

24th Annual AAAE/Great Lakes Chapter AAAE

NATIONAL AVIATION ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

April 20-21, 2015 ♦ New Orleans, LA

AAAE and the Great Lakes Chapter AAAE invite you to attend the 24th Annual National Aviation Environmental Management Conference, April 20-21, 2015, in New Orleans, La. Many thanks go to Louis Armstrong New Orleans International Airport for hosting this year's conference. This important event brings aviation and environmental professionals together to discuss current issues and solve problems through interactive sessions. Attendees will represent a diverse group of airport executives, airline representatives, consultants and service providers.

This interactive conference will feature a robust agenda and provide a great opportunity for industry professionals to discuss some of the most pressing regulatory hurdles facing airports in the coming years, as well as the latest and best environmental practices, which often can lead to more efficient operations and stronger community relations. Attendees will hear from airport directors, environmental managers, leading industry consultants and FAA officials on a wide range of topics, including noise mitigation, sustainability, water quality control, air quality and climate adaptation.

All sessions will take place at the Royal Sonesta New Orleans Hotel. Registration fees include the reception, two continental breakfasts, two lunches, all refreshment breaks and course materials. Dress is business casual (no ties). Confirmation letters will be emailed to attendees.

INCREASE YOUR EDUCATION!

The AAAE Airports Energy Efficiency Forum is teaming up with the National Aviation Environmental Management Conference to create a larger venue for sharing ideas about energy savings and environmental concerns relating to airports. Sign up for the Energy Efficiency Forum for an additional $250. See registration form for details.
