AN INTRODUCTION TO LEGAL PRACTICE IN CHINA

OCTOBER 8-10, 2009

CESL is pleased to announce a 3-day course for European legal professionals, titled 'An Introduction to Legal Practice in China', which will take place in Torino, Italy, from 8th to 10th October 2009. Organised by Prof. Dr. Gianmaria Ajani (Deputy Director of CASCC), this course provides an introduction to several aspects of contract and commercial law practice and litigation in the People's Republic of China. The training modules are designed to provide European practicing lawyers and legal advisors with the necessary information on:

- how to find the law
- contract law, contract negotiation and drafting
- company law
- public interest litigation

The lecturers of the course include senior legal researchers and distinguished practitioners from Europe and China, which will ensure that the topic is explored from a variety of different angles. Participation in this course is subject to a fee of € 300. For more information on the professional training course 'An Introduction to Legal Practice in China', please contact: Ms. Veronica Regis (veronica.regis@cascc.eu, tel: +39.011.6704384)

The organisers:

The Centre of Advanced Studies on Contemporary China (CASCC) is a private foundation, established by the University of Torino, the University of Eastern Piedmont, the Politecnico of Torino, the Italian Ministry of foreign affairs and several other public and private institutions.

Its main founding comes from the Compagnia di San Paolo Foundation. Its aim is to promote research and to provide knowledge in the fields of culture, language, economics and law in contemporary China. In particular, the Centre carries on research projects and offers training on issues dealing with Chinese economic and political development, Chinese law, Chinese contemporary culture, language and society, in cooperation with academic and private research institutes. For more information on the Centre of Advanced Studies on Contemporary China please visit: www.cascc.eu.

The China-EU School of Law (CESL), officially opened in Beijing in October 2008, is an exceptional institution not only aiming to offer high-level legal education to outstanding postgraduate students and legal practitioners, but also to contribute towards the improvement of legal dialogue between China and the European Union. CESL runs Master Programmes, Professional Training Courses and conducts Research & Consultancy activities. In addition to specialist courses offered to Chinese judges, prosecutors and lawyers, CESL organises courses for European legal professionals who are interested in improving their knowledge on Chinese law, and who wish to acquire practical know-how with respect to Chinese-European business relationships. For more information on the China-EU School of Law please visit: www.cesl.edu.cn.
