course of its passage through the Transylvanian Alps.

Gaze upon the Ottoman splendors of Istanbul, including the famous Blue Mosque, whose cascading domes and soaring minarets represent the zenith of Ottoman architectural achievement.

Continue to the town's 13th-century "New Town" quarters along the banks of the Yantra River and visit the Holy Peter and Pavel Church, renowned for its exquisite murals painted in the unique style of the Turnovo Artistic School, which flourished during the 12th, 13th and 14th centuries.
