- 12.8.2 The Company shall be obliged to give effect to the appointment of a proxy, provided the instrument appointing such proxy, including the Power of Attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a duly certified copy thereof, shall have been delivered to the Company or to any other person acting on behalf of the Company provided that such instrument of proxy is delivered before the time for holding such meeting or any adjournment thereof. - 12.11 Postponement and adjournment of meetings of Members
- 12.11.1 If within 30 minutes of the appointed time for a meeting to begin, a quorum is not present, the meeting will automatically (without any further action or formalities being required, unless the location of the meeting is different):

- 12.11.2 If a quorum is not present when a matter is called on the agenda, consideration of that matter may be postponed to a later time in the meeting (without further action or formalities being required) if there is other business on the agenda. However, if there is no further business on the agenda, the meeting is automatically (without any further action or formalities being required, unless the location of the meeting is different) adjourned to a date determined by the chairperson on written notice to the Members but which shall be no earlier than one week and no later than 21 days from the date of the meeting (or if that is not a Business Day, to the next succeeding Business Day) to be continued at the same time and place, or to such other time and place as the chairperson of the meeting may appoint.

- 12.11.3 The 30 minutes limit specified in paragraph 12.11.1 may be extended by the Chairperson presiding at the Members' meeting as contemplated in section 64(5) for a reasonable period on grounds that:
- 12.11.3.1 exceptional circumstances affecting weather, transportation or electronic communication have generally impeded or are generally impeding the ability of Members to be present at the meeting; or
- 12.11.3.2 one or more particular Members, having been delayed, have communicated an intention to attend the meeting, and those Members, together with others in attendance, would satisfy the requirements of paragraph 12.10.
- 12.11.4 A Members' meeting (or consideration of a particular matter on the agenda) may be adjourned without further notice to a fixed time and place (but will require a notice if it is adjourned "until further notice") by a vote in favour thereof by holders of a majority of those voting rights present or represented at the meeting and entitled to be exercised on at least one matter remaining on the agenda of the meeting or, where the adjournment is in respect of a particular matter, by a vote in favour thereof by holders of a majority of those voting rights present or represented by proxy and entitled to be exercised in respect of the matter in question.

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution has been carried, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, shall be final and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
- 12.12.3 If a poll is demanded as aforesaid, it shall be taken in such manner and at such place and time as the chairperson of the meeting directs and either immediately or after an interval or adjournment which shall not exceed seven days, the demand for a poll may be withdrawn. Scrutineers shall be appointed by the Chairperson to count the votes and to declare the result of the poll, and their declaration, which shall be announced by the chairperson of the meeting, shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the chairperson of the meeting shall determine the dispute and the determination of the Chairperson made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.
- 12.12.4 The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.
- 12.12.5 In the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson shall have a casting vote in addition to any vote or votes to which he may have been entitled as a Member or representative of a Member, either on a show of hands or on a poll.
