Worship

where grace happens

Power in the Spirit is an inspirational conference for everyone who wishes to explore God's call to service through joyous worship, Bible study, keynote addresses, workshops, and fellowship. In addition, congregational leaders — teachers, organists and choir directors, choir members, committee or council members, family life consultants, pastors, and others — will find POWER IN THE SPIRIT nurturing and challenging as they consider their mission and ministry.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. ROMANS 15:13

Special Guests

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

REV. JAY GAMELIN is a husband, father, pastor, musician, writer, and nationally acclaimed speaker. Jay is a gifted storyteller and an engaging leader with an unusual ability to describe the complexity of God and the walk of the disciple in simple, down-to-earth teaching. He has traveled extensively to speak at young adult conferences, synodical gatherings (ELCA), Diocesan (ECUSA) and district gathering (UMC). Jay also shares his unique perspective of communicating the work and life of Christ in the postmodern era with pastors at continuing education events. Jay and his wife Tia have three sons, Abel A, Roman Free, and Jude Oliver, and a daughter, Eden Rose. He currently serves as lead pastor to Pilgrim Lutheran Church, Lexington, SC.

BIBLE LEADER

REV. DR. APRIL ULRING LARSON and her husband were the first married couple to begin and finish Wartburg Seminary together. The Larsons then served as co-pastors of three successive parishes in Iowa. In 1989, she accepted a call as assistant to the bishop of the Southeastern Minnesota Synod. In 1992, she became Bishop for La Crosse Area Synod, ELCA, making her the first woman bishop in the ELCA and the second Lutheran woman bishop in the world. She served as their bishop from 1992-2008. She has written several chapters in Augsburg Fortress books, was a writer for Word and World, and was featured on the McNeil Leher News Hour. With a passion for parish ministry, Rev. Dr. Larson has been serving as the senior pastor for First Lutheran Church in Duluth Minnesota since 2008. Her husband, Rev. Judd Larson was called to be the associate pastor at First Lutheran in February 2010. The Larsons have twin daughters, Katie and Amy, who are both specialist physicians. Their youngest child, Ben, passed away during a mission trip to Haiti in 2010 as a result of the earthquake. The Larsons have four grandchildren.

MUSICIANS

JUSTIN RIMBO loves curating times of worship, creating original music, preaching sermons, leading singing events, and writing faith-based educational resources for all ages. He has written for several K-12 educational resources through publishers such as Augsburg Fortress and Sparkhouse. In the past, Rimbo was employed as the community art curator at Humble Walk Lutheran Church (St. Paul, MN) and the music and band director at Jacob's Well (Minneapolis, MN), both mission starts of the ELCA. He is pursuing a master's degree in Christian ministry at Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, with a concentration in worship and the arts. Justin loves spending time with his two children, Owen, 6, and Zoe, 3, and his wife, Angie.

LOST AND FOUND

WWW.SPEEDWOOD.COM

FRIDAY EVENING ENTERTAINMENT

LOST AND FOUND is Michael Bridges and George Baum. George plays piano, and Michael plays guitar. Stylistically, the music of Lost and Found is not easy to describe. Some have simply labeled it "speedwood" or "acoustic thrash." Others, upon hearing the unique blend of folk and screaming, played without drums or stacks of keyboards, and including the occasional ballad, have just said, "I've never heard anything like that before." One person said the music is, "the intersection of the Ramones and John Denver." This is, as you might imagine, a relatively deserted intersection. Lost and Found concerts can feel like gatherings of friends. All are welcome, and all are included. FOR MORE INFO www.speedwood.com

Service Project

Is Orange the New Black: What Is Real About Prisons?

Learn about Virginia's prison system, how lives are changing through offering GraceInside (formerly Chaplain Service), and how you can support this prison chaplain ministry through this year's Power in the Spirit service project.

You can help those who are incarcerated by providing greeting cards and stationery. Collect birthday cards, anniversary cards, Christmas cards graduation cards, thank you cards, get well cards, thinking of you cards, Valentine cards, Mothers' Day and Fathers' Day Cards; if can find a card for it, there is an inmate who would like to use that card to keep in touch with her/his family, relatives, and friends. You might even create original cards for special events such as Christmas, Hanukah, birthdays, etc. Boxes of stationery are also needed. Please make sure that cards and stationery have envelopes that fit the card or paper included. Bring them to Power in the Spirit this summer, and we will distribute them to our prison chaplains for their use in support of those whom they serve. Remember that prisoners are God's children also. In Matthew 25:35-40,

Jesus reminds us that, among other things, serving the prisoner is part of our calling.

Conference choir returns!

Back by popular demand, the Power in the Spirit Conference Choir, directed by George Donovan of Bethel, Winchester, will share a message in song for the Thursday evening and the Saturday closing worship gatherings this year. All voice parts are needed, especially men. This is an excellent opportunity for singers, directors, and musicians from our Synod to join together and connect. The choir will practice outside of the workshop times. Rehearsal schedule will be announced at opening on Thursday afternoon. Won't you join us?!

Concurrent Sessions A

FRIDAY, JULY 10 • 10:30 A.M.

A1 Behold, I Make All Things New

Learn about a new communion liturgy written by Benjamin Splichal Larson (son of April and Judd Larson). We will spend time listening, singing, and enjoying this exciting new liturgy.

Rev. April Larson
Bishop Emeritus, La Crosse Area Synod, ELCA
Rev. Judd Larson
Interim Pastor, Luther College, Decorah, Iowa

A2 Worship and the Small Catechism

Connecting Sunday to Monday and beyond is a constant challenge for people of the church. How might Martin Luther's Small Catechism help us? Might the familiar instructive tool inform our lives of worship? We will consider how the pillars of Christian faith that Luther addresses in his catechism are integrated into the liturgy of our corporate worship on Sunday and then give shape to our daily worship throughout the week. A copy of the Small Catechism will be given to all who attend.

Rev. Wynemah Hinlicky
College, Salem

A3 Is Orange the New Black?

S Learn about Virginia's prison system and how lives are changing through GraceInside, our Virginia prison ministry. GraceInside places expressly Christian chaplains inside Virginia prisons—and has since 1920. Receiving no taxpayer money, GraceInside depends on individuals, churches, associations, and businesses to place 29 chaplains in more than 30 prisons. See how we are saving souls from the inside out. More info is available at www.graceinside.org.

Rev. Harvey Atkinson
Walker Mountain Parish
Lynn Litchfield
Communications and Development Director, GraceInside

A4 Visual Liturgy

This workshop is a visual encounter with the Word of God exploring how worship themes are enriched with visual and seasonal art. Since liturgy is the work of the people, this workshop seeks to inspire that visual creativity in everyone.

Rev. Ray Blansett
St. Martin, Annapolis, MD
Vickie DeVilbiss
Celebration Art, Annapolis, MD

A5 Responding to God's Grace: Congregation Stewardship

S This workshop is an overview of how stewardship works in the church and what is expected of leadership. Focus will be given to stewardship principles, creating a climate for giving, a year-round plan and emphasis, the importance of casting a vision and communicating that vision, and how to lead a congregation to a culture of generosity. A working theology of stewardship will be gained and practical opportunities to grow a congregation stewardship program will be shared.

Michael Ward
Nativity, Arden, NC

A6 "I Believe"

When we say the creed in unison in Sunday worship, what are we thinking, feeling, and experiencing personally? You will be invited to meditate briefly on the familiar Apostles' Creed. Each participant will develop a creed in his/her own words as a way of exploring and expressing faith. This can add a new dimension and perspective not only for Sunday recitation of the Creed but also for helping you reflect on the beliefs you hold dear.

Rev. Terrie Sternberg
Trinity, Pulaski

A7 Recalling 25 Years of Synod History

This workshop gives an overview of Synod ministries and leaders, along with congregation histories. Highlights of the Virginia Synod in the first 25 years of the ELCA will be presented. Concurrent Sessions B

FRIDAY, JULY 10 • 1:30 P.M.

B1 Looking at Worship Through Postmodern Eyes

This workshop will be repeated in Session D.

In this workshop we will take a look at the work and practice of the Church through the lenses of those who have been raised in a post-Gutenberg, pro-Google culture. This is not about a change in style but rather a shift in the way we think about worship, whether we name it traditional or contemporary. We will explore worship as a process, an invitation, a set of visual arts, and a spiritual experience by examining how we use music, architecture, and vocabulary.

Rev. Jay Gamelin
Pilgrim, Lexington, SC

Justin Rimbo
Pilgrim, Lexington, SC

B2 Choral Reading

A choral director's job is never done, as the search for singable, meaningful music is ongoing. Join us as we look at resources for choirs of all sizes. Music will be shared with a wide variety of publishers of many styles and voicings. Learn techniques for teaching new music to your choir and congregation and ideas to incorporate all ages into your program. Music packets are available for $10 each.

George Donovan
Bethel, Winchester

B3 Creative Card Ministry

This workshop will be repeated in Session D.

How does your congregation reach out to homebound folks? How do you celebrate special occasions within your congregation? This workshop will discuss starting a card ministry or enriching your current ministry by making beautiful "filled-with-love" handmade cards. Participants will make a card for a homebound member as well as a sympathy card or a card to celebrate a baptism, first communion, or birthday. Techniques include working with inks, sponging, embossing, paper-piecing, punches, and fancy folds. All supplies will be furnished and a take-home packet of "recipes" for each card will be provided.

Limited to 12 participants.

Cindy Henry
Gravel Springs, Star Tannery

Kitty Miller
St. Paul, Strasburg

B4 Back to the Future

So, what does an 1897 receipt for two cemetery plots, a 1929 set of architect plans, and tiny bits of 1950s newspaper rolled into tiny pieces all have to do with a congregation's story? Developing an archival history for your congregation is a creative, fun, and interesting journey. You will leave this workshop with tools for developing archives that safely preserve your pictures, printed materials, and digital resources. Presenter Rev. Jean Bozeman is active in establishing the 120-year historical archives of First, Norfolk.

Rev. Jean Bozeman
First, Norfolk

B5 Caution: Worship at Work

S We will examine the joys and challenges of doing the "liturgy after the liturgy" or the "service after the service." What might my life be like if I live in the world marked with the cross of Christ forever?

Rev. Paul Henrickson
Director of Church Relations, Roanoke College

B6 Worship: Where Children Experience Faith Formation

Our churches provide a variety of worship choices on Sunday morning—traditional or contemporary—to attract individuals in our communities. Should children be included, excluded, or in other ways cared for during the adult-oriented worship hour? Why not provide family-friendly worship? We will look at how we currently address the needs of our children to nurture their faith and make the worship experience meaningful for everyone.

Diane Bayer
Muhlenburg, Harrisonburg

Rev. Phyllis Milton
Gloria Dei, Hampton

B7 Being Christian from a Shellfish Perspective

Down at Sanibel Island, I discovered that the prettiest, shiniest conches were those that had a life within them. What brings life to our shell as Christians?

Bishop, Virginia Synod, ELCA

Concurrent Sessions C

FRIDAY, JULY 10 • 3:15 P.M.

Rev. April Larson

Bishop Emeritus, La Crosse Area Synod, ELCA

c2 Creative Card Ministry

This is a repeat of workshop B3.

How does your congregation reach out to homebound folks? How do you celebrate special occasions within your congregation? This workshop will discuss starting a card ministry or enriching your current ministry by making beautiful "filled-with-love" handmade cards. Participants will make a card for a homebound member as well as a sympathy card or a card to celebrate a baptism, first communion, or birthday. Techniques include working with inks, sponging, embossing, paper-piecing, punches, and fancy folds. All supplies will be furnished and a take-home packet of "recipes" for each card will be provided.

c3 Israel at Worship: The Jerusalem Temple

Using projected photos and illustrations, we will examine ancient Israel's worship practices and some of the challenges the priests, prophets, and kings faced as they tried to maintain faithfulness during the roughly one thousand years when Israel worshipped at the Jerusalem temple.

Rev. Dave Delaney

Assistant to the Bishop, Virginia Synod, ELCA

c4 Going Where God Is Leading: Congregation Visioning

S Casting a vision for your congregation is important work. It is also difficult, but essential in today's world. We can no longer simply react to changes in society and have our ministry thrive. This workshop will explore the visioning process and provide an outline for you to follow as your own congregation plans effectively.

Michael Ward

Nativity, Arden, NC

c5 Strong at the Broken Places

How can the Church be a place of safety and compassion for survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence? How do we learn to speak of violence against women when the words are so hard to say? Survivor and pastor Linda Mitchell Motley will share her story of assault and survival—how congregations have helped and hindered her healing. Participants will explore how we might work together to create an environment that nurtures survivors and speaks a clear word about gender violence.

Rev. Linda Mitchell Motley

Floyd-Willis Parish

c6 Old News, New News, Good News—Resources and Ideas for Inspired Worship Music

This workshop will discuss music for all worship. Whether we label our communities as traditional, blended, or contemporary—whatever we do and however we do it—it is all worship. Share your ideas, and bring your resources. This is an opportunity for us to share, learn from one another, and to teach each other as we work to create worship where grace happens!

George Donovan

Bethel, Winchester

c7 Art Attracts People

In today's world, large, live chalk-art illustrations of Bible messages draw people to see, hear, and experience God's Word and the Gospel. In this workshop you will see a demonstration of a chalk-art message and step-by-step instructions on the techniques of using chalk-art. Whether you are an experienced artist, interested clergy, or have never attempted to draw or paint, you can learn go talk with chalk.

D1 Looking at Worship Through Postmodern Eyes

This is a repeat of workshop B1.

In this workshop we will take a look at the work and practice of the Church through the lenses of those who have been raised in a post-Gutenberg, pro-Google culture. This is not about a change in style but rather a shift in the way we think about worship, whether we name it traditional or contemporary. Rev. Jay Gamelin
Pilgrim, Lexington, SC

Justin Rimbo
Pilgrim, Lexington, SC

D2 Composing Sunday Prayers of Intercession: An Alternate to Sundays and Seasons

This workshop will help congregational worship assistants, interested lay members, and pastors to develop their own way of composing good prayers of intercession that will be more specific, authentic, and relevant than those often found in the Sundays and Seasons resource. Participants will explore ways to move from the scriptures read for the day to one's own words that will be sounded as genuine prayers for the needs of today. Expect some guidance but also a lot of mutual learning and sharing of ideas, encouragements, and "Amen!"

Rev. Chris Price
Assistant to the Bishop, Virginia Synod, ELCA

D3 Liturgy on the Go

Using the booklet by the same name, we will consider how the elements of worship, such as the Kyrie or Hymn of Praise or Prayers of the People, take on a life of their own throughout the week. We will develop a deeper appreciation of how our Sunday morning worship prepares us to live our worship in daily life.

Rev. Terrie Sternberg
Trinity, Pulaski

D4 An Introduction to Practicing Discipleship

S Practicing Discipleship is an initiative from the ELCA Youth Ministry Network that has produced useful materials that congregations can use for the faith formation of adults as well as youth. We will survey some of these materials and demonstrate how to obtain and utilize them.

Rev. Dave Delaney
Assistant to the Bishop, Virginia Synod, ELCA

D5 Tithes, Altars, and Offerings: A Biblical Perspective

Explore a fascinating and fast-paced study of offerings as presented in the Bible. The study will be in lectionary format and will be given from the perspective of Old Testament Pre-Law, the Law of the Old Testament, Post-Law of the Old Testament, and the Fulfillment of the Law in the New Testament. It is the hope of the presenter to add new meaning as to why the offering is a valuable part of our modern day worship experience.

Cary Mangus
Christ, Roanoke

D6 Baking Bread and Breaking Bread: Finding What Works for Communion

Are you ready to break free from wafers but concerned about crumbs in the intinction cup? Join us for a discussion on making and baking communion bread, complete with demonstration and sampling. Recipes will be shared plus any tips that will assist your church in beginning a bread-baking ministry or to help make your current one stronger. We will discuss gluten-free baking as well to assist bringing all to the table.
