General Information Company Description: Firma Design Group is a San Francisco Bay Area planning, civil engineering and landscape architecture firm focused on developing strong relationships with our valued clients in order to provide them with the finest professional design services. This has been our mission since our founding in 2000, and today we continue to work with both public and private sector clients, creating designs that respond to their specific needs. Our innovative designs represent the careful integration of a client's goals with site-specific opportunities and constraints. We work collaboratively with our clients to transform their sites into sustainable, livable, functional and inspiring environments.
