

Interagency Collaboration Workshops

MassNAHRO will be holding a series of trainings on Interagency Collaborations, the second one being held on September 21st at the Millbury H.A. from 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM. The fee is $20 per registrant and pre-registration is required. Housing Authorities need to consider ways to collaborate to survive in this environment of decreased funding and increased scrutiny. Agreements between two or more small to medium agencies can range from the complete management of operations to the sharing of key staff for various back office functions. Ten models have existed across the Commonwealth for years, and local boards remain intact.

This series of workshops will present the pros and cons of such collaborations, the authorizing statutes, the legal implications, board oversight, and sample documents.

Eugene Capoccia, Executive Director, Leominster H.A.; Managing Agent for Sterling H.A. & Lunenburg H.A.

Mr. Capoccia will discuss the mutual benefits of entering into an interagency collaboration and the successes his three agencies have experienced, and will explain what issues he has learned to avoid.

Jeffrey L. Driscoll, Esq., Counsel to LHAs

Atty. Driscoll will discuss the interagency agreement, the authorizing language in Ch. 121B, the role of each LHA board in setting goals and contract performance oversight.
