Scholarship applicants and recipients agree to the following terms:

Award Redemption Policy

If selected, winners have until the end of the 2016-2017 academic year to redeem their scholarship award. If at the end of the 2016-2017 award year the student has not redeemed their scholarship, funds will be forfeited and returned to the foundation scholarship or program account.

“Estimated Financial Resource” Policy

Scholarships are considered a “financial resource” and will be reported to the Contra Costa College Office of Financial Assistance or to your transfer institution. If you are awarded a scholarship that exceeds your financial aid cost of attendance, a reduction or payment of financial aid may occur.

If you are a scholarship recipient and will be transferring to a four year college or university, it is YOUR responsibility to report the award to the institution to which you will be transferring. Please check with the financial aid department at your transfer institution for their reporting guidelines.

Email Communication Policy

The Office of Financial Assistance will correspond with you via your college issued @insite.4cd.edu email account. You are responsible for checking this account regularly for any communication that is sent to you.

Award Notification

All scholarship recipients will be notified of your scholarship award status via email at their @insite.4cd.edu account by April 22, 2016.
