

Periodic Trends Lab Report Rubric

CP Chemistry/ Mrs. Pascale

Lab: _____

Student: _____

Due Date: _____

Date Submitted: _____

Description	Points Available	Points Earned
Turned in on time: -5 points per day late. Lab will NOT be accepted after winter break.
Format: Report sections in correct order with rubric attached.	2
Heading: Your Name/ Partner's Name on top left and Date on top right of first page	2
Title: Correct title for lab report centered and underlined on second line of first page of lab.	2
Objective/ Purpose: A clear statement that explains what you want to prove/discover/ illustrate from the experiment	2
Pre-Lab: Define the key words needed to complete the experiment. Write in complete sentences.	5
Data: Construct an acceptable data table. Lists will not be accepted! Must have a title and be organized, neat, and include correct labels.	9
Graphs: Graphs are computer generated. Include title, axes correctly labeled, numbers correctly plotted, and correct interpretation of graph.	12
Analysis and Conclusions: Questions are answered and correctly numbered. Only complete sentences will be considered for credit.	9
Works Cited: All references used in writing the lab report are reported in proper format.	2
Total:	45	