

Husky Energy White Rose Extension Project Diversity Scholarships

Husky Energy is one of Canada's largest integrated energy companies. Husky Energy is committed to providing employment, business and other benefits to Newfoundland and Labrador, especially to women and other under-represented groups including members of Aboriginal groups, persons with disabilities and visible minorities. Husky is building on its current practice of promoting and supporting diversity in the Province's offshore oil industry and has created two scholarships to honor this commitment. Husky strongly supports economic development in Newfoundland and Labrador and believes that education is important in developing and sustaining a successful community. Husky is seeking to develop the pool of qualified diversity group members interested in pursuing careers in operational aspects of the oil and gas industry.
