

Nomination for the Robert E. Roundtree Rising Star Award

This award honors retired City Utilities of Springfield, Missouri, CEO Robert E. Roundtree for his more than 50 years of service to public power. This award was established in 2003 and includes a $2,000 scholarship to an employee of an APPA member utility who has been in his/her current position for five or fewer years at the time of the nomination. The scholarship covers tuition and expenses for the winner to attend any APPA-sponsored program.

Eligibility:

Any employee of an APPA member utility who has been employed for five or fewer years in his/her current position is eligible.

Criteria:

Nominees should:

- be recognized by peers as a future leader of public power utilities;
- have demonstrated a dedication to the goals and principles of public power;
- be a problem solver, known for creativity, job knowledge, and leadership;
- be a professional who performs all job responsibilities in an outstanding manner, achieving high-quality results; and
- have demonstrated interest in improving management and operational skills through continuing education.

I nominate for consideration for the Robert E. Roundtree Rising Star Award:

Nominee Name

Present Position

Utility

City

State

Zip

Phone

Email address

The nominee is recommended for this award on the following basis (use additional sheets as needed):

1. Years in which nominee has been employed by the utility:

2. Dedication to the goals and principles of public power:

3. Recognition by the nominee's peers:

4. Examples of job performance and interest in improving skills:

Your Name

Title

Utility

Address

City

State

Zip

Phone

Email address

Date

Please return to APPA, attn. Nominations and Awards Committee via fax at 202/467-2910 or via U.S. mail at 1875 Connecticut Ave. NW, Suite 1200, Washington, DC 20009-5715, or by email PublicCommunications@PublicPower.org. Please retain a copy for your records as well.