

2015–2016 Verification of High School Completion

Your 2015–2016 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information provided with this verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You (and a parent if applicable) whose information was reported on the FAFSA must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to us. We may ask for additional information.

High School Completion Status Attach one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you begin college 2015–2016: A copy of the student's high school diploma. A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was award. A state certificate or transcript received by a student after the student passed a State-authorized examination (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination) that the State recognizes as the equivalent a high school diploma. For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the "secondary school leav certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copt that credential. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office. Certification and Signature Each person signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct. Student's Signature	Student's Last Name	First Name	M.I.	Student's Identification (ID) Number
Student's Home Phone Number (include area code) Student's Alternate or Cell Phone Number (Brunder Status Attach one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you begin college 2015–2016: A copy of the student's high school diploma. A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was award a state certificate or transcript received by a student after the student passed a State-authorized examination (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination) that the State recognizes as the equivalent a high school diploma. For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the "secondary school leav certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copt that credential. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copt that credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copt that credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copt that credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copt that credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copt that credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copt that credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copt that credential. For a homeschooled studen	Student's Street Address (in	clude apt. no.)		Student's Date of Birth
Student's Alternate or Cell Phone Num High School Completion Status Attach one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you begin college 2015–2016: A copy of the student's high school diploma. A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was award A state certificate or transcript received by a student after the student passed a State-authorized examination (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination) that the State recognizes as the equivalent a high school diploma. For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the "secondary school leav certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a coptata credential. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school course the student completed and includes a statement that the student successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office. Certification and Signature Each person signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct. Student's Signature Date
High School Completion Status Attach one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you begin college 2015–2016: A copy of the student's high school diploma. A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was award. A state certificate or transcript received by a student after the student passed a State-authorized examination (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination) that the State recognizes as the equivalent a high school diploma. For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the "secondary school leav certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a cop that credential. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office. Certification and Signature Each person signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct. Student's Signature	City State Zip Code			Student's Email Address
Attach one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you begin college 2015–2016: A copy of the student's high school diploma. A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was award. A state certificate or transcript received by a student after the student passed a State-authorized examination (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination) that the State recognizes as the equivalent a high school diploma. For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the "secondary school leav certificate" or other similar document. An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy that credential. For a homeschooled student in a state where state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school education in a homeschool setting. If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office. Certification and Signature Each person signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct. Student's Signature Date	Student's Home Phone Number (include area code)			Student's Alternate or Cell Phone Number
Each person signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct. Student's Signature misleading information you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both. Date	 A copy of the student's A copy of the student's A state certificate or tra (GED test, HiSET, TAS a high school diploma. For students who comp certificate" or other sim An academic transcript acceptable for full credit completion credential for that credential. For a homeschooled stucompletion credential for transcript or the equival the student completed a education in a homeschooled 	high school diplomational official high sonscript received by a SC, or other State-audleted secondary educiblar document. That indicates the state toward a bachelor dent in a state where or homeschool (other dent, signed by the stand includes a statemool setting.	a. chool transcript that a student after the state a student after the state atthorized examination cation in a foreign condent successfully condent successfully condent state law requires for than a high school atthorize that the student state at the	shows the date when the diploma was awarded, udent passed a State-authorized examination on) that the State recognizes as the equivalent of ountry, a copy of the "secondary school leaving ompleted at least a two-year program that is the student to obtain a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of require the student to obtain a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a lardian, that lists the secondary school courses successfully completed a secondary school
Student's Signature Date	Each person signing below certifies that all of the			misleading information you may be fined,
Harant's Clanature (it applicable)	· 			