All buses are wheelchair-accessible but most Tube and many National Rail and Overground stations are not. Visit tfl.gov.uk for information

• Dial-a-Ride is a free, door-to-door transport service for disabled people who can't use public transport. Visit tfl.gov.uk or telephone

• The Freedom Pass entitles those aged 60 and over, or with an eligible disability, to travel free of charge on buses, Tubes, trams, DLR, London Overground and some National Rail services (within London). Enquire at your local Post Office or visit freedompass.org

There are limited options for taking unfolded bicycles on public transport. Folded bikes may be taken on the Tube, tram, DLR, London Overground and South West Trains services, at any time.

Folded bikes may be taken onto buses at the driver's discretion.

• Buses, trams, DLR: No unfolded bicycles accepted at any time. • Tube and Overground: Unfolded bicycles cannot be taken on the Tube between 0730-0930 and 1600-1900 on weekdays and are discouraged on London Overground. Outside of these hours, they may be taken on the District and Circle lines and some sections of other Tube lines and London Overground. Visit tfl.gov.uk for details.

• South West Trains: Unfolded bicycles cannot be taken on SWT services in peak hours, and space is limited at other times.
