13. HOW YOUR INFORMATION WILL BE USED

- The Army (as part of the Ministry of Defence) will keep your information safe to protect your privacy.
- We will not share your personal details with other organisations.
- The information will be used by the Army recruiting and selection authorities and their agents to help decide if you are eligible to join the Army. On entry to the Army the data will be used by the service training and personnel authorities. If you need more information about data protection or want to contact us, read our privacy policy at: www.armyjobs.mod.uk/statements/pages/privacy.aspx

14. ARMY EMPLOYMENT AND DIVERSITY STATEMENT

The British Army fully supports the principle of equality of opportunity in employment. We are opposed to all forms of unlawful discrimination on the grounds of race, ethnic background, gender, marital/civil partnership status, sexual orientation, disability, religious belief or age. We are committed, wherever practicable, to recruiting and maintaining a workforce which broadly reflects the UK population we serve. We have a strict code of conduct that ensures zero tolerance of bullying, harassment, discrimination and victimisation on any grounds.

15. ENQUIRER'S DECLARATION

- I declare that the details given in this Officer Interest Form are to the best of my knowledge and belief, correct.
- I will notify the Army Careers Advisers of any changes as soon as possible after they occur.
- I agree to my personal data and sensitive personal data, being used by the Army Recruiting and Selection Authorities and their Agents.
- If you are under 16, you must confirm that you have spoken to a parent or legal guardian and obtained their permission to provide your personal details. Enter 'X' in the box if you have been given permission.
- Note that if you were to proceed with a formal application to join the Army and you would be under 18 on the date of entry then your parent(s) or legal guardian would have to give their written permission for you to enlist.
