General Instructions

An S Corporation doing business in this State must file Form NC-NA for each of its nonresident shareholders. The form is due by the 15th day of the fourth month following the first taxable period in which the S Corporation becomes subject to North Carolina income tax. A form for a nonresident who becomes a shareholder of the S Corporation after the initial due date must be filed by the due date of CD-401S for the year in which the nonresident became a shareholder. An S Corporation that does not file the required Form NC-NA for a nonresident shareholder is liable for any tax not paid by the nonresident.
