

Understanding Mold In The Restoration Industry

A Professional Seminar

What Property Managers Need to Know

This seminar has been specifically designed to teach and explain the special procedures used by professionals in mitigating mold damage claims for the insured. We will provide you, the real estate professional, with a better understanding of the work performed by the mitigation vendor at mold damage work sites. You will learn remediation processes which can help control the cost if performed in a timely manner, including demonstrations of work performed to mitigate mold damage. Don't miss this opportunity to increase your professional know-how!
