Transform your future

Ranked in the top 15 Regional Universities in the North by U.S. News 2016, Quinnipiac University provides an education that will equip you for achievement and leadership. Embrace the world of opportunity at Quinnipiac and graduate ready for success in your future career.

Quinnipiac University

Founded in 1929, Quinnipiac is a private university ranked number one for three consecutive years in U.S. News' Up-and-Coming Universities in the North.

Reputation for excellence

For the past 18 years, U.S. News has ranked Quinnipiac among the top regional universities in the North. The Princeton Review has named Quinnipiac as a 'Best College' in the USA, highlighting the exceptionally high quality of the educational and student experience at Quinnipiac.

Global approach

The University's Office of Global Education supports the international community at Quinnipiac and encourages multiculturalism within the University. This enriches the learning experience and prepares all students for entering an increasingly diverse world. Quinnipiac provides a range of events which allow international students to share their cultures, learn from each other and make lasting friendships.

Quality academics

At Quinnipiac you will have the choice of more than 50 quality undergraduate majors and graduate programs. The School of Business is ranked in Bloomberg BusinessWeek's top 100 business schools and is fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International (AACSB), while the School of Law is accredited by the American Bar Association.

Industry experience

Facilities at Quinnipiac are designed to provide industry-specific experience. The School of Communications is equipped with professional-level television and audio recording studios, digital video editing suites, and a high-definition television studio, modeled on a working newsroom. Health Sciences students will have the opportunity to use cutting-edge equipment for the study of orthopedics, clinical skills, and physical diagnostics. The School of Business features an impressive professional-grade financial technology center and trading floor.

Active life

Enjoy keeping fit at Quinnipiac with excellent facilities at the Fitness and Recreation Center or training as a member of one of the varsity teams. Recreational programs include a full calendar of fun events, from Latin dancing to ice skating. The popular intramural sports program provides a great chance to improve your skills and take part in friendly competition against fellow Quinnipiac students in everything from tennis to dodgeball.

YORK HILL CAMPUS

MOUNT CARMEL CAMPUS

University living

School spirit runs high with 96% of freshmen living on campus in traditional student housing. There are over 120 student clubs and organizations and many students participate in charitable activities, making the atmosphere on campus friendly, welcoming and dynamic. Athletics and sports are a huge part of life at Quinnipiac and everyone can enjoy the experience of belonging to a vibrant student community.

Mount Carmel Campus

York Hill Campus

Hop on the free campus shuttle and take in the amazing panoramic view of the surrounding countryside from this 95-hectare hillside campus, about one kilometer from the Mount Carmel Campus. Enjoy the exciting atmosphere at the TD Bank Sports Center's 6,800 capacity twin arenas for ice hockey and basketball. The lodge-like Rocky Top Student Center is the ideal place to socialize with friends with its 500-seat dining hall, cafeteria, meeting spaces and fitness center.

North Haven Campus

Just seven kilometers from the Mount Carmel Campus, the North Haven Campus is 42 hectares of lush green lawns and tranquil ponds. Home to the Schools of Health Sciences, Nursing, Medicine, Law and Education, the campus provides upper-level and graduate students with state-of-the-art learning facilities and a magnificent setting for studying and college life.

Career preparation

Develop professional skills at Quinnipiac as you prepare to follow in the footsteps of alumni and achieve the career of your dreams.

Career services

Prepare for your future career with Quinnipiac's school-specific Student Career Development services. The experienced staff provides individual counseling and advice sessions, professional skills workshops, assistance with résumé writing and interview practice and preparation. You will have access to exclusive job listings as well as guidance on graduate schools and other options available to you.

Professional connections

Each year, more than 1,000 students take advantage of the annual university-wide Career Fair, where companies such as Disney and MetLife network with students and recruit for summer internships, work placements and full-time jobs for after graduation. Additional career fairs and networking events are held throughout the year for specific departments, and workshops like 'How to Work a Career Fair' help you to make the most of these opportunities.

Graduate employment

After graduation, you can continue to use Quinnipiac's resources for guidance, networking and job listings. Successful alumni partner with the Career Development office to share experiences and mentor current students. School of Business graduates achieve very high employment rates and notably, graduate employability has put Quinnipiac at an impressive 7th in LinkedIn's 2014 'Best Undergraduate Universities for Media Professionals' in the USA.

Internship opportunities

Quinnipiac students undertake a wide variety of internships. The School of Business co-sponsors more than 150 internships that offer first-hand experience in a business environment. Business students have interned at organizations as varied as Pfizer Pharmaceuticals, NBC Sports Group and Goldman Sachs. Most students in the School of Communications complete a 120-hour internship for academic credit. Communications students have access to more than 1,000 field placements across the USA in the broadcast, media, and sound recording industries.

Hamden and New Haven

Enjoy Quinnipiac's beautiful setting in the charming suburb of Hamden, as well as shopping, entertainment, and culture in the nearby city of New Haven.

- Local life
Quinnipiac is situated in the town of Hamden, named one of America's Best Places to Live by Money Magazine 2014. Next to the University is Sleeping Giant State Park, a great area for hiking with stunning views from the summit. You also can enjoy a leisurely stroll along the Farmington Canal Trail, making sure you stop off for delicious homemade ice cream along the way.
- Art and culture
With its many museums, galleries and theaters, New Haven is the culture capital of Connecticut and home to Yale University. America's oldest museum, the Yale University Art Gallery, boasts a supreme collection including Van Gogh's 'The Night Café', while the Beinecke Library is popular for both its outstanding rare book collection and unique modern architecture.

- City days
On the weekend, take the University's shuttle bus to New Haven for shopping in the downtown area, or stroll along Chapel Street taking in the gift shops, boutiques and architecture. The famous Neapolitan pizza is a must-try and Japanese, Thai and Italian restaurants are very popular. Watch the latest movies at the stylish Bow Tie Cinema or enjoy lunch and browse through the books at the eclectic Atticus Bookstore.
- Entertainment
The large student population in the area means that there is fantastic nightlife every night of the week and something for everyone. Try Firehouse 12 or the iconic Toad's Place for local bands and live music, or the Joker's Wild Comedy Club for the funniest show in town.

- Weekend leisure
For a relaxing day with your new friends, visit the historic New Haven Green in downtown New Haven, or take a picnic to Lighthouse Point Park and enjoy the beach and water views of Long Island Sound. The Sleeping Giant Golf Course is right next to the University and there is always an exciting local baseball, hockey or basketball game to watch.
- Beyond New Haven
New York City is just a 90-minute train ride away and perfect for a day trip to shop, dine out, and watch a Broadway musical. The historic city of Boston is only two hours northeast. There are many surrounding areas of natural beauty within the state of Connecticut that are perfect for day trips, such as West Rock Ridge State Park and Kent Falls State Park.

"I live on campus in a residence for international students. There are many people from different countries here, as well as domestic students who all live together. We are all globally-minded and have come together like a family."

To secure your place at Quinnipiac, you will need to accept the offer by paying a deposit (which will be specified in your offer letter) within 30 days of receiving your offer. Payment can be made via bank draft, electronic transfer or credit card.

4. Receive I-20

Once you have accepted your offer, and after all financial documentation has been received, a visa eligibility document (Form I-20) is issued. You will need the I-20 to apply for a visa.

5. Apply for a visa

Allow approximately six weeks to receive your US visa after the US embassy has received your complete visa application and payment. Your Global Pathways representative can provide help and assistance with the visa process. In the case of a visa refusal, your deposit will be refunded.

6. Pay program tuition

Once you have secured your visa, you must pay (by bank draft, bank transfer or credit card) the tuition and fees for your program before your enrollment.

7. Receive pre-arrival information

Quinnipiac University will send you full accommodation and arrival details to ensure you are ready for your departure to the USA.

8. Arrive in the USA

Join your new classmates at Quinnipiac to receive a full introduction to university life in the USA. You will make friends and get help and support for adjusting to your new life.

9. Classes begin!
