

2009 Fall Orientation Assistant Positions

The Office of Student Service will be hiring 40 MSW students to assist with leading and facilitating Fall Orientation. This is an exciting opportunity to assist new students as they make their transition into the MSW program. The position requires students to attend a one day training, serve as a site leader for Community Service Day, and co-facilitate a small group discussion at Fall Orientation. Students who are selected for these positions will be involved in the following activities:

- Attend a training on September 1st to prepare for role as a leader and facilitator during Community Service Day and Fall Orientation.
- Serve as the student leader for Community Service Day on September 2nd.
- Co-facilitate a small group discussion with incoming MSW students on September 3rd at Fall Orientation.
- Work closely with the Office of Student Services and MSW Student Facilitators on all of these tasks.

Compensation

Orientation Assistants will receive $100 upon completion of all activities.

Application

Application must be submitted to the Office of Student Services by Friday, April 3, 2009 (5pm). Students will be selected and notified in mid April.
