

HOUSING BENEFIT AND/ OR COUNCIL TAX REDUCTION A change in your circumstances?

You must tell us of any change in your circumstance that may affect your entitlement to one or both of the above.

It is your responsibility to keep the Council informed of any changes in your personal circumstances, and the circumstances of the members in your household. If you get too much benefit or reduction because you do not tell us about any such change you will have to pay it back.

Warning – Housing Benefit:

It is an offence under Social Security Law for anyone to make a statement or produce information which they know to be false to claim Housing Benefit for themselves or another person. It is also an offence to fail to tell the Benefits Service of the council about a change in circumstances which would affect their Housing Benefit. (Social Security Administration Act 1992, Sections 111 and 112.)

Warning – Council Tax Reduction:

The law says you must let the Council know about any relevant changes in your circumstances within 21 days of the change. If you do not, you may have a £70 penalty charge added to your Council Tax account.
