

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT...

Your Telephone Interview

Thank you for choosing Genworth. You will be contacted within 24 hours, for a 30-minute confidential telephone interview to help determine your coverage qualifications.

For your telephone interview, please make a list of the following

medical information:

- Your physicians' names and addresses
- Any prescribed medicine, including dosage and frequency
- Dates of any recent visits to doctors or clinics
- Your driver's license number

Your Paramedical Appointment

At the end of the telephone interview, you may be asked to schedule a basic paramedical exam. There is no cost to you for this examination and it can take place at your home or place of employment. The paramedical examiner will bring your application package for your review and signature. Please follow the instruction page and give the signed package to the examiner. If the examination is scheduled to be in North Carolina or Texas, the application package will be mailed to you.

The exam includes your:

- Height and weight
- Blood pressure and pulse
- Urine and blood samples are also needed
- Depending on your age and medical history, an electrocardiogram (EKG) may be required

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT...

Prior to the Paramedical Appointment:

Try not to eat any food 2 hours prior. If at all possible, fast for 12 hours.

Get a good night's sleep.

Avoid drinking alcoholic beverages for at least 8 hours.

Do not smoke or drink coffee for at least 1 hour before your appointment.

Drink a glass of water 2 hours prior.

Advise the paramedic of any medications you are taking.

Other Requirements

Based on your medical history and the amount of insurance requested, we may need to request additional information from your doctor or an investigative consumer or motor vehicle report.

Once all the information is collected, an underwriter will evaluate your life insurance application to determine if you are eligible for life insurance and your underwriting classification.

Next, your agent or financial advisor will contact you regarding your life insurance eligibility based upon your application. If your application is approved, your agent or financial advisor will deliver your life insurance policy detailing your amount of coverage, duration of coverage and actual premiums calculated for your underwriting classification.

Please contact your life insurance agent or financial professional with any questions about your life insurance policy.
