Annual Meeting

New Advancements in Orthopedics

October 20 - 23, 2011

AOAO Mission Statement:

The American Osteopathic Academy of Orthopedics (AOAO) facilitates the finest training and continuous development of Osteopathic Orthopedic Surgeons (OOS) to positively improve the care, healing and quality of life of patients.

Target Audience

This activity is intended for osteopathic surgeons in the field of orthopedics, orthopedic residents, allied health and any physician interested in the practice of orthopedics.

Educational Objective

The goal of this year's program is to provide orthopedic surgeons with an update on current techniques and controversies in orthopedics. Leaders in the field will debate and discuss selected topics so that practicing orthopedists will have knowledge to further develop their skills.

Upon completion of this conference, participants will have learned:

- To be more familiar with current techniques and controversies in orthopedics;
- To better understand the indications, techniques, complications and outcomes of various surgical procedures within their specialty.

AOAO Annual Conference Session Objectives

Thursday, October 20, 2011

Resident/Fellow Session

Upon completion of this session, the participants will have learned new research in multiple areas of Orthopedic Surgery, presented by Orthopedic Residents and Fellows in training. The material will include new concepts in patient care, new surgical techniques, and new methods of rehabilitation.

The participants will also learn by the presentation of research papers, how current methods of care have been shown to be either successful or unsuccessful in improvement of patient care.

An additional feature of this session will be commentary by experienced Orthopedic Surgeons, with special expertise in the subspecialty area of presentation, who will give insight into the value of the material presented.

As a result of learning this material, participants will be able to provide improved care for their patients.

Foot and Ankle

Upon completion of this session, the participants will be able to (1) utilize new techniques in external fixation in foot and ankle trauma and reconstruction; (2) identify new uses for bone, tissue and PRP in foot and ankle surgery; (3) develop new techniques for treating calcaneus fractures; and (4) identify new options in wound care.

Friday, October 21, 2011

Hand

Upon completion of this session, participants will have learned the latest treatments and techniques for Dupuytren's disease, nontraumatic disvascular hand and finger, and upper extremity spastic contracture as well as the latest in uses of Botox for digital sympathectomy and alternatives to open surgery.

Sports

Upon completion of this session, the participants will be able to (1) determine primary treatment of focal osteochondral injuries of the knee; (2) understand and treat posterolateral corner injuries; (3) understand new knee arthroplasty options for patients under 50 years old. The practicing physician will be able to utilize new techniques in the treatment of partial thickness rotator cuff tears, SLAP tears, proximal and distal bicep pathology and ulnar collateral ligament injury.

Shoulder and Elbow

Upon completion of this session, participants will have learned the latest techniques in treatment for

Locked plating of proximal humerus fractures, reverse shoulder arthroplasty, rotator cuff tears, clavicle fractures, and elbow arthrosis in young patients.

Spine

Upon completion of this session, participants will be able to evaluate and treat spondylolisthesis using a variety of techniques, including radiographic and MRI hallmarks, pain management, laminotomy, Laminectomy and intraspinal process options and fusion.

Saturday, October 22, 2011

General Session

Upon completion of this session, the participants will have learned to evaluate patients with osteoporosis and consider orthopedic surgical intervention through stenosis and revision spinal surgery and shoulder, hip, knee and ankle surgical repair.

Adult Reconstructive and Arthritis Surgery

Upon completion of this session, participants will be able to 1) discuss revision treatment options for THA, including metal on metal bearing fractures; 2) discuss revision treatment options for TKA, including extensor mechanism reconstruction; and 3) utilize primary principles in arthroplasty to provide improved outcomes in patient care.

Pediatrics

Upon completion of this session, participants will have reviewed various pediatric cases involving current concepts based on available evidence from the orthopedic literature. Participants will be exposed to a synopsis of the current state of pediatric orthopedics in the face of health care reform. Attendees will be exposed to up to date treatment options for various musculoskeletal conditions affecting children and adolescents and will review challenging cases in pediatric orthopedics. Sessions devoted to examining evidence based medicine specific to upper and lower extremity trauma, sports medicine and pediatric and adolescent spine deformities will allow participants to ask questions and discuss current and future trends and techniques.

AOAO Annual Conference Session Objectives

Sunday, October 23, 2011

Trauma

Upon completion of this session, the participants will have learned the latest techniques in treating total hips and hip fractures, malunited calcaneal fractures, distal humerus fractures and elbow fractures.

General Session: Maintaining an Independent Orthopedic Surgery Practice

Upon completion of this session, the participants will have learned the challenges facing independent practice, the effect of those challenges on patient care, and strategies to effectively overcome obstacles facing independent practices both on the business and clinical fronts. Participants will also be able to discuss structures for maintaining physician independence which requires a stable business foundation and high patient care standards.

About the Annual Meeting

Goals of the Conference

Through lectures, panels, case discussions, and question/answer sessions, the goals of this conference are:

- To offer a diversified program of continuing education for practicing orthopedic surgeons;
- To keep orthopedic surgeons and other interested physicians and health care professionals informed of recent developments, techniques and advances in orthopedics.

Statement of Need

Responses from our prior conferences identify the need for a greater understanding of specific aspects of orthopedic surgery within the specialties of Shoulder and Elbow, Trauma, Hand, Sports, Pediatrics, Spine, Foot and Ankle and Adult Reconstructive and Arthritis. In addition, sessions have been added to address recent developments in upper extremity nerve problems/ailments through a combined session with the American College of Osteopathic Neurologists and Psychiatrists. An afternoon General Session has been added to feature renowned speakers regarding the varied roles of an orthopedic surgeon as they relate to healthcare delivery systems and industry that are performed in addition to treating patients and performing surgery.

Accreditation

The American Osteopathic Academy of Orthopedics has requested that the AOA Council on Continuing Medical Education approve this program for 21 hours of AOA Category 1-A CME credits. Approval is currently pending.
