PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA v. DEFENDANT: D.O.B.:	(Reserved for Court Use Only)
PETITION FOR REDUCTION and/or RESENTENCING (Penal Code Section 1170.18)	Case Number: Associated Cases:

Pursuant to Penal Code §1170.18, Petitioner hereby files a petition for reduction/resentencing.

Petitioner entered a felony plea to, or was found guilty of, a felony after trial in this case for the following Penal and/or Health & Safety Code offense(s) (specify count number(s) AND corresponding code section):

Petitioner alleges that he/she (check all that apply):

- is currently: serving a state prison term on parole on PRCS serving a jail term on probation on mandatory supervision for the above specified felony count(s)/offense(s), and petitions for resentencing. [§1170.18(a)-(e)]
- has completed his/her sentence and petitions to have the specified felony offense(s) designated as a misdemeanor conviction for all purposes. [§1170.18(f)-(g)]
- Petitioner asserts that the sentence should be commuted to time served and that Petitioner be placed on informal probation.
- Petitioner asserts that custody credits account for the maximum misdemeanor sentence allowed by law and that probation should therefore be terminated.

Petitioner alleges, upon information and belief, that he/she is entitled to a reduction/resentencing, because:

- he/she has not been convicted of a violent felony listed in PC §667(e)(2)(C)(iv), nor is he/she required to register pursuant to PC §290(c).
- the total value of the money, labor, property, or financial documents involved in the specified offense(s) for which Petitioner was convicted does not exceed $950.

I request that the Court designate the specified felony offense(s) to be a misdemeanor conviction, and that

- Petitioner be placed on informal probation, or
- the sentence be commuted to credit for time served and the supervision period terminated, or
- a hearing be calendared to recalculate the total sentence, including custody credits, and grant any further relief in accordance with the law that the court may deem necessary or appropriate.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
