PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

PURPOSE

The performance evaluation process provides for periodic exchange of information about accomplishments and problems on the job. It provides a choice of factors to help the supervisor organize his/her observations, to assess individual performance in relation to standards for the job, to note aspects of work in which the staff member does well and to note any areas needing improvement. The evaluation provides a special occasion for the staff member and the supervisor to reach or renew a mutual understanding of the objectives and the staff member's role. Work standards can be clarified, training needs discussed, or effects of changes in the work can be noted.

PROCEDURE

The performance evaluation form should be completed at least annually. After completion, a meeting should be held with the employee to review the appraisal. The employee should sign the appraisal form to indicate that the appraisal has been discussed with the employee. The signature does not imply that the employee agrees with the overall performance rating. The employee may use the "Employee's Comment Section" to provide feedback on the appraisal. A copy of the evaluation should be given to the employee and the original should be placed in the permanent personnel file.
