News and Information About Golden Retrievers For Those Who Love Them

Vol 16 Summer/Fall 2010,

Bring New Meaning to the Golden Years

From Our President!

You are invited.....

Each year in the fall GRRCNY holds its Annual Meeting. This is an important time, not just because our ByLaws call for such an event, but because it's a time for us all to hear how we're doing as a rescue program, what needs changes and improvement, what's new in the rescue "business", to elect or re-elect officers and Board of Directors, and to encourage each other to keep on doing our best for our breed.

The date is Sunday, November 7, 2PM, Grace Church, Court Street, Cortland.

Please consider joining us......your presence is supportive and is a morale booster.

We'll have light refreshments to serve. But the most important refreshers will be you. We promise not to "rope" you into tasks you're not ready to accept.... maybe we aren't even at that point....what we need right now is new ideas and fresh enthusiasm.

The leaves that need raking will wait. You can tape that football game.

See you on November 7.

DOG PROPERTY LAWS

If I like it, it's mine, If it's in my mouth, it's mine. If I can take if from you, it's mine, If I had it a little while ago, it's mine,

If it's mine, it must never appear to be yours in any way. If I'm chewing something, all the pieces are mine.

if it looks just like mine, it's mine,

If I saw it first, it's mine If you are playing with something and you put it down. it automatically becomes mine.

If it's broken, it's yours.

LOOKING FOR HOMES IN CENTRAL NEW YORK

The Goldens described below are waiting for their "Forever Homes" while receiving care in their Foster Homes. For more information our Adoption Coordinator, Sallie Lennox is available at 315 469-7926 or goldengalsal@twcny.rr.com

LADY is a dignified older lady and was obviously accurately named. This lady will willingly give her age: 8 ½. She loves walks and does well on lead. And she does very well with cats but wants nothing to do with other dogs...NOTHING. We can only guess that there were very bad experiences at a critical developmental stage. Lady will be someone's faithful and loyal companion and is joy to be with. What she needs: a family with no other dogs, and a fenced yard gives her freedom to explore without the risk of meeting other dogs. There are programs of de-sensitization and counter-conditioning and if that is considered, it will take lots of consistency and patience. Otherwise management will be required (restricting her exposure to dogs to none). We are also hoping to avoid long periods of being alone. GRRCNY has updated all shots and tests and Lady is ready for adoption.

CARLEY is a 2-year-old female with special needs and is waiting for the "just right" adopting home. She is very good with other dogs, accepts and enjoys cats, reliable with children but in many ways is not the "typical Golden". For reasons not understood, she is extremely fearful and uses "flight" whenever faced with a decision to interact or flee. We have met her mother and some of her siblings and they do not demonstrate these fears at all. While it takes her a while to be comfortable and less fearful, it does happen (as it has in the foster home after several week). But we predict Carley will always be a shy, timid and fearful dog. We need to avoid small children for two major reasons: noise and quick movements are very difficult for Carley and the likelihood that sooner or later doors or gates will be left open is high. A very secure fenced yard and a commitment to security is required – Carley has demonstrated that if she gets out a door or fence she will not have the comfort level to return but will run very far and very fast. We won't mislead you – Carley is a challenge but we know there is joy and pride in watching her change and adjust.

RILEY just came into GRRCNY's foster care and we are still learning about him and he about life in a different (for him) situation. He is 12 years old and the only family he has known can no longer provide for him. He is good with cats and other dogs, and loves to swim. His routines and house manners are excellent. Small children should be avoided as Riley likes paper – likes it too much and will defend what he believes is his right to it. Small children likely will not understand and respect that. Riley is healthy and active and has a good deal of living to do.

We have described above three Golden Retrievers that could be described as having "special needs". Goldens without these "issues" come into GRRCNY and are very readily introduced and adopted. GRRCNY considers our mission one of accepting Goldens with health concerns and/or mild behavioral issues. These Goldens, too, deserve a second chance but clearly it is these dogs that linger in foster homes the longest and provide some challenges. It has been shown over and over again that to accept and work with dogs like these has very special rewards, both for our program and for adopters. (We do not accept dogs that are known to have been aggressive and harmful to humans.)

A GRRCNY First – AKC Tracking Title

Nikko had a very rough first year. When he was 3 months old, his human mom died and the family, in their grief and confusion, tied Nikko outdoors. Full time, outdoors that is.

And then GRRCNY came along, as did his adopter and savior, Sue Reuss of the Buffalo area. Sue is very active in several performance venues and she was just what Nikko needed – a life with action, challenges and movement.

Nikko and Sue earned in the spring the AKC Tracking Title and are now working toward the Tracking Dog Excellent Title. But that's not all. In July at the Golden Retriever Club of Pittsburgh's Agility Trial, Nikko qualified in four out of six runs and finished his Novice Agility and Novice Agility with Weave Pole Titles. This was with three first and one second places.

Not done yet. Also in July Nikko entered his first Dock Jumping competition. He jumped 18 feet in both waves and received a 2nd and 4th place and, in so doing, skipped two divisions. He is also training in Obedience for competition but Sue tells us that there the progress is slower. Understandably so, for the action and movement is less. This boy clearly needs to move.

Ithaca Festival Parade June 3, 2010

Our goldens and humans were out in force for the parade this year. the theme was "Singing in the Rain" and for the first time in many years, it didn't rain on the parade!! Rescued goldens and friends of goldens participated, even our special rescued greyhound!

More Foster Homes Are Needed!

Our need for foster homes able to care for males of all ages is a particular and desperate need, but new homes to care for both genders of all ages are necessary. For information on becoming a foster home, please contact Marge Hoyt 315/469-1657

Rescue Me!

Since we didn't hear from many of you from last issue, our Winter/Holiday issue of the Barquer will feature stories of how your golden rescued you! Do you have a story you want to share, maybe when you were going through a difficult time and your furry family member helped you, or maybe a "Timmy's in the well" moment and "Lassie" saved you!

Come on, let's hear those stories!

Send stories and pictures to

Janet Gray at janetgray@highlandfarmskennel.com

Write "Rescue Me" in the Subject line.

My body may age but my mind will stay young.
I've much left to do, many songs to be sung.
many roads are to be travelled, much love to express,
many souls that need aid, who are now in distress.
I will do what I can to help brighten your day,
I will spread cheer and love as I pass by your way.
The world is my oyster, to have and to hold,
why, I'm really too busy to ever grow old.

Write To Us!

Do you have a story or letter to share with us about your adopted Golden? We love to hear from you and about how they are doing! Send your letters to GRRCNY, PO Box 735, Jamesville NY 13078.

WINSTON MET HIS SOUL MATE

Winston wanted a girlfriend and gave new meaning to on-line dating. He sent our Adoption Coordinator pictures of himself along with his measurements ...nose to tail, etc. With a little help from his Mom and Dad, he gave us his preferences. When a female came into our program meeting Winston's wishes we arranged a couple of dates Soon, Winston said, "Let's make it official". Mom and Dad are thrilled with their boy's choice of mate. "She is such a great dog"

Winston has found his Treasure (Yes, that is her name)

IF YOU MOVE...... please let us know if your postal address changes. The Post Office makes money with each returned piece of mail (and we have better uses for your donations).

Write to GRRCNY, PO Box 735, Jamesville, NY 13078 or Janet Gray, jsg4@cornell.edu.

We are also interested in having your current email address. Janet would be happy to receive that, too.

How You Can Help!!!

We are grateful to all of our contributors, through whose generous donations, we are able to provide medical care to all of our foster dogs. But this year, possibly because our economy is sluggish, donations are down, and we fear a day when we might have to forego a necessary operation because it might mean another foster dog wouldn't get care he or she needs. Won't you help? All contributions are tax deductible and will be gratefully acknowledged. As a supporter of GRRCNY, you'll also receive quarterly issues of The Barquer! All contributions help fund our Rescue efforts and also help with medical costs for our foster Goldens!

Just this side of Heaven is a place called Rainbow Bridge. When an animal dies that has been especially close to someone here, that pet goes to Rainbow Bridge. There are meadows and hills for all of our special friends so they can run and play together. There is plenty of food, water and sunshine and our friends are warm and comfortable.

All the animals who had been ill and old are restored to health and vigor; those who were hurt or maimed are made whole and strong again, just as we remember them in our dreams of days and times gone by. The animals are happy and content, except for one small thing: they each miss someone very special, someone who was left behind.

They all run and play together, but the day comes when one suddenly stops and looks into the distance. His bright eyes are intent; his eager body begins to quiver. Suddenly, he breaks from the group, flying over the green grass, faster and faster. You have been spotted, and when you and your special friend finally meet, you cling together in joyous reunion, never to be parted again.

The happy kisses rain upon your face; your hands again caress the beloved head, and you look once more into those trusting eyes, so long gone from your life, but never absent from your heart. Then you cross the Rainbow Bridge together. - Author Unknown

The Rainbow Bridge

Just this side of Heaven is a place called Rainbow Bridge. When an animal dies that has been especially close to someone here, that pet goes to Rainbow Bridge. There are meadows and hills for all of our special friends so they can run and play together. There is plenty of food, water and sunshine and our friends are warm and comfortable.

All the animals who had been ill and old are restored to health and vigor; those who were hurt or maimed are made whole and strong again, just as we remember them in our dreams of days and times gone by. The animals are happy and content, except for one small thing: they each miss someone very special, someone who was left behind.

They all run and play together, but the day comes when one suddenly stops and looks into the distance. His bright eyes are intent; his eager body begins to quiver. Suddenly, he breaks from the group, flying over the green grass, faster and faster. You have been spotted, bright eyes are intent; his eager body begins to quiver. Suddenly, he breaks from the group, flying over the green grass, faster and faster. You have been spotted, and when you and your special friend finally meet, you cling together in joyous reunion, never to be parted again.

The happy kisses rain upon your face; your hands again caress the beloved head, and you look once more into those trusting eyes, so long gone from your life, but never absent from your heart. Then you cross the Rainbow Bridge together. - Author Unknown
