IN-STATE TUITION FOR FAMILY MEMBERS MOVING TO THIS STATE DUE TO EMPLOYMENT

Community Colleges may charge in-state tuition to certain out-of-state students who are members of families that were transferred to this state by businesses, industries, or civilian families transferred by the military, for employment. Prior to enrollment, the student shall fulfill the following conditions:

- a. Demonstrate that his or her family moved to this state within the preceding 12 months.
- b. Present a letter to the college from the employer on corporate letterhead stating that the employee, through which the student claims this benefit, relocated to this state for employment with that business, industry, or military establishment.
- c. Present proof of his or her familial relationship with the employee.
- d. Live in the same house with the employee.
- e. Present evidence that he or she is financially dependent on the employee through which he or she claims this benefit.
- f. Comply with the requirements of the Selective Service System, if applicable.

The number of students eligible for in-state tuition under this policy at a College shall not exceed one percent (1%) of the average number of out-of-state curriculum students, rounded up to the next whole number, at the College in the academic year (summer through spring terms) immediately preceding enrollment.
