

Topic: _____

Name: _____

SS/Period: _____

Date: _____

MAIN IDEAS

NOTES:

What opportunities were provided to African Americans after the war?

- jobs in factories in north
- 1910-1920: 500,000 Afr. Am. Moved north "Great Migration"
- escape prejudice and poverty in S.

How did life change for women after war?

- During war women took over men's jobs in factories, etc.
- After war, women want to work outside the home

What was the Red Scare?

- Men didn't get higher wages after the war.....strike
- Strikes sparked fear of communist revolution
- Palmer's Raids: agents arrest people without search warrants
- Sacco and Vanzetti: anarchists, arrested and executed for killing 2 men in bank robbery

What racial tensions did African Americans face after the war?

- lynchings
- competed with whites for jobs, housing

SUMMARY: After the war 500,000 African Americans migrated north in the "Great migration" Women looked for work outside the home. Strikes led to the Red Scare (communist revolution) and racial tensions increased.