Co-chairs happy with payoff for years of hard work

NABC Co-Chairs Ole Godefroy and Barbara Nist.

To say that getting ready to host an NABC is a major undertaking might be pushing the envelope when it comes to understatement. Fortunately, the organizing team for the 2011 Fall NABC in Seattle had a big advantage: The cochairs for the last NABC in Seattle signed up again for this tournament.

That would be Barbara Nist and Ole Godefroy, who certainly know the ropes after planning for and hosting the highly successful 1993 Fall NABC.

"We had an absolutely fantastic group of committed people," said Nist, "and they were in it for the improvement of bridge."

Added Godefroy: "We had 25 committees and 25 great committee heads. It was unbelievable. We have been ready for quite a long time."

Among the high points for Nist and Godefroy was the wildly successful Intermediate-Newcomer Cruise, which was proposed for the NABC by U.S. Magistrate Judge John Weinberg. Nist said most locals didn't think the concept was viable because of the weather in Seattle at this time of year, but Weinberg persisted and talked the ACBL into putting it on the schedule.

"We went out on a limb with the cruise," Nist said, acknowledging that when all was said and done, the doubters had become converts. The cruise sold out practically overnight, and the Argosy Cruise Ship was packed with 64 tables of I/N players.

Caddy, please!

Advances in computer and wireless applications have changed the caddy's profile in the tournament setting, but even the most sophisticated technology can't replace them, at least not yet.

Pam Hughes, the Caddy Director in Seattle, is managing a crew of about 10 caddies every session at this NABC. She inherited the NABC Caddy Director's hat from her mother, the legendary Jackie Matthews, who was "Mama Jackie" for more than 25 years.

"Wireless scoring may have eliminated the need to collect pick-up slips," Hughes says, "but there is still plenty that needs to be done."

Among the chores assigned to the caddies are:

- Collecting entries
- Moving the boards in Swiss and KO matches
- Distributing table and Goodwill gifts
- Cleaning up and resetting the room
- "We have fewer caddies working than we used

Seven on the ballot for Hall of Fame election

Some of the best-known names in the bridge world are on the ballot to be distributed in January to electors for the 2012 class of the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame.

These are the names on the ballot:

Marty Bergen – Retired from tournament play since the early Nineties to concentrate on teaching and writing, but he still has 10 North American championships. Beyond expertise as player, Bergen has made significant contributions in bidding theory, notably the commonly used Bergen raises of major suit openings and DONT over 1NT openers.

Peter Boyd – A world champion (Rosenblum Cup, 1986) and 12-time North American champion, Boyd was on the silver-medal team in the Senior Bowl in Veldhoven, Netherlands, in October.

Bart Bramley – A world champion (Senior Teams, 2007) and winner of 13 North American titles, he also has a seconds in the 2005 World Transnational Open Teams and the 1998 World Par Contest.

Kyle Larsen – Winner of two world titles (Bermuda Bowl 2001 and the Rosenblum Cup, 2006), he also has 12 North American titles, including the Baze Senior Knockout Teams at the Seattle NABC.

Jill Meyers – Winner of six world titles – three Venice Cups, a McConnell Cup, World Women's Teams and World Women's Pairs – she has 17 firsts and 17 seconds in North American championships.

Judi Radin – Winner of the World Women's Teams, Venice Cup, McConncll Cup and World Women's Pairs and owner of 16 North American championships.

Eddie Wold – World champion (Transnational Open Teams, 2001) and owner of 15 North American titles, Wold is one of the all-time leading masterpoint holders.

Steve Robinson, chair of the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame Committee, said a nominee is elected if he or she receives at least 50% of the ballots cast.

The induction of new members – plus von Zedtwitz and Blackwood Award winners – will take place at the 2012 Summer NABC in Philadelphia.

Besides Robinson, the Hall of Fame Committee consists of Alan Sontag, David Berkowitz, Karen Allison, Geoff Hampson, Ralph Katz (vice chair), Mike Passell and Peggy Sutherlin.

Rosenthal (npc) ahead in Reisinger Board-a-Match

Andrew Rosenthal wasn't able to make it to Seattle to play with the team he is sponsoring, but he is on hand in spirit as the squad's non-playing captain – and he should be proud of them.

After two qualifying sessions, Aaron Silverstein, Chris Willenken, Bjorn Fallenius, Michael Rosenbereg and Peter Fredin are leading the event, entering play today a board ahead of the second-place squad.

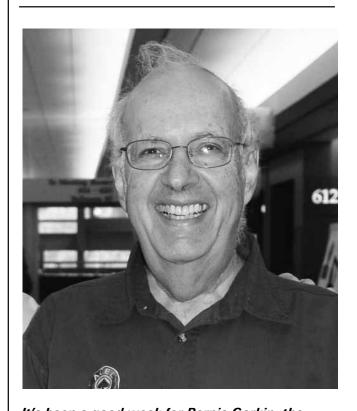

No. 2 with four sessions to play are Kevin Bathurst, Daniel Zagorin, Fredrik Nystrom, Peter Bertheau, Per-Ola Cullin and Johan Upmark.

Watson squad leading North American Swiss

The California-based team captained by William Watson will start play today in the semifinal round of the Keohane North American Swiss Teams with a carryover lead of 6.12 victory points.

The squad is Watson, Sunnyvale CA; William Harker, San Ramon CA; Yul Inn and Cheryl Mandala, Cupertino; Bruce Noda, Corte Madera, and Mark Ralph, San Francisco.

They are just ahead of the multinational squad captained by Magnus Eriksson of Sweden, playing with Hakan Nilsson and Sandra Rimstedt; Catherine D'Ovidio, France, and Marion Michielsen, Netherlands.

It's been a good week for Bernie Gorkin, the popular tournament director from Syracuse NY who works in Florida half the year. On Tuesday, his peers in the Professional Tournament Directors Association selected him as this year's winner of the Fred Friendly Award for his skill in making sure players have a good time. On Friday, it was announced that Gorkin has been promoted to associate national director. TD Terry Lavender paid Gorkin a high compliment: "He always makes the players happy."

Senior Mixed Pairs By Phillip Alder

Three married couples led the way in the inaugural Senior Mixed Pairs. The winners were locals Polly and Pat Dunn. They finished two-thirds of a top ahead of Sandra and Doug Fraser from Victoria, British Columbia. Third were Sally and Kit Woolsey, who live in Kensington CA. Bill Pollack, who played with his wife, Rozanne, spotted a good lesson deal, Board 13 of the first final session (rotated to make South the declarer).

West led a spade. Bill Pollack won with dummy's ten and tried to sneak a club to his king, but West won with her ace and tried to cash the club queen.

Declarer ruffed, led a diamond to the ace, and played another diamond. East rose with his king and led another diamond, West ruffing South's queen with her heart three.

When West exited with a spade, declarer won in his hand and played his last diamond. West discarded her last spade, so Pollack ruffed low in the dummy and cashed the heart king. When West followed suit with the nine, declarer confidently played a heart to his ace to drop the queen and make his contract.

Plus 620 was worth 36.5 matchpoints out of 47.

As Pollack pointed out, West should have ruffed the fourth diamond with her heart nine, forcing dummy to overruff with the king. Now declarer would have had a nasty decision.

Make declarer work for his tricks.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

I wish Dolly Parton played bridge By Leslie Shafer

I often tell my students that in order to compete successfully in an auction, they should take on a Dolly Parton persona. They need some shape, the more extreme, the better! If your RHO (righthand opponent)

opens the bidding

and you're thinking of competing, you better have some good shape. For instance:

If you want to make a takeout double, you should be short in the opponent's suit, which gives you more shape in the other suits.

If you decide to go with overcalling, you need a good five-card or longer suit. Remember, although you might open a three- or four-card diamond suit, you would need five or more to overcall.

With extreme distribution but weak values, you could still preempt (but it must be a jump overcall to be preemptive).

However, all three of these options have a certain shape. Although I believe she is a very smart businesswoman and songwriter, Dolly Parton is not remembered for her IQ, folks.

Here are some other famous characters I sometimes see in my classes –

Bette Davis. The one with the dramatic eyes. When I gently tell students they must force out the ◆A in order to make 3NT, they look up at me solemnly. "You mean I have to give up the lead?" I can almost see the mascara-laden tears falling down their cheeks as they think of the horror to come when they give up that trick. Bette also reminds me of Scarlett O'Hara, who raises her arm to her forehead, sighing "Oh, what's to become of me?"

Annie Oakley is my favorite character. Even when she is wrong, she sounds right and exuberant. Preempts are her favorite tool of torture. Shooting from the hip, she often succeeds from sheer bravado!

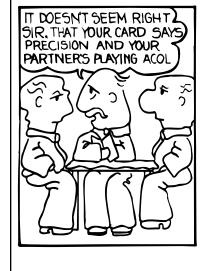

Bambi. In class, declarer wins the opening lead and stares at dummy. She reaches for a card to play, puts it back and ... stares some more. "What should I do?" she sighs. It's the deer in the headlights syndrome. The cure: Play, play, play. The more you play, the sooner all those puzzle pieces will start coalescing and falling into the right memory slots.

Mae West. "Anything worth doing is worth doing slowly." Not too slowly, but slow enough to make a plan before playing to trick one. "Confronted with two evils, I always pick the one I've never tried before." You have three choices, but two of them look bad. Try the third one. Experiment, find out what works for you and what doesn't.

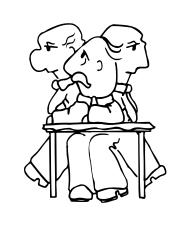

Sherlock Holmes. He would have been great on opening leads. "Eliminate the impossible and whatever remains, however improbable, must be the truth." I hate leading suits the opponents have bid; I hate leading doubletons (unless partner has bid the suit); I hate leading Ace from Space and I would never underlead an ace against a suit contract. Once I remove from the equation what I hate, whatever is left is probably the best choice for an opening lead. What happens if I hate all my possible opening leads? I will hope that partner will be sympathetic whatever I choose.

Richard Pryor. "I believe the ability to think is blessed. If you can think about a situation, you can deal with it. The big struggle is to keep your head clear enough to think." (In Larry Cohen's new audio CD, he emphasizes the importance of keeping focused during a tournament. He suggests refraining from eating a large meal, taking strong medication or using alcohol before a bridge session.)

I would enjoy hearing your favorite anecdotes regarding your attendance here in Seattle. You can reach me by email at slamhand@verizon.net Good luck at the bridge table!

Opening lead: ♦K

Bidding commentary: How should one respond to a 2♣ opening bid with a bust (no ace, no king and no two queens)? One method is to respond 2♥ directly. Another is to start with 2♠, denying a strong suit. If opener bids 2♥ or 2♠, a rebid of 3♣, artificial, shows a bust. If opener bids 3♣ a 3♠ rebid by responder, artificial, shows a bust. Another possibility is to show high-card points at once by steps. A fourth method is to show controls (ace and kings) by steps. Each method has its pluses and minuses. What's important is a partnership agreement. Even a bad agreement is better than no agreement. Here 2♦ followed by 3♦ over 3♣ was used to show a bust.

Defensive commentary: East plays the ◆10 at trick one, higher equal when encouraging. Given the looks of this dummy, a passive defense (avoid breaking news suits) is in order. As West, continue with a low diamond at trick two as requested.

Play commentary: As South, trump the second diamond high! If clubs divide 2–2, the ♣9 will provide a dummy entry — if you have saved the precious ♣4. After clubs divide 2–2, it can't cost to play the ♠A–K–Q in case they break 3–3. It's your lucky day, they do! Now it is easy enough to cross to the ♣9, discard a heart on dummy's ♠9, and take the heart finesse for an overtrick. Be sure to tell your partner after you make an overtrick that in the future you expect her to bid more aggressively with wonderful hands.

If you are holding a powerful trump suit facing a bleak dummy and you are forced to trump early, consider trumping high rather than low. That low trump may be your salvation — it may be your only egress to dummy!

Intermediate/Newcomer reception

A little extra Prize & Entertainment money found its way into the I/N Tournament Chairs' hands because I/Ner's booming support is largely responsible for generating the unexpected profit. And what else do you do when you have a couple of extra dollars? Why throw a party, of course!

More than 80 I/Ners enjoyed the reception which followed the afternoon sessions and preceded the celebrity speaker of the evening.

Even when there's free food to be had, checking matchpoints and masterpoint awards takes precedence.

While one of the least critical hands in a Wednesday Swiss teams, this was the hand I found most interesting to play.

After considerable thought, West led the ♦6. East played the $\bigstar K$, I won the $\bigstar A$ and $\bigstar Q$, discarding a club from dummy, then led the \$3. East won the \$K and quickly switched to the ♥6. My ♥10 went to the ♥J. West again thought for a while before coming out with the \$\dagge2\$ which went to East's jack and my ace. At this point it seemed clear that West had a very awkward hand to lead from. I suspected both black queens and ♥K-J-2 or ♥K-J-5-2.

I led another club, West winning the queen and returning the ♠8, which rant to my ♠10. There followed a club ruff with the \checkmark 7, heart to the ace, ♠K, and a spade ruff with the ♥Q. West can overruff, with the king but the ♥9-8 hold up for the last two tricks. Losing two clubs and two hearts was good for plus 140 and a one IMP gain.

A new national-level event debuted at the Orlando NABC last year: the Super Senior Pairs.

The Super Senior Pairs is open to players age 70 and older. The contest begins with a two-session qualifying round today and concludes with a twosession final round tomorrow. The contest will be played at 10:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. each day.

The award for first is 50 masterpoints. Players should note that a win in this NABC contest does not count toward the rank of Grand Life Master.

Past winners and runners up:

- 2010 1. Ed Lazarus, Jess Stuart;
 - 2. Dan Morse, John Sutherlin

to, so clean-up takes longer – a half hour to an hour every night," Hughes says. "We are also responsible for rubberbanding the boards and packing them up for transit back to ACBL headquarters.

Hughes's gang ranges from 16 to 30 years old (child labor laws don't allow hiring anyone younger than 16). Most of the caddies came to be caddies because their grandmother/parent(s)/aunt plays bridge. Most of Hughes's caddies (all but one) are learning to play bridge, and they look forward to opportunities to fill in I/N games when their duties allow.

The reason most of the caddies love what they do is the travel. Sure, the money is nice – the base pay is $35 per session – but it's the opportunity to see some of the wonderful cities that NABCs are held in, according to the young workers.

Despite their youth, the caddies do get tired. "This tournament has been particularly busy for them because of the fantastic attendance," Hughes points

"We work so closely we get to be like a family," says Tony Ames, son of player Tony Ames, who has been caddying about 15 years.

Ryan Miller, son of ACBL executive Jim Miller, has been caddying for 25 years; he also appreciates the family feeling. It is that aspect that also appeals to Shawna Brines whose NABC tournament attendance will probably be picking up.

Tracey Yarbro, whose parents were both bridge players, caddied when she was growing up. "There were easily 30-40 caddies at an NABC," the ACBL archivist says. "All the NABCs were family vacations for us."

There were no prohibitions on hiring younger kids then, so caddying was, for many bridge-playing parents, daycare with a profit. She says that the pay was $10 a session – $12 at the most. "If you worked every session including the Midnight Zip Swiss, you could take home $350 to $400. That was a lot of money back then for a 14-year old."

The caddies' duties back in the day were pretty much the same as they are now, Yarbro says, except, of course, that they had to pick up pick-up slips. "We had to account for our boards every night, to make sure they were in good order for distribution the next day. Oh, and we had to empty ashtrays."

Then as now, Yarbro says that a feeling of family bound the caddies. "Jackie, our on-site mama, knew where we were at all times."

When Hughes isn't running the Caddy Shack at NABCs, she helps manage regionals and sectionals – primarily in her home District 21 (Northern California). She is also a tournament director. Her college degree is in flute performance; she gives music lessons and performs with the local symphony. "Caddies and flutes," she laughs. "What a combination!"

You can't afford to duck because a spade shift kills you. Clubs appear to be 5-2. What next?

You need to set up hearts. If East has both honors you are home, but surely if he has only one honor it rates to be the ace, not the queen. Lead the ♥10 from hand at trick two. If West ducks his ♥Q, you may need diamonds to be 3-3.

"People came from all over the country to go on that cruise," Nist said.

There were, of course, other highlights for the co-chairs, including overwhelmingly positive feedback from the players. "People have raved about the hospitality," Nist said.

Godefroy said he and his wife, Julie, have enjoyed the opportunity to meet lots of different people while playing bridge. "We have seen people from all over the world," he said.

Nist represented District 19 on the ACBL Board of Directors from 1999 through 2008. She said the success of the NABC was a team effort, including important contributions from the ACBL staff, in particular Jeff Johnston and Ask Me Girl Wendy Sullivan. "They were so easy to work with and accommodating," Nist said.

All the efforts, of course, were aimed at making sure players enjoyed themselves. "I truly hope that the players enjoyed the experience in Seattle," Nist said, "and will want to return to District 19 for another tournament."

Although he wasn't an official volunteer, Nist said Eric Rodwell deserves credit for entertaining the players in the hospitality suite with his piano playing. Kudos also to Mike Cappelletti Jr. for tickling the ivories.

The Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs By Phillip Alder

Here are a couple of interesting deals from the semifinal stage of the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs, rotated to make South the declarer. How would you defend?

Your partner leads the heart eight (third-highest from an even number and lowest from an odd number). You put up the queen and hold the trick, declarer playing the four. What would you do now?

While you think about that, here is an unusual endplay produced by Lynn Deas:

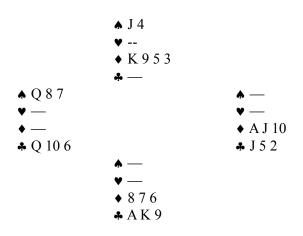

Dlr: North	♠ A	K J 4

West, with a fairly strong case for not leading a diamond, chose the spade nine!

Declarer won with dummy's ace. When East dropped the ten, Deas was confident that was from the doubleton queen-ten.

South played a heart to her queen, then led the club seven. East won with the eight and returned the heart king. Declarer won with her ace and played a spade to the king – curses!

Recovering nicely, Deas took her heart winners to give this position:

The deal had counted out and declarer needed three more tricks. She cashed her top clubs, discarding two diamonds from the dummy. On the last club, South waited to see what West would play.

If West had followed suit with the jack, declarer would have discarded a spade from dummy and waited for East to give her dummy's diamond king for the ninth trick.

And when West actually played the queen, Deas threw a diamond from the dummy and scored the spade jack for her contract.

Now back to the defensive deal. This was the full layout:

To beat four spades, in theory West must lead a diamond or a trump.

After the heart start, when Zia won the first trick, he found the only play to give his side a chance: He shifted to the diamond queen!

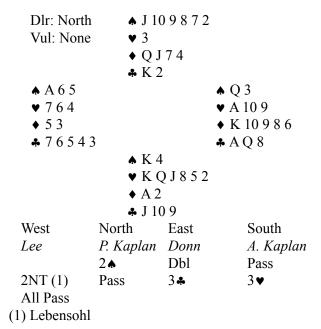

Yes, declarer could have ruffed and still got home, but it would have required double-dummy play.

At the table, South decided he could not afford to ruff, so discarded the heart jack. Now he was in control.

As we know, the winners are in their twenties: Roger Lee (24) and Joshua Donn (29). However, they were not supposed to have played together. Donn was scheduled to partner Nik Demirev, but he had just become a father, so was with his wife. Hearing this, Lee asked Donn, a friend for many years, if he could substitute. Although they had only ever played two at-the-table sessions together (and some deals on BBO), Donn agreed. It is also worth noting that Demirev's first canceled game was with Justin Lall, who found a substitute – Ishmael Delmonte – and won the Nail Life Master Open Pairs.

Back to the Blue Ribbon: Donn and Lee had a steady 58.10 percent in the first final session. But in the evening they had only six minus scores, of which four were above-average results. The 65.74 percent game left them just over two boards ahead of Billy Cohen and Brad Moss, with Thomas Bessis and Steve Weinstein third.

The first board of the final for Donn and Lee, coincidentally Board 1, augured well.

Lee found the unfortunate lead of the diamond five, covered by the queen, king and ace. (If West had led any other suit, the defenders could have kept declarer out of the dummy and taken five tricks.)

If Adam Kaplan had played on trumps, guessed spades correctly and ruffed the third diamond from East with his heart eight, he would have lost only one spade, one heart and two clubs.

However, he ran the club jack at trick two. Donn won with his queen and returned the diamond ten to dummy's jack. Now declarer ran the spade jack to West's ace. (This guess was not hard, because if East had the spade ace, he probably would have won the trick, nervous that South had the singleton king.)

A club to the ace was followed by the diamond eight. South ruffed with his heart eight, but when East took the heart jack with his ace and led another diamond, it promoted a second defensive trump trick for down one and 32.5 matchpoints out of 38 to East-West.

On the second deal, Lee held:

♦ — ♥ A K J 2 ♦ 9 6 4 ♣ A K Q 10 8 4

His partner dealt and opened a weak two diamonds, nonvulnerable against vulnerable. What would you have done?

After a lot of thought, Lee responded two notrump, Ogust. And when his partner said he had the worst hand possible, Lee jumped to five diamonds. Correct! Declarer lost tricks to the ace and king of diamonds. Plus 400 was worth 25.5 matchpoints.

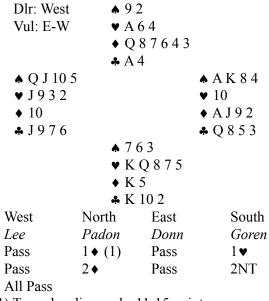

I watched the winners again when they met Dror Padon, who was on the Israeli Youth team that this year won the European Junior Championship in Albena, Bulgaria, and the Transnational Teams at the world championships in the Netherlands. Padon played with Barry Goren. They played Boards 15 and 16.

South led the heart jack.

Declarer won with dummy's ace and picked up trumps with the aid of a finesse. Donn then spent some time contemplating playing a club to dummy's jack. If that finesse worked, he would take 12 tricks, but that would gain only if South had five or six to the queen. Even though South was marked with long clubs, declarer eventually played a club to dummy's ace and ended with 11 tricks and a slightly underaverage 17 matchpoints.

This was the second deal:

(1) Two-plus diamonds, 11-15 points

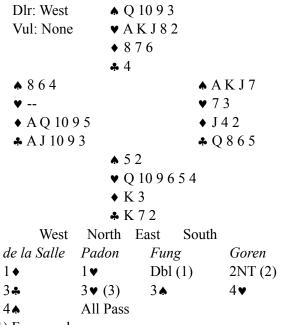

The defenders ran the spades, dummy pitching two diamonds and South one diamond, which at double-dummy was an error; he had to throw a club to guarantee seven tricks. Now East would have done best to shift to clubs, but he exited with his heart.

Declarer won with dummy's ace and called for a diamond. East rose with his ace and returned the diamond jack, but South threw a club, then ducked a heart to West for down one.

Plus 50 gave East-West 25.5 matchpoints.

Now for the other interesting deals I watched during the first final session at the Padon-Goren table. This was Board 24:

- (1) Four spades
- (2) Four-plus hearts, game-invitational or stronger
- (3) Stronger than pass

With hindsight, I expect South wishes he had just blasted into four hearts – although that might have pushed his opponents into a slam.

As it went, East, Kismet Fung, not envisioning her partner with a heart void, rebid in her strong four-card suit. Then West, Maurice de la Salle, trusted his partner, committing to the 4-3 fit despite such weak trumps.

Of course, looking at the full deal, you would prefer to be in seven diamonds or seven clubs – well, all right, in a sensible six clubs. But four spades plus one – plus 450 outscoring all of the 440s – proved lucrative, being worth 31 matchpoints. (Declarer nearly made 12 tricks. She ruffed the heart lead, played a spade to her jack, led a diamond to the queen, cashed her two top trumps, and got her last heart away on the fourth diamond. But when North carefully did not ruff any of the diamonds, East could not get to her hand to take the club finesse, so lost one spade and one club.)

Padon judged very well on this deal:

(1) At least 5-5 in the majors

Perhaps South should have rebid three hearts because of his six-card suit. But North did very well to save at unfavorable vulnerability.

Then I expected Marty Fleisher to double, but he passed, inviting his partner to bid again. Here, this was a good call because with the lucky diamond position, four notrump could have been made. But West tried five clubs.

South led the spade ace, received an encouraging signal, and played another spade. North won and shifted to a heart for down one. Plus 50 gave North-South 29.5 matchpoints.

Padon and Goren had a great auction on Board 18:

Goren rebid four diamonds to announce length in the suit. North, who could picture his partner's spade void, imagined South with the ace-queen of hearts and ace of diamonds. North control-bid five clubs, then redoubled to confirm a first-round control. Five hearts showed that ace. Then five notrump invited seven diamonds but denied a spade control. Now South knew his partner had the heart king for all of his bidding. If South had had the ace-queen of hearts, he would have bid seven diamonds. Instead, he bid six clubs, asking his partner to bid seven if he had the king and queen of hearts.

Perhaps Ralph Katz should have led a trump, after which declarer would have had to catch West in a major-suit endplay.

After the actual spade-king start, declarer ruffed all of dummy's spades in this hand and lost only one

Plus 1370 was worth 32 matchpoints.

Hayden passes 40,000 MP milestone

Garey Hayden of Tuscon AZ surpassed 40,000 masterpoints with a win in the Wednesday-Thursday knockouts.

Hayden's nine North American championships date back to 1973 when he won the Mitchell Open Board-a-Match Teams. Among his championships, he won the Baze Senior Knockout Teams in 2009, the Freeman Mixed Board-a-Match Teams in 1996 and the Keohane North American Swiss Teams in 1982, 1985 and 1990. He also enjoyed wins in NABC pairs events in 1975 and 1977.

Hayden was the first Senior World Master. He won the Senior Bowl three times and the Rand Cup for the Senior Teams in Philadelphia.

Hayden teaches bridge and plays professionally. He used to own a tropical fish store, a travel agency and a computer store. He used to show dogs — Samoyeds — and while they no longer compete, the dogs have a pretty nice life with Hayden in Tuscon.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

8 Tables / Based on 38 Tables

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

Saturday Insider

As all the Insider's regulars know, Saturday is the last day for this endearing column. The Insider fills his Saturday and Sunday closing bid boxes, folding tables, packing convention cards and counting little red pencils.

The Services Guys and AMG do all the heavy lifting which is much appreciated – they are the BEST. Two or more trailers will be pulling out of Seattle late Monday afternoon taking 21 tons of bridge stuff back to Metro Horn Lake. Triple H will be paying the extra baggage fee to take home the newly commissioned trophy awarded to the pair that finishes 10th in the Mini-Blues. The Bulletin Brigade will put away their steno pads. The TDs will head back to the regionals and sectionals they run so well. And all you wonderful players will scatter around the world until we get together in Memphis this March.

Did you know that 2012 is the ACBL's 75th Anniversary? We will have a special celebration the first Friday of the Memphis NABC and several special happenings throughout the year. Happy Anniversary to us!

Travel safe. Travel often to tournaments. But most important, travel to Memphis. We're looking forward to welcoming you all to our hometown. Come see the Museum. Come meet the staff you have spoken with on the phone. Come visit the offices. Come eat some real barbeque (apologies to our friends in Texas, the Carolinas, Kansas City and other BBQ hotbeds, but nothing beats a slab of Rendezvous ribs.) Come to the Supreme Commander's meet-and-greet. Come experience the latest edition of the NABC traveling tent show and bridge revival – the Metro Horn Lake NABC. See you there.

Alan Schwartz: Grand Life Master

Alan Schwartz, of Fairfax VA reached the 10,000-masterpoint mark to become a Grand Life Master. This rank requires earning 10,000 masterpoints plus a win in a nationally rated championship with no upper masterpoint restrictions.

Schwartz won the Lebhar IMP Pairs at the Washington DC NABC in 2002. Over the years, Schwartz has placed in the top 10 in many nationally rated events including fifth in the NABC Fast Open Pairs in New Orleans in 2010. He has amassed many Open/Flight A Regional wins, as well. Additionally, Alan has represented District 6 Grand National Teams and North American Open Pairs at the NABCs on many occasions.

Schwartz's finish in the finals of the Blue Ribbons in Seattle, put him over the 10,000 masterpoint threshold. Earlier in the week he finished eighth in the Life Master Open Pairs.

Alan works as a meteorologist for NOAA. He and his wife, Annie, also a bridge player, have four children; Laura, Michael and Chad, who spent many of their teenage years caddying; and Jeffrey, a freshman in college, who caddied some, but prefers to play because he shares his parents' passion for bridge.

Major milestone

With their win last night in the Senior Mixed Pairs, Pat and Polly Dunn from Bellevue WA made Grand Life Master.

If at first you succeed, don't try again!

Everyone has heard the adage, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." The corollary that is especially relevant at the bridge table is, "If at first you succeed, don't try again," especially if you know your opponents.

Eddie Rose applied the principle on this deal from the first qualifying session of the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs. Rose was North.

East led the $\blacktriangle J$, and when West played the king, Rose ducked, risking a heart switch that would have held him to 10 tricks. West persisted in spades, Rose winning. He then played the $\blacklozenge Q$, which held.

Next he played the •9, to which East followed with the 8. Rose knew his right-hand opponent to be a top expert, fully capable of playing low in tempo on the first round of diamonds. Rose knew that if West had ducked the king and another diamond finesse was taken, he would not be able to reach dummy unless one of his opponents had a singleton •K. Further, he had 10 tricks in the bag even if the club finesse lost.

With all that in mind, Rose went up with dummy's ◆A and finessed in clubs to bring home 11 tricks and a good matchpoint score.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

Memphis in March – a big deal By Henry Francis

Memphis in May has been a major attraction for many years, but Memphis in March is the big deal for bridge players next year. The first NABC ever to be held in the home of the ACBL will take place from March 10-20 in Memphis. The host Memphis Convention Center is only a stone's throw from Old Man River, the Mississippi.

There'll be lots more besides bridge going on. The ACBL, which will be celebrating its 75th anniversary, will offer a night of outstanding entertainment on the first Friday night. And what about the headquarters that has moved across the state line to Mississippi? The building is alone in a beautiful country setting, but it's what is inside that is incredibly special. The bridge museum is something you must see. It makes the history of bridge so exciting and intriguing. Free tours to Headquarters will take place throughout the tournament.

There is so much to see and do in Memphis. Like Graceland, the home of Elvis Presley. Like Beale Street, home to some of the most famous musicians in the country with great music shows every night of the week. Like the Civil Rights Museum, where the history of the fight for civil rights is displayed in all its moments of tragedy and triumph. Like the Stax Museum, where many of the greatest songs by the greatest singers were recorded. Like the famous Memphis barbeque – the best in the world – just ask any Memphian.

Each night there will be food treats for all the players. Several nights of entertainment also are planned.

If you get the impression that Memphis in March is going to be great, you're right on.

Norm Featherston Memorial Stratified 299er Swiss Teams

Norm served four years in the U.S. Air Force and then earned a B.S. in electrical engineering from the University of Washington. He worked for Boeing as an engineer for over 30 years until his retirement in 1991. While at Boeing, he spent much of his time training military personnel on missile operations.

During his college years, Norm made friends with Bob Weed. Their wives took bridge lessons and Jamie Weed (Steen) taught Norm how to play bridge. Thereafter, Norm and Bob became a successful partnership for years. Norm played with all of the best local players and had numerous regional wins, high finishes in NABC events, and represented District 19 in both the Grand National Teams and North American Open Pairs events many times.

Norm was one of the area's best bridge teachers and was always available to answer questions and mediate between partners. He had a special way of leading the players to the best solution without ever saying one or the other was wrong. With a great sense of humor hidden in a studious manner, Norm was always ready with a good story. Granddaughters Hannah and Rebecca Hensel were a great source of joy to Norm.

Steve Sidell Memorial Strati-Flighted Swiss Teams

Seattle native son Steve Sidell graduated from Franklin High School in 1965; then on to Occidental College in Los Angeles, where he obtained his B.A. in mathematics. While living in Southern California he was exposed to the Walsh or Western Scientific school of bidding, which he brought back to Seattle upon his return in the early 1970s.

Steve's pursuit and enjoyment of the game encompassed all aspects: playing, kibitzing, reading, teaching and discussing. He won numerous regional titles from 1968 until his death in 2009. He represented District 19 in Grand National Team competition multiple times.

He would travel to NABCs and world championships, play sparingly, kibitz frequently and enjoy the dining and tourist attractions at any and all venues. He once attended an NABC in New York City, and later disclosed he had not played a single session of bridge, but only kibitzed the major events. The truth be told, he had made dinner reservations weeks in advance at several notable restaurants. Steve did have his priorities, and the referenced week was not an isolated instance in his bridge-based travels.

In the last decade of his life, Steve directed much of his passion for bridge to teaching small groups throughout the greater Seattle area at senior centers, evening courses at local colleges or wherever groups of students might be developed. Steve was an amazing teacher and was greatly admired by his students.

While using structured ACBL course materials, he was able to convey both why the bidding and carding methods were recommended, and how to think about the game on a larger scale. Steve would quote his close friend, Paul Soloway, that winning bridge -- if it were a football game – is the result of good blocking and tackling, and does not depend on trick plays.

Shirley Opstad Memorial Stratified Open Pairs

Shirley graduated from the University of Washington, married Ed Opstad and shared the life of a career military man. While raising her four children, Shirley played bridge all over the country. The Opstad family moved to Texas where she had a great partnership with Colonel DeWitt Hudson.

After Ed's retirement, the Opstads returned home to live in Federal Way. She worked at Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center along with many other bridge players. Shirley had many successful partnerships while living in the Seattle area, and brought pleasure and grace to all she encountered at the table. Shirley was a woman small in stature but a tiger at the table.

Phil Wood Memorial Stratified Daylight Open Pairs

One of the larger-than-life characters who predominated on the Western Canadian and American bridge scene was Phil Wood of Vancouver BC. Phil's directing presence, beginning in the 1950s and continuing into the 21st Century, was marked by his magnetic personality, vibrant sense of humor and nearly unfathomable skills as a director. Particularly noteworthy was his capacity for adding recap sheets and tabulating scores in the tournaments before computers. His skills were legendary – and that's not an understatement! Stories of his handling of technical and interpersonal bridge matters are readily on the lips of both the directing staff who worked with and for him, and from the player community who benefited from his years of service.

Beyond what he brought directly to the game, Phil was justifiably proud of the quality of directors he recruited and assisted to national prominence, and the success that they shared with him. Phil lived his life to the fullest. The stories and shared moments he provided enriched all who had the good fortune to meet him.

Neil Ballard Memorial Stratified Open Pairs

Neil led a long and colorful life during which he won a state tennis championship as a teenager and innumerable bridge championships throughout his bridge career. He was a graduate of Stanford University where he was a four-year member of the tennis team. He received his MBA from Harvard University; served in World War II; and earned his private pilot's license on the GI Bill. He then embarked on a long career as a stockbroker which ended just one month before his death at age 90.

Neil was a fixture on the Seattle bridge scene for more than 50 years, winning at all levels with a wide range of partners and teammates. He won the Microsoft trophy for amassing the most masterpoints in a year at Seattle sectionals in his late 80s. He was just short of the 10,000 masterpoints he needed to become a Platinum Life Master. Known as the grand old man of Seattle men's interclub bridge, he captained the University Club team for 50 years. He was Father Neil to the last several generations of bridge players in Seattle.

Lynn Blumenthal Memorial Strati-Flighted Side Swiss Teams

Lynn Sara Blumenthal (1946-1994) was a lifetime Seattle area resident and a third generation Life Master. She won her first regional at age 26. With local teammates, Lynn won the 1987 Marsha May Sternberg Women's Board-a-Match Teams. Her other high-level wins were second in the North American Team Trials in 1988 and second in the 1993 Keohane North American Swiss Teams; she was also a member of the winning American team in the 1990 Goodwill games.

When she died at the age of 48, she was one of the leading players in western North America. Lynn is remembered for her gracious manner at the table and her acceptance of all competitors as equals in bridge and in life. Her voraciousness for knowledge, her puzzle-solving skill and her keen intellect made her a bridge champion. Her compassion for those less fortunate made her a champion of life.
