LOS ANGELES COUNTY S.G.V. EXAMINER B1 February 22 - 28, 2007 Whassup?

Because many people have come up to me recently and asked numerous questions about Glendora and her city government, I am going to do a Question and Answer column today.

Glendora has spent Q. millions of dollars on lawsuits. Why?

A. Glendora has NOT spent millions on lawsuits! We have not lost a significant lawsuit in more than five years. More importantly, the city has not spent one penny - not one! - as a result of any act, error or omission on the part of the Council in the four years.

The last lawsuit the city "lost" was the Gagne case. This case was settled because then Council Members John Harrold and Dick Jacobs took a position that undermined the city and made a defense untenable.

Q. I understand Glendora is being sued by LA County. Can you tell me why?

A. Sure. Glendora has begun the legal process to consolidate our three redevelopment agencies into one. This would lengthen the life of all of them and keep millions of property tax dollars in Glendora. LA County wants the property tax for itself and is therefore fighting the consolidation.

Q. What is the risk to Glendora of this lawsuit?

A. There is no risk. We can only win or break even. If we don't fight the county, they will take the property taxes by default. We have a very good chance of winning and keeping the taxes in Glendora. That's good for Glendora Taxpayers!

Q. A retired Glendora police officer sued Glendora. Why?

A. He wanted additional retirement benefits that had not been negotiated by the Police Officer's Association. The City declined to provide them; he sued and lost. That's also good for Glendora Taxpayers!

Q. The City has raised water rates every year since 2003. I'm told they have increased by 327%. True?

A. No! Rates have increased

Glendora Mayor Doug Tessitor

Taxpayers DO NOT PAY FOR ANY CLUB MEMBERSHIPS for Council members! There are no "club memberships", period. The only benefits made available to Council Members are health insurance and dental insurance. I don't believe any councilmember takes the health insurance and the council has no say on the cost of these benefits in any event. Finally, this council did vote to increase the compensation paid to council members; not for us, but for future council members. There had not been an adjustment in council compensation for more than 15 years. It was long overdue.

Q. Critics claim that you have given "millions in tax rebates" to "political backers"! What say you?

A. Not True! We have not paid a dime in tax rebates to anyone!

Q. Others say you have given "millions" to "developers." True?

A. Non! Nein! Nyet! No! We have given nothing to developers!

Q. On August 17, 2005 The reported Tribune that Glendora was facing bankruptcy. How do you respond?

A. On August 18, 2005, the very next day, The Tribune retracted that story as untrue. The reporter was suspended without pay for inaccurate We are an reporting. exceptionally healthy city financially!

Q. How can someone say these things if they are not true? A. It's called freedom of speech! Freedom of speech however, does not require that the speaker be taken seriously, or that his or her statements are accurate, let alone truthful.

Election Sign Vandals Arrested

Daughter of recalled councilman Sonny Marshall

GLENDORA — The three incumbent City Council candidates have been plagued by having many of their signs defaced with printed negative overlays using an extremely sticky, slimy adhesive, preventing removal.

Monday, February 19th, at about 10 p.m., on his way home, Councilman Gary Clifford happened upon two women in the process of defacing the signs at Foothill Blvd. and Lone Hill.

When Clifford asked them whether they were going to remove the stickers, they said no and took off in a car.

He followed them while calling the Glendora Police and they were stopped at Sierra Madre Blvd. and Valley Center.

According to Capt. Rob Castro, the two Glendora 18 year-olds were identified as Kelieigh Marshall and Christina Giammalva.

Marshall is the daughter of excouncilman, Sonny Marshall, who was recalled along with Dick Jacobs and ex-Mayor and current council candidate, John Harrold. The Lexus the two were in is registered to Sonny Marshall and contained many more of the overlay stickers.

Police made an arrest by way of a Private Persons (Citizen's) Arrest. Both were booked, interviewed at the police station and released on a misdeameanor citation to appear in court.

Virginia Marshall, wife of Sonny Marshall, appeared at the arrest location. Further investigation is planned and others may be charged in the matter.

Although all three incumbents have had their signs defaced, the majority of the defacing has been to Mayor Tessitor's signs.

Tessitor was a leader in the recall campaign against then Mayor Harrold, Councilmen Marshall and Jacobs. The three were recalled by Glendora voters after they obstructed the construction of the Glendora Marketplace, fired the City Manager and all the City Commissioners. Kristin Parisi, Harrold's co-host on his cable TV program, is employed by Sonny Marshall and is also running for City Council.

The exact signs defaced when the vandals were apprehended.

Examiner Endorses Walt Allen for Covina City Council

WALT ALLEN is an experienced leader with an impressive background. He is 100% prolaw enforcement. His proven leadership has made a difference at Governor Schwarzennegerr's Office and Youth Authority as well as being President of the Narcotic Officers' Association, Mayor of Covina, Assistant Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitations law enforcement branch. WALT ALLEN has been endorsed by the Covina Police Officers' Association, Los Angeles Deputy Sheriffs' Association, Crime Victims United of California and several county officials such as District Attorney Steve Cooley, Sheriff Lee Baca, Supervisor Michael Antonovich.and many other city officials and organizations..

WALT ALLEN is known for his tough stand to reduce crime, eliminate graffiti and ensure school safety. His record is impeccable. We have also endorsed TOM PALMERI, who together with WALT ALLEN will hold Covina to be fiscally accountable.

Platform of Azusa Council Candidate Andrea Cruz

Why are you running for Azusa City Council?

Special interests have succeeded in dominating our local government and directing city affairs.

Our elected representatives have received significant campaign contributions from these significantly since 2003 - about 16% per year, compounded; about one fourth the amount claimed above. This was necessary to start repairing our system and eliminate operating losses. Not raising rates would have been irresponsible and a betrayal of our citizens. See my Examiner article from last week!

Q. The Council has doubled their own pay and benefits; also, I hear they have increased dues taxpavers pay City Council Club for memberships by 1,000% sources and instead of representing the interests of the citizens, they are "working" for these corporations. It is the time for a change. The Citizens congress never wanted high density residential developments in our downtown, yet that is what is coming to our downtown.

I have heard the terms "opportunity," "momentum," and "progress" used frequently, are these positive changes for Azusa?

It is more like missed opportunity. Why are we not seeing more commercial square footage in any of the new developments? The commercial properties acquired by the City of Azusa Redevelopment Agency along Foothill and Azusa are now high density residential construction projects? Developers have contributed to the campaigns of two incumbents- so again we see the intentions of the Citizens congress being set aside.

If elected, what can you possibly do about this trend or "momentum"?

Lets begin by agreeing on a definition of terms. I have heard

Do you have any final thoughts to convey to the Azusa Voters?

Since 2003, 61 properties have been placed on a subject to eminent domain list by the City of Azusa.

Is this the kind of "momentum" Azusans support? Also, remember that all of these new developments are adding to our city's existing commercial deficit, this commercial deficit will be met eventually. Ask yourself-Where? It has happened already, the momentum is there, you have the power to stop it- Vote Andrea Cruz for Azusa City Council. Your concerns are my special interest. God Bless America!

To Enter the U.S.

First off, I would like to thank all of you for responding to my column where I offered my opinion on Iraq. It seemed that everywhere I went, people would come up and thank me for what I had to say. Well, to all of you, thank you for taking the time to respond to me.

On to this week's column. The Bush Administration is going to increase the official quota of Iraqis who will settle in the U.S. from 500 to 7,000 over the next year. Apparently, these people are refugees and displaced Iraqis.

Now, isn't this just sweat? I have to ask. Are some of these Bush administration people in some kind of position where they have their heads up their rear? Maybe they have had one too many drinks or maybe they are on drugs.

Since the war started four years ago, we have allowed 463 Iraqis into the U.S (202 last year alone). I have a whole bunch of questions. Do we know where all these people are? Why do we want to allow these people to come here? Don't they have some other area where they can reside, other than the U.S.?

We are planning to build a wall between Mexico and the U.S. in hopes of keeping undesirables from entering this country. There is plenty of testimony as to why we want to do this, but yet we want to bring in 7,000 people who don't care for our lifestyle, for our government and basically hate us. Another question; can the Bush administration guarantee me, my family and the rest of the citizens that not one of these 7,000 people will not later on strap on some explosives and blow themselves up in a public place? Can they guarantee that not one of these 7,000 people will wake up someday and decide that this will be the day that they take a shotgun and pistol into a shopping mall and start shooting people they don't even know, killing 5 and wounding many others?

Can the Bush administration guarantee that not even one percent of these people will not carry out some type of terrorist activities in the U.S., where people die. By the way, the one percent of the 7,000 would 70 people. That could be 70 terrorists. Why can't they stay in their own culture or an area where what they believe in is accepted. Why bring them to the United States? So what will this cost us financially for these people to be set up here?

Maybe, we the people, should be allowed to vote on this. I don't think that this is a good idea. I think they should be relocated close to their home land.

I think the Bush administration should take their heads out of their butts and think about Homeland Security and think about the Iraqis who they want to "misplace" far from their homes by bringing them to the U.S. It is just not a good idea in my opinion

I am writing in response to a letter you received from Bill Coats last week. In his remarks, Mr. Coats stresses the importance of retaining Diane Chagnon as mayor to keep "the team" together of her and Mr. Joe Rocha, who is also running for mayor. He wants Azusans to believe that the only way to keep the Rocha-Chagnon team together is by voting for Chagnon for mayor. This is a false and misleading statement. When Mr. Rocha is elected mayor, his council seat will become open since he has two years remaining on his term. The new City Council will have the option to appoint any registered voter in Azusa to that open seat, including Mrs. Chagnon.

I find it almost laughable that Diane Chagnon and Bill Coats stress the importance of maintaining experience in the office of mayor. It did not seem to matter in 2003 when Diane Chagnon and her city council colleagues Hardison and Stanford endorsed a 21 year-old college student named Todd Ashtar to run for mayor, who had no experience whatsoever. In 2005, Chagnon challenged incumbent mayor Christina Madrid from a safe seat. Chagnon did not mind breaking up a team to run for mayor. Madrid did not seek reelection, and city treasurer Uriel Macias ran for mayor instead. Chagnon barely beat Macias considering she had ten years experience on the council.

After seeing where Chagnon has been receiving her campaign donations, in my opinion, the race for mayor has come down to two choices:

1. The best mayor for all Azusa -Rocha

2. The best mayor money can buy - Chagnon

Says Signs Posted Illegally

Gary Clifford and his campaign have nailed dozens of his signs on telephone poles along Gladstone Street and other areas in southern Glendora. He claims to have been a police officer for many years, and he certainly knows what the campaign sign rules are. Not only is the placement of the signs on the poles illegal, but it is also dangerous for utility workers who have contact with the poles.

Gary Clifford abused his power as mayor by ordering prosecution of a senior citizen who rinsed an old paintbrush off in the street in front of his home and now he clutters our neighborhoods with signs placed on utility poles, parkways, and in public parks. I wonder if he has cluttered the northern precincts in this way. I don't think so.

Azusa's Campaign Finances at Whose Expense?

I recently read with great interest and amazement a newspaper article ("Chagnon has top spot in finances") in the San Gabriel Valley Tribune relative to the upcoming City of Azusa March 6, 2007 elections for Mayor and two Council seats. It was a well documented and researched article dealing with campaign contributions for all eight candidates (two for Mayor that article just below the headline news of that same day dealing with U.S. Congressman Gary Miller, 42nd District ("Miller Ties Benefit Developer"). Miller's ethic issues and problems stem from his relationship with Lewis Operating Company, one of the Southland's largest real estate developer, as well as his questionable purchase and sale of properties for large profits.

As a twenty-three year resident of Azusa and a retired government employee involved in multi-million construction and redevelopment projects for nearly 30 years, I find that the acceptance of campaign contributions from developers and contractors currently doing business with the City of Azusa to be not only unethical but a major conflict of interest.

DMMENTARY

We Should Have Seen This Coming!

For years, our state legislators had flaunted their will over the welfare of us venerable citizens. Even though they had burdened us with some of the highest taxes, assessments, fees, bond measures, etc. in The Land, they managed to amass a double-digit DEFICIT of BILLIONS of dollars in squandered spending!

They FORCED us to inject harmful additives into our gasoline, that are ruining our engines, seeping out and poisoning our food and water, and giving us the most expensive fuel in the Nation -- under the guise of cleaning up the air and protecting our health. Knowing that illegal aliens cost us $10 BILLION PER YEAR, they spat in our faces by passing a law granting state drivers licenses to illegals!

Having established themselves as THE ELITE OF THE REALM, rather than SERVANTS OF THE PEOPLE, they were too arrogant to realize that we Californios -- both Conservatives and Progressives -- could be pushed too far! So we FINALLY rebelled, and sought redress for eons of grievances, which our ALLEGED representatives RE-FUSED to acknowledge and honor.

J.J. McDonough

First, we recalled Gov. Davis from office. This instilled fear in the hearts of legislators, so they REPEALED the citizen-insulting ILLEGAL ALIEN Drivers License law. But that wasn't enough for the newly-empowered citizenry, who then placed an initiative on the ballot to LIMIT the amount of TIME these legislative dolts could spend in office insulting and abusing the citizens they SWORE (with crossed fingers behind their backs!) TO SERVE.

The initiative passed gloriously, and TEMPORARILY unseated long-time political bosses like Willie Brown and others. But, the measure didn't go far enough. A LOOPHOLE allowed politicos to seek a Senate seat when their Assembly term expired, and vice versa! So, we continued with a musical-chairs switch of Assembly-Senate representation of arrogant, abusing legislators.

As time passed, our erstwhile solons figured the short-sighted, electorate had forgotten about all that. In 2002, Prop 45 proposed that the legislators be able to run for an ADDITIONAL FOUR YEARS in office. Thankfully, INTELLIGENT voters soundly REJECTED this initiative.

But time continued to pass, and the POLITICAL environment in California seems to have CHANGED. Governor Arnold's proposals to reform California were THOROUGHLY trounced by Californios who USED TO WANT reform. So the governor abandoned his reforms-agenda, melted into the Sacramento political scene, and became a RepubliCrat. The Arnold also courted Mexico as a trade partner. Consequently, he began to HINT that he'd APPROVE another Illegal Alien Drivers License measure. He proposed a comprehensive socialized medicine bill, including FULL medical coverage for kids of ILLEGAL ALIENS.

This has prompted progressive politicos to believe the time is ripe to introduce and pass ANOTHER ILLEGAL ALIEN drivers license act . . . and more -- including a bill making criminals of parents who SPANK their kids! So, like a dead body rising in a swamp, the self-serving, special-interest-bloated legislature has resurfaced to OVER-TURN the term-limits law that the citizens OVERWHELM-INGLY passed by initiative. Currently, legislators can serve six (6) years in the Assembly; eight (8) years in the Senate. If elected to BOTH houses, they could serve a total of 14 years.

However, campaign consultants for Assembly Speaker Fabian Nunez (D-L.A.) and Senate President Pro Tem Don Perata (D-Oakland) -- both to be "termed out" next year -- propose a CHANGE in TERM LIM-ITS that would benefit their champions! Here's what they want: 12 years, which could be served TOTALLY in the Senate, or TOTALLY in the Assembly, or divided between both houses. But, here's the rub: There's NO GUARANTEE that THE PRO-POSAL would ABSOLUTELY PREVENT an Assemblyman from serving a TOTAL of 12 years in the Assembly, then running for another 12 YEAR TERM, if he spent it SOLELY in the Senate. And vice versa. That would give him a total of 24 YEARS, if elected to both houses, as compared to a dual election of 14 years under today's law!

And, what about serving as special-interest LOBBYISTS to former "friendly, mutual-backscratching" fellow-legislators, when a politico's terms have run out? if politicians can find a LOOPHOLE in a law.. THEY'LL FIND IT! Remember how they gerrymandered the state to ensure perpetual re-election during their halcyon days before term limits? As a matter of fact, politicos SPECIFICALLY craft laws -- and INFLUENCE INI-TIATIVES -- to contain LOOP-HOLES that benefit themselves ... at the expense of the PEOPLE they have SWORN TO SERVE.

If the initiative materializes, you'll have a chance to vote on it in the next election Seek Truth! Don't be deceived by the misleading PROPAGANDA designed to influence your decision in the voting booth!

Your Tax Dollars And Those Delta Levees

When engineers, hydrologists and soil scientists spoke in a single voice following the New Orleans levee failures during hurricane Katrina, Californians finally thought seriously about a similar disaster facing this state. With two-thirds of the state's residents, including the San Gabriel Valley, dependent upon a steady flow of water from the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, a comparable levee failure here would be a far greater calamity.

For a hundred years the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers have been inexpertly penned in to prevent flood waters from spreading over vast areas of the agricultural-rich Delta. Frequently major floods have caused levee failure or simply ridden over them, leaving farm land awash to a depth of ten or more feet. Patch-work, band aid repairs have followed, holding the rivers in check - until the next great flood. In fact, it doesn't even take a flood for the levees to fail. On a clear day a few years ago a levee failed because of the deterioration of the soil underneath it. An entire island disappeared for a time. Throughout 2006 politicians, editors and just plain citizens demanded that the fragile levee system of our Delta be bolstered. Southern Californians, as prime users of fresh water pumped from the Delta, were as concerned as residents of the Delta

Prof. Ralph E. Shaffer region.

The culmination was passage of two major bond issues at last November's election: Prop 1E and 84, which collectively provided nearly $5 billion for levee repairs. Compared to the other bond issues enacted at that same election, the levees appeared cheap. L.A. County voters supported both bonds, overwhelmingly. But some of those most knowledgeable about the geology of the Delta warned that what looked like a massive expenditure of funds for levees was in reality a great waste of money. Five billion would only shore up a small portion of a sixteen hundred mile levee system, all of which was in trouble.

the San Joaquin county town of Lathrop and an energetic developer.

As the governor, the legislature and most newspaper editorial boards urged passage of the levee bonds, another force was quietly moving in another direction.

Stewart Island, for decades an agricultural tract, lies along the San Joaquin River. Its other two boundaries are branches of the San Joaquin, creating the island near Stockton. A few years ago the little town of Lathrop annexed it, about the time that a giant European company, Cambay, decided to put 11,000 homes and a business park on the largely uninhabited island.

Never mind that the island has been inundated three times in the last century. Cambay proposed a 300 foot wide levee, several times the usual width, to protect the development. Of course, the flood waters have to go somewhere, and Cambay's super levee will cause a levee failure elsewhere. And we'll pay to shore that one up. Using conservative statistics that failed to consider environmental changes that have alarmed most scientists, Cambay was able to convince the State Reclamation Board, which has some authority over levee adjustments and development in the flood plain, that Stewart Island would no longer be in danger.

Enter FEMA, that failed agency that justly bore the brunt of public criticism over its dismal performance in the wake of the Katrina disaster. FEMA blessed the project, ruling that a large portion of Stewart Island, where the first 2400 homes would be built, was no longer a flood plain.

Never mind that the Reclamation Board gave Cambay its apshare of our levee bonds - to furproval without a public hearing. ther protect them from the in-Some of our local city councils evitable flood that they will tell have been accused of that too: us will cause tens of millions of violating the law by enacting measures that weren't on the now. agenda. What champions of big business would call "frivolous lawsuits" - to force the Board to rescind its approval of this rescind its action - followed. The Katrina waiting to happen. Board did rescind, but in the next Cal Poly Professor emeritus breath, after giving a ho-hum Ralph E. Shaffer can be reached hearing to the complainants - at reshaffer@csupomona.edu.

Which gets us back to those billions in levee bonds you San Gabriel Valley voters cast ballots for last November.

It doesn't take a genius to imagine that in the near future Cambay, Lathrop and the newly housed residents of Stewart Island will be demanding their fair dollars in damage if we don't act

And we should act now... to force the Reclamation Board to

If that wasn't bad enough, all the talk about prohibiting development in a flood plain that couldn't really be protected seemed to pass over the heads of the State Reclamation Board,

COMMENTARY

An Early Look at 2008: The Democrats

To write this early about the 2008 race for the White House is, at best, a risky proposition. The field is so deep, the candidates so varied, and the process is so unpredictable. Predictions and even observations made at this time can easily be eclipsed by a number of developments occurring between now and the first contests in Iowa and New Hampshire in January of 2008.

There are already, ten democrats and 13 Republicans who have either announced their intentions to run or appear likely to do so.

Last weekend, I was at the Democratic National Committee meeting where all ten Democrats delivered speeches before the party's leaders. I came away from the event with a number of reflections.

First is the fact that this is an extremely diverse field, rich in experience, presenting real choices for Democratic voters. By diversity, I don't mean gender, race and ethnicity - although these factors do represent an exciting feature of this contest that can't be ignored. Listening to the Democratic hopefuls, what struck me as most intriguing were the very distinctive messages and even meta-messages they conveyed.

There were, of course, some differences in how several of the key issues were addressed. But these differences were not so great that even a casual observer would not have been able to discern a consensus Democratic case for 2008: fixing the nation's broken healthcare, education and immigration systems; rejection of the Bush administration's unilateralism in foreign affairs in favor of a restoration of America's diplomatic leadership in the world; and protecting the middle class and poor from the ravages of unfair tax cuts and loss of employment opportunities. Given this list of problems to be addressed, as I noted, there were some differences in the solutions proposed. But they were not as great as the candidates may attempt to project them to be, in their efforts to appeal to various segments of Democratic voters.

The real differences lay elsewhere, in fact, on a deeper level.

Ms. Clinton, for example, far and away the leader in early polling, exudes not only confidence but an aura of inevitability. After Democrats have been in exile for six years, she promises a return. Her supporters convey the message that not only can she win, but that she will win and so "get on the train now, because it's off and running."

Clinton touts her experience, her ability to do real politics, and her toughness in battle. She is the legacy candidate saying, "I know how to fight." Without saying more, she reminds the faithful of both past glories and hurts.

The message she sends is clear: if you want to win and get back what we had before, I'm the one who will get you there. I know who I am, you know who I am, and you know what I can do - an evident reminder of past candidates who never quite solidified their message.

Former Senator Edwards who never stopped running after the Democratic defeat in 2004, has become a force in his own right. He targeted core Democratic issues, heightened his profile in key primary states, and built a national organization. Focusing on the highly evocative message of "two Americas," which he first exposed to the nation during his 2004 primary campaign, he has captured support in the liberal wing of the party. Like John Kennedy, he projects powerful images of blight, poverty, the growing gap in health care, and the insecurity of America's poor and working class, to develop a compelling message that has resonated with the Democratic faithful.

And then there is Senator Barack Obama. If John Edwards is adopting the John Kennedy persona with his "other America" theme, Obama is a latter-day Bobby Kennedy whose youthful and charismatic message of hope is bringing inspiration to a new generation of voters.

Senator Obama, initially dismissed by some as a phenomenon, appears to be the real thing. His bestselling books and his compelling speaking style have not only inspired, but conveyed wisdom and deep understanding of some of the most complex issues facing contemporary America.

Through much of his speech at last weekend's Democratic meeting, the audience sat spellbound, captivated by his unique appeal. He did not present a litany of issues and solutions - these he promised would come later. His message was one of hope and his promise to end cynicism and "politics as usual." The rapturous applause that greeted his conclusion made it clear that his message resonated.

These three, the current frontrunners and the most intriguing candidates to emerge, by no means exhaust the Democratic field. New Mexico's Governor Bill Richardson and Senator Joseph Biden, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, point to their strong foreign policy credentials, so necessary to fix America's troubled standing in the world. This is also the message of former General Wesley Clark, who has yet to declare his candidacy.

Connecticut Senator Thomas Dodd brings not only an impressive record in foreign and domestic policy, he is also a force-

Who is JOE ROCHA?

By Victor Subia

"If it has to happen then it all depends on me." This is one of the most recognized quotes of Councilman Joe Rocha. Born and raised in Azusa, he graduated from Azusa High School and earned his bachelors degree in social science from the University of La Verne where he later earned his masters degree in administration with high honors. He did all these while teaching the third grade class in the morning, studying for his master's degree in the afternoon and teaching classes at night for adults. After thirty-eight years of teaching, he retired but continues as administrator of adult classes at night.

Several citizens consider Joe Rocha as the 'heart' of the city council for his compassionate nature, expressed through the various ventures he has done for the community. In doing what is best for Azusa, he formed a volunteer group and initiated quality programs such as offering food to the needy, services for the seniors, litter clean-up, and graffiti removal. In beautifying Azusa, countless trees were planted, placing Azusa on the list of "Tree City U.S.A."

Since his election to the city council he has worked incessantly with local veteran groups volunteering time and effort in planning and preparing events such as veterans day commemoration day, the walk of freedom where names of the soldiers from Azusa appear on marble blocks, and the creation of all the existing monuments in front of city hall containing some names of service men killed in action defending our country. A mobile type wall, a replica of the original Vietnam Wall in Washington was recently erected and placed in exhibition for public viewing. Joe and various groups have organized a collection, packaging and mailing Christmas packages for soldiers serving in Iraq. In Joe's capacity as head of the veterans committee, he welcomes returning heroes from their tour of duty in Iraq and presenting them with certificates of recognition for their loyalty and achievements. Joe Rocha is a religious man and as such, he is honest, refusing large donations toward his campaign believing such, as a marginal conflict of interest when such companies have a contract with the city. He evaluates all proposals on the council agenda and accepts only those that benefit the city and the community.

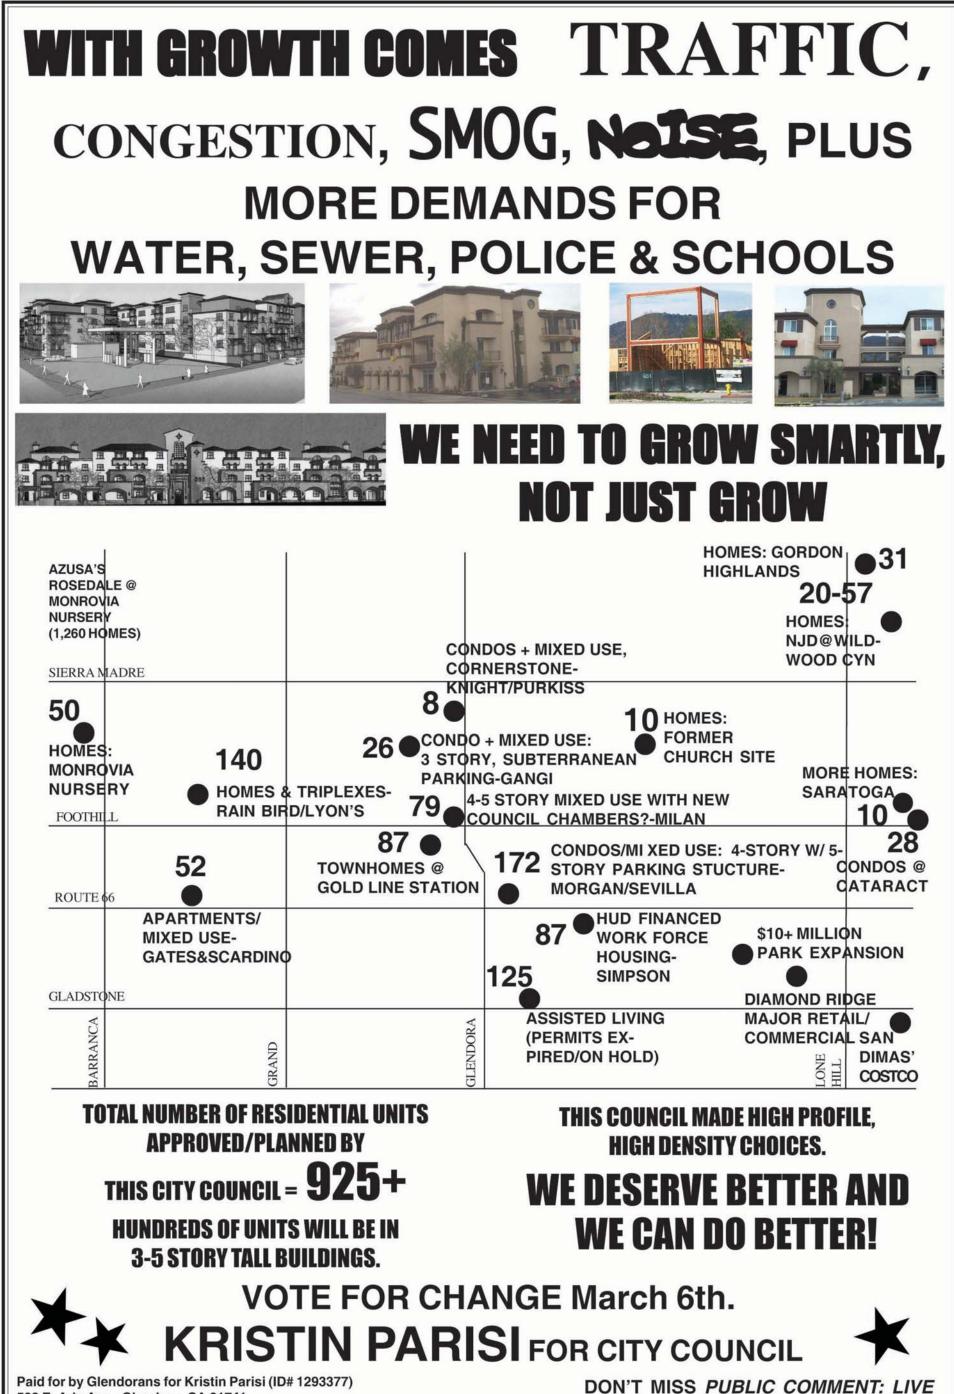

Councilman JOE ROCHA has received numerous awards as;

- Teacher of the year in 1984
- Honored as Teacher in Excellence (twice)
- Humanitarian Award from the County of Los Angeles in 1986
- Citizen of the Year Award by the Chamber of Commerce
- Outstanding Hero Award from Los Angeles County Fair
- Honorary Veteran by Azusa Veterans Committee
- International Award from Rotary Club
- Life membership from Parent Teacher Association
- Award for Service Rendered to Children

JOE ROCHA is a family man, married to Linda with whom he is blessed with three sons and a daughter.

The Chairman Travels To Capital Hill

Every six months, the Chairman of the Federal Reserve makes his way up Capital Hill for his testimony regarding the state of the economy. Last week, Chairman Bernanke sat before the legislative body for two days describing what turned out to be a very warmly received speech. The key line from Bernanke's testimony is that the Federal Open Market Committee is not yet ready to relax its anti-inflationary stance. He repeated the warning from the last FOMC statement that the "predominant policy concern is the risk that inflation will fail to ease as expected and that it [the FOMC] is prepared to take action to address inflation risks if developments warrant."

That said, the Chairman reiterated the Fed expectation for growth to moderate and inflation to fall. The Fed's central tendency forecasts for growth is lower than in July, but the inflation forecast was left unchanged. The central tendency forecast for GDP in 2007 is 2.5% to 3.0%, down from 3% to 3.25%. The central tendency forecast for core PCE inflation is 2% to 2.25%, the same as it was in July. For the unemployment rate, it is 4.5% to 4.75%, down from 4.75% to 5%.

Of these, the most surprising is the inflation forecast, because the core inflation rate at the end of 2006 was 2.2%, already in the central tendency range for 2007. The Fed is unusually skeptical in forecasting below trend GDP growth for a year and no decline in inflation, especially since core inflation has fallen significantly in the past four months.

In Bernanke's text, he stressed the overall good health of the economy, even as it "appears to be making a transition from the rapid rate of expansion ... to a more sustainable pace of growth." The principal source of moderation is the correction in the housing market, though spillover from the housing slowdown appears to be minimal. Inflation pressures have abated, he said, but monthly numbers are volatile so the Fed cannot take the recent downward trend for granted. Bernanke credits falling energy prices for the moderation in both headline and core inflation. Recent price moderation in rents has been by far the most significant factor in the slowdown in core inflation, but Bernanke failed to mention it.

Delinquency rates on household loans remain low, the Chairman said, though he admitted to the recent spike in sub prime mortgage delinquencies. The wave of bankruptcies did not warrant a mention in the prepared text.

Risks to the outlook noted by the Chairman are "significant."

The ultimate extent of the housing market correction is difficult to forecast and could be worse than expected by the Fed. It's noteworthy that the correction to date has already been worse than anticipated by the Fed.

Spillover from the housing correction is also possible. That could mean slower consumer spending and slower job creation.

The primary upside risk, he said, is that growth could exceed expectations if consumer spending continues to increase at the "brisk pace seen in the second half of 2006."

Observations: In talking to an economist friend of mine that follows the Fed's moves and actions, he notes there are two issues that should be pointed out. On the one hand, bond investors should be thrilled with the Fed's tenacity against inflation. Bernanke's credibility as an inflation fighter is undeniable after just a year at the helm of the Board of Governors.

On the other hand, the Fed has tended to ignore bad economic news and panic at good news over the course of that year. As this friend of mine stated, "If the Fed thinks inflation expectations are so dangerous, why do they spend so much time fanning those expectations?" Bernanke's characterization of consumption as too "strong" in the second half glosses over the fact that consumption slowed in the second and third quarters before jumping to 4.4% in the fourth. (And even the 4.4% rise was not as strong as all that, because almost 1% of that real rise came from a decline in prices.)

February 22 - 28, 2007

The Fed's assessment of housing is similar. Sub prime lenders are closing their doors, mortgage spreads are starting to rise, banks and mortgage companies are tightening credit standards, making mortgages more expensive, mortgage applications are falling again. Yet, the Fed worries that housing might rebound, derailing the slowdown.

How can I save on my home heating bill?

Lower your furnace thermostat 3 - 5 degrees, use extra blankets, check your water heater temperature, and inquire about the utility company's payment plan. If there are any rooms in your house that you are not using, close the furnace vent(s), and the door, to those rooms. Check to see if your attic is adequately insulated, and close your fireplace flew when not in use. Make sure your furnace is running efficiently - change the filter monthly, remove the dust, and check to see that you are not inadvertently heating the attic due to a loose panel or duct work. (Don't laugh, this happened to me last year - the access panel had fallen open; much of the furnace heat was wasted on heating my attic!) The repair man told me that the gas company will check the furnace for free, but I haven't tried that yet.

And, what's a "no cost" loan? How can I tell what's good?

As you know, I'm a Sr. Loan Officer and a Mortgage Coach, and let me tell you, it really infuriates me to see these borderlineunethical mailers, radio, and television offers. There's supposed to be Truth-in-Lending, but some folks try to get as close to the edge of truth vs. lies as they can without getting in trouble. A "no cost" loan can mean several things - either that all the costs will be rolled into your loan, or that you are paying a much higher interest rate, giving them enough profit that they cover the costs. Either way, you are go ing to pay. You don't honestly expect anyone to work for free - you wouldn't, right? But, there are ways to pay for the service you are getting that make it beneficial to you, too. A win / win situation. # Glendora Republican Club Calls On Harrold and Parisi To Disavow Sleazy Campaign Tactics

The Board of Directors of the Glendora Republican Club today called upon Glendora City Council candidates John Harrold and Kristin Parisi to disavow the actions of their campaign supporters in defacing, vandalizing and destroying campaign signs of their opponents. Harrold/ Parisi workers were caught by the Glendora Police Department Monday night putting defamatory stickers on the campaign signs of Councilmen Gary Clifford, Ken Herman and Doug Tessitor.

"We're willing to give Mr Harrold and Ms Parisi a chance to show their disgust and contempt for these illegal and un-American actions by their supporters", said Club Director Garrett Conrad. "We call upon Harrold and Parisi to issue an official statement today declaring under penalty of perjury that they had no knowledge of, nor involvement with, these criminal actions of their supporters".

Harrold and two allies were recalled by the voters of Glendora in 2002 after gaining control of the city a year earlier. Their three member council majority promptly fired the City Manager, removed all sitting City Commissioners and presided over an unprecedented year of turmoil in City government.

One of the Harrold allies recalled along with him, was former Councilman Sonny Marshall. Marshall continues to be a strong supporter of John Harrold and currently employs his running mate Kristin Parisi, in the office of his construction company. One of the workers caught defacing the signs of the three incumbent Glendora councilmen was the adult daughter of recalled Glendora councilman Sonny Marshall.

The statement by the Glendora Republican Club also called for a full investigation by the Glendora Police Department into these crimes and full prosecution as provided by law.

They noted the irony of Deputy District Attorney John Harrold being implicated in campaign tactics that violate the law, and urged him to immediately come clean with any information in his possession to aid the police investigation. Conspiracy to commit crimes, and to cover up those already committed, can be charged as either misdemeanors or felonies, depending on the severity of the crimes involved.

The Glendora Republican Club is Glendora's oldest and largest political organization, dating back to the 1950's. Glendora is strongly Republican by voter registration, and it's voters have a reputation for supporting clean campaigns and honest government. The City Council election is scheduled for March 6, 2007.

Note: The Harrold/Parisi campaign has been given the opportunity to respond in next week's issue.

Glendora Police Arrest Suspect Who Fled After Fatal DUI Traffic Collision

GLENDORA — On February 15 at approximately 8:32 pm, Glendora police received a call of an injury traffic collision at the intersection of Loraine Avenue and Bennett Avenue in Glendora.

While officers were responding, citizens reported that the driver of one of the two involved vehicles was fleeing the scene on foot, and that he was being chased by two Good Samaritans.

When officers arrived, they aided the driver of the second vehicle, a 63-yearold female Glendora resident, who was trapped and unconscious inside her vehicle, a 1999 Ford Contour sedan.

The Ford Contour was broadsided directly at the driver's door by the front of the second vehicle, a 2003 Mercedes-Benz E320 sedan, causing the Mercedes-Benz' driver-side airbag to deploy.

Other responding Glendora officers cordoned-off a neighborhood where the two Good Samaritan teenagers last saw the fleeing driver/suspect run. Pasadena PD's helicopter arrived to assist, just as Glendora officers caught the suspect hiding in the front yard of a residence.

Glendora resident Basil Winn, 26, was intoxicated and arrested.

He was charged with felony driving under the influence of alcohol resulting in injury to another person, and felony hit & run resulting in injury to another person. He is being held at the Glendora Police Department jail with bail set at $100,000.

The second driver/victim was initially transported to Foothill Presbyterian Hospital. She was then transported by helicopter to LA County/USC Trauma Center for treatment.

On February 15 at 9:36 pm, the victim was pronounced dead at LA County/USC Hospital.

The suspect, Basil Winn, was additionally charged with Vehicular Manslaughter-DUI with gross negligence. The bail remained at $100,000.

On February 16, 2007 a bail enhancement was obtained increasing Suspect Basil Winn's bail to $250,000. Basil remains in custody at the Glendora Police Department and is expected to be arraigned on Tuesday, February 20, 2007 at West Covina Superior Court.

ful speaker who, like Edwards, reaches traditional Democratic voters. Iowa's two-term former Governor Tom Vilsack presents a steady hand and strong leadership credentials. Then there's Senator Mike Gravel, an anti-war hero from the days of Vietnam, and Congressman Dennis Kucinich, Congress's current leading anti-war champion. At this early stage, none of these seven have made it into doubledigits in national or statewide polling, but as I said, it's too early to write anyone out. As Richardson reminded the party faithful, "stay loose" - this race is just starting.

Domestic or international crisis can change the campaign's dynamic, as can a candidate's mistakes, past or present. Should former Vice President Gore make a late entrance into the campaign, the entire picture could change and change dramatically.

Even with this, one thing is clear: Democrats have one of the richest and most diverse field of candidates as any I can recall. It will be a fascinating campaign to watch.

reporters covering the Bernanke testimony was: if Bernanke simply repeated what the Fed has been saying for months, why did the stock and bond markets do so well in reaction? There are several good reasons. First, Democratic senators were gracious to the Chairman. Some expected a more hostile reception. Second, the Fed is sticking with its forecast of slowing growth and falling inflation, and third, Bernanke's emphasis on the strength of the fourth quarter takes on a whole new meaning as it becomes increasingly clear that the 3.5% advance estimate of GDP growth is going to be revised much lower, perhaps to 2.0%. Finally, it's reassuring to investors to see the Fed Chairman stand firm on the need to resist inflation in the face of even mild political pressure to relax its vigilance.

A Personal Message From Glendora Mayor Pro Tem Ken Herman

After six years of serving our great City, I have decided to run for re-election for City Council in the upcoming election that will be held on March 6. My decision to continue my service to you is quite simple, I love this City.

For those of you that do not know me personally, allow me to briefly explain my background and why I am seeking another term on the City Council. I am sixty years of age and for 35 years worked in the securities industry as a Managing Director for Bank of America Capital Markets. I am currently retired. My wife Joanne and I have been married 25 years, and have two daughters and one granddaughter.

We chose to live in Glendora because we believe in strong family values, good educational opportunities, a safe environment and enjoy the pristine foothills around us.

I am a member of Rotary, Chamber of Commerce, Glendora Masonic Lodge, Kiwanis, and Glenkirk Church. It has been my pleasure representing Glendora as a

Councilmember and Planning Commissioner. My pledge when RE-ELECTED is continuing to support:

* Police and Fire services

* Cultivating a healthy business environment

* Keeping streets and water systems in good repair

* Protecting our foothills and increasing Glendora Conservancy's land assets as open space

* Expanding parks and playgrounds for our community

* Prudent fiscal management keeping a balanced budget

* Maintaining the harmony and civility that this council has achieved

* Enhancing our quality of life in Glendora that attracted all of us to live here

As your Councilmember I will continue to work hard to support and maintain these values. Retired from Investment Banking and with my passion for Glendora, I will work full time to achieve these goals.

Because of the integrity of this City Council, progress in the interest of all citizens has been achieved. Looking at the achievements of this Council, you see a proven track record of constructive positives that you can rely on.

When I think about our beautiful City, I think of the vibrant energy of our citizens reflected in their willingness to volunteer and to serve, and the positive input from concerned citizens demonstrated through respect and civility.

The question has been asked of me, why are you involved on the City Council? I have always been taught to give back and to contribute to what ever my passion may be. My passion has been serving Glendora over the past six years; it has certainly been my pleasure. What is especially gratifying is that I feel, because I love this City, that I am contributing something good that will last forever.

I am big on tradition and legacy and I believe with all my heart that what I do will be looked at and appreciated by my community today and by generations tomorrow.

I am proud of what we have accomplished. Some decisions have come easy and some not so easy. But, I am especially proud of the following:

* The remodeling of Pompei Park-this will be the Cadillac of Sports Parks.

* The Transit Plaza in the Village

* Maintaining a balanced budget

* Diamond Ridge and the Marketplace District-This is the major source of our sales tax revenue base.

* Defeat of "Measure A" and the continued support of all our foothills. When looking ba

When looking back at the last several years I can honestly say, we have created a proud legacy.

I feel that I have much more to do and so much more to accomplish; in projects that are either in the talking stage, on the drawing board, or in the process of being completed.

I have heard from many of you on how happy you are with the goals and accomplishments achieved over the past several years and how positive the current makeup and fabric is of our City Council.

I always have said that this is a Council that has bigger ears than mouths - we are good listeners. I consider all of you as not only citizens, but as neighbors. I have much more to do, much more to give, and much more to contribute. I respectfully ask you, my neighbors, to reelect me on March 6.

Your vote will determine the destiny of our City.

Thank you,

Ken Herman

Platform of "Joseph" Yousef Tweini

Dear Glendora Residents:

I have been a resident of this beautiful city for over 13 years. My wife, four children and I have enjoyed living in Glendora. My children go to Glendora schools and appreciate their friends, teachers and the education they receive. I have the desire to serve you with honor and pleasure. I want to serve because I want to give back to the community. This is the community that we have good family values and we share and care for each other. As we serve each other, we become closer to each other. I want to serve you with honor and pleasure as a member of the Glendora City Council.

The light assessment is not fair and should be revoked. I am totally against the light assessment. I think the City Council should negotiate with SCE to take care of the maintenance partly or totally at no or minimum charge. The balance of the cost can be divided over all Glendora resiindirectly in the development of the city. Also would like to see our youth working with these developers and contractors building our city. This will give us the pride of developing and improving the city together.

We must support our schools with funds to improve education. We are in the digital age. We must improve our teaching methods to be compatible with the new era. We need to upgrade the structure of our schools as necessary. to vote their own opinion or those who they cater to.

I believe Glendora should maintain its close community atmosphere and not cater to major developers who desire high density residential buildings. We need to preserve the "Pride of the Foothills".

We need to have strategic planning for the City that includes thoughtful development; careful budgeting and most importantly listen to your input. We need to give priority to projects within our city by importance and benefits to the entire community. We need to streamline the city's operations and implement policies to eliminate or reduce red tapes and ensure accountability.

We need to assure that the city is financially healthy. We must find ways to help the economy grow and find balance between the needs of the people and the needs of the business community. We also need to find ways to modernize the city with and the quality of life.

Glendora police plays an important roll in the safety and security of our residents. We need to increase our police force as the population increases and to provide for them the best technology equipment and the latest computerized communications.

We need to stop given multi million dollar contracts without bidding.

We must be wise on how to spend taxpayer's money. We must negotiate contracts to the best interest of the Glendora residents. We need to stop the back door dealings and stop giving contracts on a silver platter for the influential special interest.

As an engineer I would look at things from variety of angles and as a manager, I bring lots of experience of project management, quality decisions, and controlling budgets.

I can not promise you to land on the moon, nor I can promise you to be millionaires, but I can by listening to you, and take your interest at heart when making my decisions. We need leaders who are inspired, ambitious, committed and willing to take us to new horizon.

This election is about the future of Glendora and the heritage we want to preserve, "Pride of the Foothills", for the future generations. With your support and your vote for me, we can do it. I will be your voice in the City Council

I am confident that I can make a difference by committing myself to serve you with fairness and dedication.

Glendora is a great place to live in and I will work hard to make sure we continue to enjoy a prosperous livelihood and the small community atmosphere. Remember on March 6, 2007, a vote for "Joseph" Yousef Tweini is a vote for a better future for our city.

Every vote counts and I am counting on you.

dents to pay few dollars towards the maintenance of the historic lights.

I want to save Glendora from the special interest influence. I have decided not to accept any donations from anyone for one reason only. When I win the seat, I will be myself and the voice of the people. I will owe no one any favors, and I will be accountable to the people of Glendora. I will be free to serve you without the influence of the special interest. I am funding my campaign from my own personal money. I am putting my money where my heart is.

I would like to see Glendora contractors involved directly or

The water and sewage systems are deteriorating and the cost is mounting. This needs a stronger leadership in the City Council to make tough decisions and to invest in the future of our city and replace the water and sewage systems.

I believe that Glendora deserves stronger leadership in the City Council. I also believe in an open, transparent and accountable City Council. Each member of the City Council has an obligation to provide the best service and to represent the interest of the entire community; not just structural growth without compromising the quality of services promise you to make a difference. I can make a difference bless you.

NOTICE OF 30 DAY PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD TO REVIEW THE CITY OF GLENDORA'S 2007-2008 ONE-YEAR ACTION PLAN AND AMENDMENT OF THE 2002-2007 CONSOLIDATED PLAN FOR THE COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM

THE CITY OF GLENDORA CITY COUNCIL WILL CONCLUDE THE 30-DAY PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD TO REVIEW THE 2007-2008 ONE-YEAR ACTION PLAN AND AMENDMENT OF THE 2002-2007 CONSOLIDATED PLAN FOR COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM FUNDING, ON MARCH 27, 2007 AT 7:00 P.M. IN THE CITY COUNCIL CHAMBERS AT GLENDORA CITY HALL, 116 EAST FOOTHILL BOULEVARD, GLENDORA, CA

The City of Glendora announces that the ANNUAL ACTION PLAN (2007-2008) as required by the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act of 1990, is available for public review beginning on February 22, 2007. In addition, the City of Glendora hereby announces THE 2007-2008 ONE YEAR ACTION PLAN AND AMENDMENT OF THE 2002-2007 CONSOLIDATED PLAN FOR THE CITY OF GLENDORA'S 2007-2008 COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM

The 2007-2008 Annual Action Plan functions as an annual application for federal funds under U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) formula grant programs, specifically, the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), Program

The Draft of the Annual Action Plan (2007-2008) incorporates that section of the Five Year Consolidated Plan (2002-2007) that describes the strategy to carry out federal programs, indicates the general priorities for allocating funds and describes the basis for assigning the funding to each priority need. The Glendora City Council has approved a change in the priority of CDBG funding for the 2007-2008 fiscal year. The 2007-2008 One-Year Action Plan and amended 2002-2007 Consolidated Plan will reflect the changes proposed for both documents. The 2007-2008 One Year Action Plan includes a description of the activities, funded with HUD Community Development formula grant funds that will be undertaken during the next year (July 1, 2007-June 30, 2008) to address priority needs. For fiscal year 2007-2008 the City of Glendora anticipates receiving from HUD a total of $353,842 in CDBG funds. In addition, the City will receive $75,000 in unallocated funds from Program Income (deferred loan repayments). The total anticipated funds are projected to equal $428,842 for fiscal year 2007-2008.

The Glendora City Council and the Planning and Redevelopment Department staff are vitally interested in improving and increasing communication with Glendora citizens in the areas of housing and community development.

The approved Annual Action Plan (2007-2008) which incorporates that section of the Five Year Consolidated Plan (2002-2007) and describes the strategy to carry out federal programs is at the following locations throughout the City: PLANNING AND REDEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT: 1.

City of Glendora

116 East Foothill Boulevard and 224 North Glendora Avenue Glendora, CA 91741

American Red Cross Meals on Wheels Program

The project will provide two nutritious meals Monday through Friday to Glendora residents who are homebound in Glendora. The participants receiving the meals are low and very low-income residents of Glendora. An average of 79 Glendora residents participated in this citywide program on a daily basis during 2004-2005. They expect to serve an average of 35 Glendora residents per month. The American Red Cross is located at 957 North Grand Avenue, Covina. Citrus College Orfalea Family Children's Center $15,056

Funding for this program will provide two and one-half low and moderate income Glendora residents with access to licensed family day care and pre-school services for their children. Glendora families presently make up 20% of the students attending the day care program. Citrus College is located at 1000 West Foothill Boulevard in Glendora.

YWCA - WINGS $ 5,000 The primary goal of the citywide YWCA - WINGS domestic violence program is to provide battered women and their children up to age 18 with emergency shelter and prevention and intervention services. The YWCA is located at Eye-DAS (Eye Diseases Are Serious) by Eye-DAS Foundation $ 3.000 Eye-DAS provides an educational and social environment for adults with vision disorders who reside in the City of Glendora. The visually impaired members meet on a regular basis so that they can be informed about medical and social issues related to their visual problems, made aware of available resources and enjoy interactions with others with visual challenges. Eye-DAS Administrative Offices are located at 150 West Route 66 in Glendora.

Glendora Reads! - Adult Literacy $15,000 Provide adult literacy services to 25 new adults including tutoring to Glendora adults over 16 years of age, especially low income adults and at-risk youth. They also sponsor Outreach programs for adults who are homebound or disabled in health care-retirement facilities and the community unable to access onsite library services. The Glendora Library is located at 140 South Glendora Avenue in Glendora.

Project Sister - Senior Citizen Safety Program

Project Sister Sexual Assault Crisis and Prevention Program is implemented citywide. The Senior Safety Program, an educational program strives to increase awareness by seniors on potential risks of being victims of crime including sexual assault, robbery, burglary and financial exploitations. Project Sister also provides a 24-hour crisis hotline, hospital and court accompaniment and individual and group counseling as needed by participants of the program and residents of Glendora. Project Sister's Sexual Crisis and Prevention Program administrative offices are located at 363 South Park Avenue, Suite 303 in Pomona.

Glendora Welfare Association

The Glendora Welfare Association, through Operation Improvement, intervenes with assistance in cases of financial emergency. Food vouchers, motel vouchers, gasoline vouchers, bus tokens, rental assistance and utility payments are issued for short term use. This program is for Glendora residents and is administered Citywide. Glendora Welfare Association is located at 114 North Glendora Avenue, Suite 218, Glendora.

East San Gabriel Valley Coalition for the Homeless

The East San Gabriel Valley Coalition for the Homeless provides emergency shelter and food each night during the cold weather months from mid-November through March. In addition, they provide year round emergency assistance to homeless and "at risk" persons and families such as food, clothing, diapers, hygiene kits, blankets, etc. as well as information and referrals, transportation assistance and social service advocacy. The Coalition is located at 1345 Turnbull Canyon Road in Hacienda Heights. This is a citywide program.
