The Student Voice at NABC facilitates participation of graduate students from permanent NABC member institutions in the NABC Annual Meeting. One student from each member institution will receive a travel stipend of up to $750. The registration fee for the meeting will be waived.

The Student Voice at NABC 2011 Application

Food-Security: The Intersection of Sustainability, Safety and Defense

June 15 - 17, 2011

University of Minnesota, St. Paul, MN.

- * Fill out this form, print copies for your records and submit to NABC using the Submit by Email button at the top of the form.
- * Send a printed and signed copy of your form together with a letter of recommendation from your advisor and a brief description of your thesis project to the NABC Council Member (see http://nabc.cals.cornell.edu/membership/memb_list.cfm) at your institution. Your application should be submitted to your institution by April 20, 2011.
- * You or your advisor will be informed by your institution if you have been selected as Graduate Student Delegate (GSD) to the Student Voice before May 1, 2011. This decision rests entirely with your institution. For questions regarding the status of your application, contact your NABC Council Member. Other questions can be directed to nabc@cornell.edu.
- * Once you have been accepted, you need to make your own travel and lodging arrangements. Let us know when you have done that so we can register you for the meeting.
- * The stipend will be processed as a travel reimbursement after the meeting. Be sure to save all receipts. You will have to submit the originals together with the reimbursement form to NABC after the meeting. We can not reimburse expenses for which we do not have a receipt.
