securing payment of receivable and delinquent accounts, preparing minutes of Court proceedings, assisting attorneys and litigants, processing judicial decisions, and other recordkeeping duties.

The Court Services Assistant is a three level series distinguished primarily by the complexity of work, level of independent judgment, and action and application of technical knowledge.

Court Services Assistant I is the entry level in the series. A CSA I initially works under close supervision performing a variety of general clerical duties associated with one segment of Court operations while learning to apply specialized court/legal practices and procedures applicable to assigned work unit(s). As a CSA I develops knowledge and proficiency, a wider variety of duties are assigned and they are allowed to work more independently. Almost all new or unusual situations are referred to senior staff for assistance.

Court Services Assistant II is the journey level of the series. A CSA II is expected to perform the full range of specialized clerical duties in support of assigned Court operations and must exercise independent judgment and action within established criteria. New or unusual situations are frequently referred to senior staff.

Court Services Assistant III is the advanced journey level in the series, providing technical expertise to operational service units within the Superior Court and may regularly be assigned some courtroom clerk duties. Incumbents perform the full range of specialized clerical duties and provide technical assistance in the more complex assignments. A CSA III will exercise considerable independent judgment and action within defined criteria.

EXAMPLE OF DUTIES:

- Assist the public on the phone or in person in the use of Court forms, document filing procedures, jury services procedures, and other such matters requiring the application of technical, legal, and judicial procedures and practices.
- Receive, examine, and file legal documents; prepare and maintain case files.
- Review case files for readiness of a hearing or trial; prepare and distribute calendars; maintain trial status and availability of courtrooms.
- Prepare and/or issue warrants, writs, orders, abstracts, and other official documents on behalf of the Court.
- Enter traffic, municipal code, and county code violation citations.
- Recall warrants, exonerate bail, prepare judgments, dismissals, or seal cases pursuant to Court order.
- Compute, receive, and post payments, bail, fines, and fees; compute penalty assessments; enter bail and trust monies; and keep various financial and statistical records.
- Process claims, invoices, purchase orders, payments, and warrants; verify, balance, and adjust accounts and records; and posts, tally, and reconcile account records.

QUALIFICATIONS:

One year of general clerical, accounting, or collections experience that provides knowledge of general office procedures or any combination of training and experience that provides that desired knowledge and abilities.

Knowledge of:

Public information and communication techniques
Office practices, procedures, and equipment
Record keeping principles, techniques, and filing systems
Customer services skills
Methods of locating and verifying information using source documents
Document preparation
Business English, spelling, and basic mathematics

Ability to:

Communicate effectively, both orally and in writing
Follow oral and written directions
Learn office rules, methods, and policies
Make arithmetical calculations with speed and accuracy
Operate computer, calculator, and other standard office equipment
Learn to perform clerical, accounting, and collection activities
Accurately prepare basic financial and statistical summaries and reports
Collect delinquent fees and fines
Input data into various automated financial programs
Demonstrate tact and diplomacy when dealing with the public, other law and justice agencies, and fellow employees

APPLICATION AND SELECTION INFORMATION:

Carefully complete your online application, attach the required typing certificate, and submit by the final filing date.

- Complete all requested information fully.
- Incomplete applications will not be processed and your application will be rejected if you write statements such as "See/Refer to Resume" or "See Attached."
- It is important that your application show all the relevant education and experience you possess.
- Minimum requirements must be met at the time of filing.
- If you held multiple positions with the same employer, please list each job title and duties separately.
- The Work Experience portion of your application profile should account for all employment within the last 10 years, including your current or most recent position. Include U.S. Military Service, self-employment, and relevant unpaid volunteer work.

- Explain gaps between any employment periods by way of a separate attachment to the application.
- Incomplete application materials, false statements, omission of a material fact, or partial information will result in disqualification.
- A cover letter and resume are welcome, but are not accepted as a replacement for your application.
- The Court reserves the right to modify the selection/examination process at its discretion.
- If you submit multiple applications, ONLY your most recent application and attachments will be considered.
- A qualifications appraisal committee will review applications and requested materials, and only the best-qualified candidates will be invited to test for this position. Meeting the announced requirements does not guarantee inclusion into the selection process. A passing written test score will prompt an interview invitation.
- All correspondence regarding the selection process, including scheduled tests and interviews is sent via email. You are responsible for checking your email account on a regular basis to find out the status of your application.
- Shasta County Superior Court is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
- Arrangements may be made to accommodate applicants with disabilities by informing Human Resources in writing or by telephone at the time of application.

VITAMIX SALES REP: Paid Training, We Book Events, $$ Great Earnings (Redding)

compensation: Income Potential for Most is $60k-$90k ... Paid Training employment type: full-time

Vitamix is looking for top sales professionals in the "pitch" business to demonstrate and sell our high-end blending equipment directly to consumers. If you're looking to match your sales skills with a job you can love and a product you can believe in, see below for how to apply.

We are planning to fill 1-2 immediate openings in the Redding area with talented individuals who will perform live sales demonstrations at events that we schedule at high-end retailers, warehouse clubs, and trade shows. The demonstrations are 15-minute presentations throughout the day that allow prospective customers to try smoothie samples, frozen desserts, and soup made in a Vitamix.

Our reps have performed these events for a number of years and had tremendous success. We need additional talent to join our nationwide sales force to help keep up with our show demand.

You will work 5-17 day events in or near Redding and in other metropolitan areas in northern California (travel may be required). Our sales reps work about 14-20 work days per month on average. Must have reliable transportation. Relevant sales experience is a huge advantage.

This is a commission-based position. Vitamix Sales Reps in the region are paid for their sales weekly. Income potential for most is $60k-$90k per year.

*We book all events

*Highly coveted product

*Over 40 years of experience

*Paid training

*6 figure annual income opportunity
