A referral for a step parent adoption or a relative adoption should be accompanied by a Petition for Adoption, and Consent(s) from the natural parent(s) or legal documents regarding personal service or publication.

For a homestudy referral in a newborn adoption, there must be at least three months between the time of referral and the estimated date of birth. For a rush homestudy, a list of private homestudy social workers will be provided. Pierce County Adoptions only does a homestudy (pre placement report) when the family is matched with a birth mother. When requesting a homestudy update, a copy of all previous homestudy reports must be attached to the referral.

A separate contract will be required for each service requested. Adoption services are a process of assessment for the Court's consideration and payment of fees does not guarantee a positive recommendation or approval by the Court. Fees must be paid in full before services will be commenced and are non-refundable. Fees are collected in accordance with RCW 26.33.190.
