

Care Wisconsin Advisory Council for Long Term Care Members

Conflict of Interest

Any interested party must be considered independent to become a member of the Care Wisconsin Advisory Council for Long Term Care.

A person shall be considered independent if she or he or a family member:

- Is not an employee of an entity which has a financial interest in Care Wisconsin
- Does not directly or indirectly have a significant business relationship with Care Wisconsin
- Does not directly or indirectly have regulatory oversight of Care Wisconsin
- Does not have ownership or investment in or compensation arrangement with an entity or individual which Care Wisconsin has an arrangement

By signing this statement, I agree that I am independent and therefore able to function in an advisory capacity to Care Wisconsin.

Name _____

Date _____