FLAVORS OF SPAIN

Catalonia is home to some of Spain's most delicious treasures. During this unforgettable journey, tour artisanal shops, enjoy wine tastings at award-winning wineries including Masia Serra and La Vinyeta, and discover local fishing, farming, and culinary techniques that have been used over generations. Dive deep into the diverse flavors of this unique region as you learn about the history and culture that shaped these Iberian seaside villages and their friendly people.

Dear Carolina Alumni and Friends,

Join fellow Tar Heels and friends on an intimate journey to Spain's Costa Brava region, or 'rugged coast'—where natural beauty and distinctive art and architecture abound, historical ruins dot the countryside, and the gracious Catalans employ traditional ingredients fresh from farm and sea to create exceptional cuisine.

Enjoy your stay at a beautiful, boutique property outside of Girona, ideally located for exploring the region. You'll find modern comforts and old world charm blended together in a medieval village setting nestled among lush gardens. The spacious common areas are a wonderful place to relax after an exciting day of exploration.

Each day is highlighted by exclusive and authentic experiences with chefs, winemakers, artisan producers and extraordinary historic sights. Learn about and savor the great food and wine Spain is famous for in cooking classes, tastings and guided tours. Revel in Spain's celebrated art, architecture, and history with visits to world-famous sites and cultural monuments.

Our rates for University of North Carolina General Alumni Association guests represent a significant savings—more than $800 per couple—over that of non-affiliated guests, so be certain to reserve your spot today and to share this brochure with friends and family who may be interested in traveling with you! Please reserve online at <http://unc.orbridge.com>, by calling (877) 962-3980 or by returning the enclosed reservation form.

Day-by-Day Itinerary*:

Days 1-2: En Route from U.S. / Arrive Barcelona / Empordà, Spain

Bienvenido a España! After arriving at the property in the region of Empordà, take time to unpack and settle in. Meet your travel companions and share a welcome cocktail before dinner, and learn about the exciting adventures planned for this week.

Overnight: El Racó de Madremanya (D)

Day 3: Girona / Cantallops

After breakfast, set out for a walking tour of the charming town of Girona. The town boasts cultural highlights including monuments that show its more than 2,000 years of history. The old Jewish Quarter is one of the best preserved in the world, with its beautiful narrow streets and squares surrounded by arcades. Later, visit a local artisanal shop where you can taste local charcuterie, cheese, and olive oil.

This afternoon, drive to Masia Serra vineyard—just 10 miles from the border with France. The Serras are a traditional family dedicated to the cultivating and bottling of wine. Here you'll meet the owner, an esteemed enologist. Enjoy a wine tasting paired with typical Catalan delicacies for a memorable meal.

Overnight: El Racó de Madremanya (B,D)

Day 4: Púbol / Figueres

Today is a celebration of Salvador Dalí! After breakfast, drive to Púbol to tour Dalí Castle. This estate was a gift to Dalí's wife, Gala, and was given to her along with the promise that Dalí would not visit the property without her expressed permission. After Gala's death in 1982, Dalí took up residence at the castle where he lived for two years before moving to his final residence—and the next stop—the Dalí Theatre-Museum in Figueres.

Dalí oversaw the transformation of the Dalí Theatre-Museum, which was built from the remaining structure of the Municipal Theatre that was destroyed at the end of the Spanish Civil War. The museum, considered his last great work, features a broad spectrum of Dalí's art in a variety of mediums, including paintings, sculptures, installations, photography, and more. A few feature pieces are Self-Portrait with "l'Humanité" (1923), The Basket of Bread (1945), and a room dedicated to Marilyn Monroe.

Overnight: El Racó de Madremanya (B,L,D)

Day 5: Llafranc / Palamós

The day's activities include a seaside stroll between Llafranc and Calella de Palafrugell, a traditional fishing village that is now a popular holiday destination for travelers. After, take a quick drive to the Sant Sebastià lighthouse to enjoy the amazing views and delight in a delicious lunch. Then visit the ruins of the Iberic town of Sant Sebastià de la Guarda, which date from the 6th century B.C.

Spend the afternoon in Palamós to visit Museu de la Pesca, a fishery museum, to learn about the history and importance of this industry to the region. Afterward, observe a live local fish auction and stroll the market to see the variety of ingredients you will prepare in your cooking class while creating the delicious dinner to enjoy together this evening.

Overnight: El Racó de Madremanya (B,L,D)

Day 6: Empúries / Peratallada

Today includes a drive to the famous Greco-Roman site of Empúries, the gateway of the romanization of the Iberian Peninsula. The visit includes a stop at the village of Sant Martí d'Empúries, a section of which dates back to the 9th century B.C. While the village itself has expanded in size and population, the original ancient section is still home to about 60 residents today.

After, visit a local family business now run by the sixth generation. Watch the ancient tradition of curing anchovies by hand, which has been practiced by the family since 1847. Then return to El Racó de Madremanya for a delightful picnic lunch.

This evening, enjoy wine tasting and dinner at Restaurant Bonay in Peratallada. Considered one of the finest examples of medieval architecture in Catalonia, Peratallada was built using the stone remaining when they carved the moat that still encircles it. The name derives from pedra tallada, meaning 'carved stone'. Its narrow and winding alleys have been well preserved since feudal times.

Overnight: El Racó de Madremanya (B,L,D)

Day 7: Cadaqués

This leisurely day is highlighted with a drive to the seaside town of Cadaqués to visit a local butcher who will explain the making of traditional Catalan sausage and treat us to a tasting of his specialties. Also visit Creus Cape for a relaxing walk to absorb the area's tranquil views.

Overnight: El Racó de Madremanya (B,D)

Day 8: Empordà

Today, discover the winery La Vinyeta. Meet the owner and vintner, then enjoy a stroll around the grounds among verdant vineyards and olive trees. Afterward, partake in a wine and olive oil tasting before lunch in the wine cellar.

A special farewell dinner awaits, including a paella cooking class plus an exclusive Flamenco dance presentation in the property gardens.

Overnight: El Racó de Madremanya (B,L,D)

Day 9: Depart Empordà

After breakfast, guests departing at the suggested times will take a complimentary transfer to the airport for flights home. (B)
