

Tenth Circuit Tips from the Bench: What Your Judges Want You to Know

Friday, November 13

Anderson University
Thrift Library, Chapman Multi Media Room
Anderson, SC

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Get the inside scoop from your judges on their pet peeves and procedural preferences and get the skinny from the Office of Disciplinary Counsel on how you can stay off their radar and how to respond if you do get a grievance at the first ever Tenth Circuit Tips from the Bench seminar!

Join your colleagues from Anderson and Oconee counties at Anderson University's Thrift Library on Friday, November 13, for a full day seminar featuring local judges from the circuit, family, equity and probate benches, as well as U.S. District Judge Tim Cain, Court of Appeals Chief Judge John Few and Julie Martino from the ODC. This special live CLE program is a golden opportunity for you to get tips from the bench on how you can be successful in the Tenth Circuit, network with your judges and colleagues, and take advantage of some extraordinary local live CLE programming!

MCLE CREDIT

This program qualifies for 6.0 MCLE credit hours, including up to 1.0 LEPR credit hour.
