Health Law Certificate Writing Requirement

In order to satisfy the Research and Writing component of the Health Law Certificate, you must provide confirmation that your project was completed to the satisfaction of your supervising professor or faculty member. If it is a graded paper, you must receive a grade of B or higher for the paper to count toward the health law certificate. You must submit a copy of the paper with the grade noted on it along with this form. For non-graded papers, you must submit a copy of the paper along with this form. This form must be completed and submitted to the Virginia Rowthorn in the Law & Health Care Program (L&HCP) office, Room 249. It may be turned in before, but not later than the date that the "Certificate in Health Law" form must be submitted (i.e., the same day as the last add/drop day of your final semester). It is recommended that you submit this form to the L&HCP as soon as you complete your writing project and receive your grade.
