This year's theme of a "Night in Paradise" transformed the Kiwanis Center into a Key West setting for the 18th Annual LBWCC Foundation Dinner & Auction. Through the hard work of board members and the generosity of individuals and businesses, the event raised over $20,000.

LBWCC's two foundations awarded a total of 69 scholarships this Spring totaling $72,392 for students entering Fall 2005. In addition to the scholarships awarded to recent high school graduates, five new scholarships were awarded to Non-traditional students.

LBWCC Foundations
Lurleen B. Wallace Community College Foundation
MacArthur State Technical College Foundation

The LBWCC and MSTC Foundations are private, non-profit organizations incorporated under a tax exempt 501 (c)(3) status. The LBWCC Foundations were established to seek and secure resources beyond state and local revenues for the purpose of supporting educational scholarships, programs, and other needs of the college. Gifts to the LBWCC Foundations support and build educational opportunities for individuals in the communities it serves.

Each year the Foundations hold events to raise funds to support LBWCC's many scholarships and programs. The MacArthur and LBWCC Foundations held a Sporting Clay Shoot in October and the LBWCC held it's annual dinner and auction in April. In addition, throughout the year both foundations receive memorials, honorariums, and gifts to establish endowed scholarships from individuals and businesses.

Grants & Supporters

Solon & Martha Dixon Foundation awarded a $200,000 grant to assist in the construction of the new Child Development Center to be built on the Andalusia Campus. The new facility will house instructional classrooms as well as a daycare center.

Solon & Martha Dixon Foundation has been a generous supporter of LBWCC providing over $1.2 million for renovations and construction. This year the Athletic Complex was enhanced with the addition of a press box that will serve both the Baseball and Softball programs.

Saints Supporters

Fifty golfers participated in the 3rd Annual LBWCC Saints Golf Classic, Saturday June 26, at the Evans Barnes Golf Course. The event was held to raise funds to support the LBWCC Saints Athletic programs and to thank the "Saints Supporters" for their contributions this past year. The tournament was made possible by the generous donations and sponsorships of area businesses.
