

Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing
Florida Atlantic University
Scholar Award

This award is presented to a student at each level in the College of Nursing: Pre-licensure, RN-BSN, Masters, and Doctoral.

A Scholar is a learned person who is noted for wisdom, knowledge, and judgment. A scholar actively gathers information from multiple ways of knowing including human senses, verbal and written expression, reflection, observation, experience, and reasoning. The scholar's thoughts are based in intellectual criteria that go beyond subject-matter. Scholars have probing thinking processes and want to extend their thinking. They actively demonstrate reflective thinking focused on deciding what to believe or do.

Nominee name and level of education:

Nominated by:

Date submitted:

Please address the following in your nomination:

- How does this nominee live the above description of a scholar and exemplify the definition of a scholar?
- How does this person demonstrate the characteristics of a scholar in his/her study of nursing?
- Share a “product” or “outcome” that resulted from the scholarly pursuit of knowledge by this nominee.