2016 MISSION YEARBOOK FOR PRAYER AND STUDY in digital form - free

In keeping with Presbyterian Mission Agency goals and strategies, transitioning of the 2016 Presbyterian Mission Yearbook will be from a print-only publication to a digital format. Readership of the book plummeted from 80,000 per year in 2000 to just 8,000 in 2015. That caused the price of the book to skyrocket from around $6 per copy to nearly $35. That, combined with significant operating losses, means the print version is simply not sustainable in order to remain good stewards of the funds entrusted to Mission Agency. The 2016 Presbyterian Mission Yearbook will be featured prominently on The Presbyterian Mission Agency website, with more timely stories of mission from across the church. And best of all, it will be free for all who wish to use it.
