Director of the Year Awards

UK Final 2012

Awards Ceremony

The IoD Director of the Year Awards ceremony will celebrate the very best in UK business. It is at this lunch that the winners of each of the award categories will be announced and will determine who is the best in business. In addition to this, you will be able to network with your peers, who will be brought together from across the UK for this one occasion. Make sure you are there to claim your award or to support your local businesses.

Your Award Ceremony Host

Michael Portillo

A former high profile politician, turned accomplished broadcaster and author, Michael Portillo will be hosting the award ceremony for the IoD Director of the Year Awards UK Final.

Best known for his ministerial career and his work in the Conservative party, he held a variety of posts including the Chief Secretary of State to the Treasury, Secretary of State for Employment and shadow Chancellor. He also contested the leadership of the Conservative party in 2001, unsuccessfully, and decided to resign from the world of politics in 2005.

Since leaving his career in politics he has gone on to write for the Sunday Times and is a regular on current affairs programmes including BBC 1's 'This Week' and Radio 4's 'Moral Maze' as well as chairing the judging panel for the Man Booker prize in 2008.
