December is AWCP Dues Renewal Month!!

Please renew today! It's you, our members, who make AWCP the association it is!!

Dear Member or Perspective Member:

Thank you for visiting AWCP and viewing the 2011 AWCP Membership Application process.

2010 has been an exciting and challenging year for AWCP with our many events and programs!

As we end 2010 with the Holiday Party on December 10 at Arden Hills Country Club, and as we look forward to 2011, AWCP will offer even more outstanding, specialized education with the expansion of "The AWCP Academy."

Along with a membership favorite, the Annual AWCP Golf Tournament, networking and philanthropic opportunities for our members, together with the Fall Education Conference and the Holiday Party, the new year ahead is already shaping up. Fun Night in 2011 will be revamped and the AWCP Board of Directors is planning an exciting new summer networking event for all of our members and their guests.

Education development begins in January. The Winter Conference entitled, "AWCP's Medical and Legal Issues in Dealing with Cardiac and Pulmonary Cases," on January 20, 2011 includes a full six hours of continuing education. Please see the "Forms" tab for conference flyers and to register.

On the second page, please find the 2011 AWCP Membership Application. Whether you are renewing your membership, joining AWCP for the first time, or are a returning member after an absence, AWCP is dedicated to the best quality of services to our members, sponsors and exhibitors.

The AWCP Board is very cognizant of expenses in today's economy. AWCP is dedicated to bringing you even better and expanded programs for 2011 with no dues increase in any of the three membership categories: Individual, Diamond and Platinum.

We urge Diamond members to consider renewing their membership as Platinum members by viewing this report <http://www.awcp.org/DOCS/Platinum%20Value%20-%202010.pdf>. The value and benefits of a Platinum membership are many and best of all you are automatically pre-registered for all events and conferences.

December is AWCP Dues Renewal Month!! Please support your association by renewing today! With your dues, AWCP will continue to provide high quality service and education, using the best technology, and together we will improve the working lives of our AWCP members.

Sincerely,

Connie Conley
Executive Director
