Name & Gender Change Guide

Having a driver's license, birth certificate, social security card or other forms of identification which reflects a person's identity is something the majority of Arkansans take for granted, but for transgender, gender non-binary and intersex persons having matching identification can be harder to come by and can present barriers which impact their quality of life and personal safety. Picture all of the moments in our lives which require identification, ranging from being questioned by authorities, ordering an alcoholic beverage, picking up a package, endorsing a check, finding a job, applying for government assistance, accessing gender appropriate shelter spaces, applying for credit at a store, enrolling in school and the list goes on and on. Then picture the potential for discrimination, rejection and harassment when the name, gender marker, or photo doesn't match the person. Having a matching ID is a matter of social justice that permits transgender persons to pursue the unalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness granted in the Declaration of Independence.

Unfortunately, a 2014 Arkansas study of the transgender and gender non-binary community showed most have not completed a legal name change and more do not have a birth certificate, driver's license, and passport reflecting their gender identity. To address access to legal name and gender change services, Arkansas Transgender Equality Coalition (ArTEC) made development of a comprehensive Arkansas name and gender change guide a main priority.

ArTEC created this name and gender change guide to meet several goals:

- Increase access to legal education specific to the name and gender change process throughout Arkansas, and decrease the dependency and limitations of community word of mouth.
- Furnish a guide that is up-to-date and comprehensive in guidelines and tools which have been reviewed and researched by attorneys to make the process clearer, accessible and more user friendly.
- Provide a resource to enable the legal community and social justice advocates to serve the transgender and non-binary community either through educational workshops, legal clinics or direct one-on-one service.
- Serve as a starting point in better understanding and streamlining the name and gender change process in Arkansas as well as a working document for future updates, informed by best practices and feedback from the legal and transgender communities.

ArTEC would like to thank the many members of the Arkansas transgender/gender non-binary and intersex community who helped in the development of this guide through their participation as well as feedback on the gender change process. This legal guide would not be possible without the Trans Legal Services Network, which ArTEC is a member and project management and policy guidance from Arli Christian at the National Center for Transgender Equality in Washington, DC; Brandon Román, Nicholas Galbraith, and Suman Chakraborty of Squire Patton Boggs in Washington, DC; Amy Johnson of Arkansas Access to Justice Commission in Little Rock, Vince Morris of the Arkansas Legal Services Partnership in Little Rock, Michael Lauro of Lauro Law, PLLC in Little Rock, Sarah Demarest of the Freedom Center for Social Justice in Charlotte, NC and Alison Gill of the Human Rights Campaign in Washington, DC.

Most importantly, ArTEC would like to hear back from you about using this guide and what you found while navigating the name or gender change process in Arkansas for future updates of the guide and informing our advocates. Contact us at

Changing Your Name

Under Arkansas law, the Circuit Courts have the power to grant a person's request to change their name. To change your name, you only need to demonstrate that you have a "good reason." This section is designed to walk you through the process of successfully obtaining a Court Order for Name Change.

Step 1: Prepare Documents

You will need to complete three forms:

1. Cover Sheet

- You will need to fill in the following information:
  - County;
  - Filing Date;
  - Plaintiff (i.e., Your Name);
  - Address;
  - Check "No" for "Jury Trial Requested";
  - Check "(NC) Name Change"; and
  - Check "Original" for "Manner of Filing"

2. Petition for Name Change

- If you are requesting a name change only, you can list the reason you are requesting a name change as "common usage" or "this is my preferred name" as stating you are transgender is unnecessary and may result in a denial of your request, harassment, or requests for additional documentation.
- If you are requesting a name change at the same time as a request for a court order to update your gender marker on your Birth Certificate (See the Updating Your Birth Certificate section of this guide for more information on this process.), you may wish to list the reason you are requesting a name change as "sex has been changed by surgical procedure."

3. Order for Name Change

Copies of these forms can be found on pages 17-20 of the Appendix or accessible via this link www.arlegalservices.org/namechange.

Step 2: Fee or Fee Waiver

The fee to change your name is presently $165.00 ($195.00 in Saline County).

If you do not have the ability to pay the $165.00 (or $195.00 if in Saline County) fee to change your name, you may prepare a fee waiver and request that the Court waive the fee. Generally, a court will base your ability to pay on what you own and how much money you make.

To request a fee waiver, you will need to complete three forms:

1. Petition for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis

- The person seeking a fee waiver should fill in their current legal name as petitioner.
- You will need to sign the Petition.

2. Affidavit in Support of Request to Proceed In Forma Pauperis

- You will need to sign the Affidavit, which you must have notarized.
  - Most banks have a notary that can do this for you for free.

3. Order Granting Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis

Copies of these forms can be found on pages 21-26 of the Appendix. For more information about the fee, please contact your local Circuit Court Clerk's Office with any questions. A list of all 23 Arkansas Circuit Courts and their pertinent contact information is accessible via this link.

Step 3: Go to Circuit Court Clerk's Office

- Once you have prepared and carefully proofread the applicable forms listed above, you will need to take the original forms and three copies of the Petition and Affidavit, along with the $165.00 (or $195.00 if in Saline County) filing fee or granted fee waiver to the Circuit Court Clerk's Office in the county in which you live.
  - Circuit Courts in Arkansas accept cash or checks and money orders made payable to "[County Name] County Circuit Court Clerk." They do not accept credit or debit cards.
  - There are 23 Circuit Courts in Arkansas. Please use this link to locate your Circuit Court and the corresponding Clerk's Office.
- If you are filing for a fee waiver, you must first file – and the Judge must grant – your fee waiver (Petition for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis) before you will be able to proceed without paying the filing fee.

Step 4: Next Steps

In some Circuits, you may be able complete the name change process in one day. In other Circuits, you may need to wait for an available judge, or you may be required to attend a hearing to decide the issue. The Clerk will be able to explain that particular Circuit Court's process.

- If a hearing is required, the Clerk should issue a Notice of Hearing. If you do not receive a Notice of Hearing, ask the Clerk to issue one.
  - When you receive the Notice of Hearing, ask the Clerk which Judge has been assigned your case.
- Take the Notice of Hearing to the office of the Judge who has been assigned to your case and speak with the Case Coordinator to set a date and time for your hearing.
- After the Case Coordinator fills in the date and time, take the Notice of Hearing back to the Clerk's office.
  - The Clerk will file the Notice of Hearing.
- On the date and time listed on your Notice of Hearing, return to the Circuit Court indicated on your Notice of Hearing.
  - When you arrive at the Circuit Court, you will generally wait in the assigned courtroom until the bailiff calls your case
- The Judge will then proceed with the hearing and will likely ask you questions related to you seeking a name change.
  - It is important that you are respectful and truthfully answer the Judge's questions.
  - In particular, it is possible that the Judge may ask why you are seeking to change your name. As with the forms, an appropriate response would be "[New Name] is my preferred name."
  - If you feel uncomfortable attending the hearing and representing yourself before the Judge, you may wish to seek counsel from an attorney.
- Once the Judge has approved an Order for Name Change, you will take the original Order and copies of the Order to the Clerk's Office to file them.
- We recommend getting several certified copies of the Order for Name Change, as you will need them to continue the process of updating documents.
- Upon receiving your Order for Name Change, use the Order to update your legal name in all relevant places, including with your employer, at your bank, at your school, and anywhere else you have an active record and/or want your correct name to be used.

Updating Your Legal Name and Gender Marker in Your Social Security Records

This section is designed to walk you through the process of successfully updating your name and gender marker in your Social Security Records. Note that your Social Security Card only lists your name and Social Security Number – not your gender. However, the Social Security Administration maintains information in its computer records on everyone who has a Social Security Number, including name, gender, and date of birth, so this section also describes how to update the gender listed in your Social Security Records.

Step 1: Prepare Documents

Updating Your Legal Name with the Social Security Administration

To update your legal name in your Social Security Records (including on your Social Security Card), you will need to complete and submit the following documents:

- 1. Application for Social Security Card (available online via this link, at your local Social Security Administration office) that includes your changed name;
- 2. Certified copy of the Court Order for Name Change;
- 3. An unexpired identification document, such as driver's license, state-issued identity card, or U.S. Passport (it is acceptable if your document includes your former name); and
- 4. Proof of U.S. citizenship or lawful immigration status, such as a U.S. Passport, birth certificate, or immigration documentation.

Your name should update in the Social Security Administration's system within 24 hours, and you should receive your new Social Security Card via mail.

Updating Your Gender Marker with the Social Security Administration

Although your gender is not listed on your Social Security Card, other government agencies look to your Social Security Records to verify your gender. Thus, changing your gender marker with the Social Security Administration will help you avoid any unnecessary confusion. You may update your gender marker in your Social Security Records at the same time or separately from when you update your legal name with the Social Security Administration.

To update your gender marker in your Social Security Records, you will need to complete and submit the following documents:

- 1. Application for Social Security Card (available online via this link, at your local Social Security Administration office) that includes your changed name;
- 2. An unexpired identification document, such as driver's license, state-issued identity card, or U.S. Passport (it is acceptable if your document includes your former name); and
- 3. Proof of U.S. citizenship or lawful immigration status, such as a U.S. Passport, birth certificate or immigration documentation;
- 4. At least one of the following documents as evidence of your gender change:
  - U.S. Passport (showing the correct gender)
  - Birth Certificate (showing the correct gender)
  - Court Order (recognizing the correct gender)
  - Signed Letter from a Physician (confirming that you have had "appropriate clinical treatment" for gender transition<sup>1</sup>)
    - The letter must be from a licensed physician with whom you have a patient relationship and who is familiar with your transition-related treatment.
    - This may be any physician who is familiar with your treatment, including a primary care physician or a specialist.
    - All certifications must be on the physician's office letterhead and include the physician's license or certificate number.
    - The letter need only state that you have had the clinical treatment determined by your health care providers to be appropriate; no further detail is necessary or recommended. An example letter can be found on page 27 of the Appendix.

<sup>1</sup>Please note that "appropriate clinical treatment" is whatever treatment is best for you as confirmed by your doctor, and surgery is not required

Updating Your Legal Name & Gender Marker on Your Driver's License and State Identification Card

Updating Your Gender Marker

The Arkansas Office of Driver Services has an internal policy that a person's gender marker should be updated on a driver's license or state identification card upon request of the individual, and no additional documentation needs to be shown. This policy is not published, but evidence of the policy from two separate communications with the Department of Finance and Administration states that no documentation is required to change one's gender on their driver's license or state identification card. The communications can be found on pages 28-29 of the Appendix. However, it is important to be aware that some people encounter problems when trying to update the gender marker.

To request an updated gender marker on your driver's license or state identification card, submit the Driver's License Gender Designation Form. Along with the Driver's License Gender Designation Form, you should also have handy a copy of the Office's gender marker change policy. The Driver's License Gender Designation Form can be found on page 30 of the Appendix.

If you encounter an issue using the Driver's License Gender Designation Form with the Office of Motor Vehicle, you can also try to use one (or more) of the following documents that show your updated gender marker:

- A valid U.S. Passport, government-issued driver's license or identification document, or Birth Certificate displaying the requested gender
- A Court Order that indicates you have had appropriate clinical treatment for gender transition
- A letter from your physician confirming that you have had appropriate clinical treatment for gender transition

3. The fee for a duplicate license is $10.00.

Updating Your Legal Name & Gender Marker on Your Passport

Requirements for Physician's Letter Used to Update Your Gender Marker on an Existing Valid Passport

In accordance with State Department policy, a person can obtain a Passport reflecting his or her current gender by submitting a certification from a physician confirming that he or she has had "appropriate clinical treatment" for gender transition. This policy replaces the State Department's old policy, which required documentation of surgical procedures to change your birth sex. Keep in mind that the State Department will require this certification when either a previous Passport or any other personal documentation presented by an applicant reflects a different gender. The State Department will not accept Court Orders for Gender Change or any other proof of gender besides for this letter.

You must submit a signed letter from a licensed physician confirming that you have had "appropriate clinical treatment" for gender transition. The letter must include:

- Physician's full name
- Medical license or certificate number
- Issuing state or other jurisdiction of medical license/certificate
- Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) registration number assigned to the physician
- Address and telephone number of the physician
- Language stating that he or she is your attending physician and that he or she has a doctor/patient relationship with you
- Language stating you have had "appropriate clinical treatment" for gender transition to the new gender (male or female)
- Language stating "I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the forgoing is true and correct"

A sample letter can be found on page 31 of the Appendix. You should use the exact language of the sample letter in the Appendix.

Limited Validity Two-Year Passports vs. Full Validity Ten-Year Passports

The State Department still has an outdated policy that distinguishes between a transition that is "in process" and one that is "complete." This distinction was originally intended for applicants who had recently begun a gender transition and needed documentation to travel abroad, before the requirement for undergoing a surgical procedure was removed. The language we recommend above and in our sample letter indicates to the Department of State that the transition is "complete." However, if you submit a letter that indicates your transition is "in process" you will be issued a limited validity two-year Passport. A limited validity two-year Passport can be extended to a full validity ten-year Passport at no additional cost by submitting Application for U.S. Passport (Form DS-5504), along with the necessary documentation indicated in the form, within two-years of the issue date of your limited validity two-year Passport. A copy of the Application for U.S. Passport is available via this link. You may mail-in Form DS-5504 and accompanying documentation to the National Passport Processing Center or drop-off your completed application and required documentation to your local State Department Office. Note that any documents you mail-in will be returned if not damaged.

Updating Your Legal Name & Gender Marker on Your Birth Certificate

The Arkansas Department of Health has the power to grant a person's request to update their name and gender marker on their Birth Certificate. Notably, to change your gender marker on your birth certificate, Arkansas law requires that the person seeking to change their gender marker present "a certified copy of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction indicating that the sex of an individual born in this state has been changed by surgical procedure and that the individual's name has been changed." This section is designed to walk you through the process of successfully updating your name and gender marker on your Birth Certificate.

Step 1: Prepare Documents & Fee

- To update your legal name on your Birth Certificate, you will need two documents:
  1. Certified Copy of Order for Name Change
    - Once a Circuit Court Judge has issued an Order for Name Change, you may obtain certified copies of the Order from the Circuit Court Clerk's Office for a fee of up to $5.00 per copy.
  2. Copy of Original Birth Certificate

  - The Arkansas Department of Health accepts cash or checks and money orders made payable to "Arkansas Department of Health." They do not accept credit or debit cards.
  - If you plan to request your amended Birth Certificate via mail, please do not send cash.

- In Person:

- If you plan to request your amended birth certificate in person, please go to the address listed above. Proceed to the Vital Records Department, which is on the bottom floor, and present your documents.
- The process should take about 30 minutes in total. Someone in the Vital Records Department will retype your birth certificate. You should receive an amended Birth Certificate before you leave the building.

For additional information, please visit this link.

Getting a Court Order for Gender Change

Under Arkansas law, the Circuit Courts also have the power to grant a person's request to change their gender marker. To obtain such an order, you will likely need to provide the Court with an affidavit from your physician confirming that you have had surgical procedures to change your birth sex. This section is designed to walk you through the process of successfully obtaining a Court Order for Gender Change.

Note that if you also plan to seek an Order for Name Change, you may wish to do so at the same time as seeking an Order for Gender Change to consolidate the fees. Note too, the process for updating your gender marker on various forms of identification differs depending on the type of identification and a Court Order for Gender Change is not always required.

Step 1: Prepare Documents

You will need to complete three forms:

1. Cover Sheet
2. Petition for Gender Change
3. Order for Gender Change

Copies of these forms can be found on pages 32-36 of the Appendix.

Step 2: Fee or Fee Waiver

The fee to change your gender marker is presently $165.00 ($195.00 in Saline County).

If you do not have the ability to pay the $165.00 (or $195.00 if in Saline County) fee to change your gender marker, you may prepare a fee waiver and request that the Court waive the fee. Generally, a court will base your ability to pay on what you own and how much money you make.

To request a fee waiver, you will need to complete three forms:

1. Petition for Leave to Proceed *In Forma Pauperis
  - The person seeking a fee waiver should fill in their current legal name as petitioner.
  - You will need to sign the Petition.
2. Affidavit in Support of Request to Proceed *In Forma Pauperis
  - You will need to sign the Affidavit, which you must have notarized.
    - Most banks have a notary that can do this for you for free.
3. Order Granting Leave to Proceed *In Forma Pauperis

Copies of these forms can be found on pages 21-26 of the Appendix. For more information about the fee, please contact your local Circuit Court Clerk's Office with any questions. A list of all 23 Arkansas Circuit Courts and their pertinent contact information is accessible via this link.

Step 3: Go to Circuit Court Clerk's Office

- Once you have prepared and carefully proofread the applicable forms listed above, you will need to take the original forms and three copies of the Petition and Affidavit, along with the $165.00 (or $195.00 if in Saline County) filing fee or granted fee waiver to the Circuit Court Clerk's Office in the county in which you live.
  - Circuit Courts in Arkansas accept cash or checks and money orders made payable to "[County Name] County Circuit Court Clerk." They do not accept credit or debit cards.
  - There are 23 Circuit Courts in Arkansas. Please use this link to locate your Circuit Court and the corresponding Clerk's Office.
- If you are filing for a fee waiver, you must first file – and the Judge must grant – your fee waiver (Petition for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis) before you will be able to proceed without paying the filing fee.

Getting a Court Order for Gender Change

Step 4: Next Steps

In some Circuits you may be able complete the name change process in one day. In other Circuits, you may need to wait for an available judge, or you may be required to attend a hearing to decide the issue. The Clerk will be able to explain that particular Circuit Court's process.

- A Circuit Court Clerk will be able to explain their particular Circuit Court's process for seeking an Order for Gender Change and should issue a Notice of Hearing. If you do not receive a Notice of Hearing, ask the Clerk to issue one.
- When you receive the Notice of Hearing, ask the Clerk which Judge has been assigned your case.
- Take the Notice of Hearing to the office of the Judge who has been assigned to your case and speak with the Case Coordinator to set a date and time for your hearing.
- After the Case Coordinator fills in the date and time, take the Notice of Hearing back to the Clerk's office.
  - The Clerk will file the Notice of Hearing.
- On the date and time listed on your Notice of Hearing, return to the Circuit Court indicated on your Notice of Hearing.
  - When you arrive at the Circuit Court, you will generally wait in the assigned courtroom until the bailiff calls your case.
- The Judge will then proceed with the hearing and will likely ask you questions related to you seeking a gender change.
  - It is important that you are respectful and truthfully answer the Judge's questions.
  - In particular, the Judge will likely ask why you are seeking to change your gender. As with the forms, an appropriate response would be "My birth sex has been changed by surgical procedure."
  - If you feel uncomfortable attending the hearing and representing yourself before the Judge, you may wish to seek counsel from an attorney.
- Once the Judge has approved an Order for Gender Change, you will take the original Order and copies of the Order to the Clerk's Office to file them.
- We recommend getting several certified copies of the Order for Gender Change, as you will need them to continue the process of updating documents.
