

Fiction Tic-Tac-Toe Choice Board

Name: _____ Date: _____

Describe how the setting of the story impacts its development in at least two different ways.	Choose one event and discuss its impact on the main character.	Discuss the two sides of one conflict that is present in this reading.
Find one example in the text that shows evidence of one of the themes discussed in class: (i.e., loyalty, friendship, perseverance, honesty, kindness).	Complete your independent reading each night. Choose two after-reading tasks to make a tic-tac-toe by going through this center box.	List two attributes of the main character and provide evidence from the text for each (including page numbers).
Find two important quotes. Explain their significance in the development of the story or how they reflect a particular character's attributes.	Write a postcard from the point of view of _____ to _____.	Create a time line showing the change over time of the main character.

Nonfiction Tic-Tac-Toe Choice Board

Name: _____ Date: _____

Summarize tonight's reading. Include what is most important about the topic. Generate your own question about the topic.	What is the central idea of the reading? What does the author want you to understand?	From the reading, pick out two sentences that the author uses. Combine them into one.
Choose one new vocabulary word that you don't know. Based on context clues, what do you think the word means? Which words give you a clue to the meaning?	Complete your independent reading each night. Choose two after-reading tasks to make a tic-tac-toe by going through this center box.	Complete the provided graphic organizer about the main idea and supporting details.
What is one of the features of this nonfiction text that helps you learn the information? How is it useful?	Make a personal connection to something you just read.	Describe the problem and/or the solution discussed in your text.