

CITIZENSHIP STATUS

Academic Year 2016–2017

DIRECTIONS—We have received the results of your 2016-2017 Free application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). A review by the U.S. Department of Education of your records with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and/or with the Social Security Administration indicates that you must confirm your U.S. citizenship or eligible noncitizen status in order to qualify for federal financial aid programs.

Below is a list of acceptable documents which you may submit to confirm your status. You must present original documentation in person to One Stop Student Services. You must present this documentation before processing of your application can continue. If you are unable to appear in person, you may complete the Certification on the reverse side of this document. You must sign the Certification and agree that your copy of the documentation provided is a true, exact, and a complete copy of the original.
