

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERIOR
DESIGNERS

2012 – 2013

Student Chapter Awards

Every year, ASID recognizes an outstanding group of students and professionals who are responsible for making ASID student membership as valuable as it is. The student chapter presidents, outstanding chapter members, Student Representatives to the Board (SRB) and faculty advisors who have committed themselves to making the ASID experience a fundamental part of pre-professionalism deserve our praise. The 2012 – 2013 ASID Student Chapter Awards seek to recognize and applaud outstanding contributions to student membership throughout the country.

The following awards are open for nominations:

- Student Representative to the Board Award
- Fundraiser Award
- Outstanding Student Chapter Award
- Student Chapter Leader Award
- Faculty Advisor Award
- Media and Communications Award
- Community Service Award

Applications for each of these awards follow. Please make note of deadlines and information requirements. Winners will be announced in mid-April 2013, and winning submissions will receive cash prizes and be showcased on the ASID Web site and in the ASID ACCESS student newsletter.

Please direct any questions to the ASID Chapter Services at emergingleaders@asid.org

Student Representative to the Board (SRB) Award

Purpose

The ASID SRB of the Year award recognizes an ASID student representative to the professional chapter board who has demonstrated exemplary dedication to their position and service to their professional chapter.

Nomination Submission Process:

1. The SRB award recipient is selected through a nomination process. Student chapter presidents, professional chapter leaders, student affair chairs, faculty advisors, and ASID Student Advisory Council members are eligible to nominate candidates. Fill out the attached form and e-mail to ASID headquarters at futureofdesign@asid.org or fax to (202) 546-3240, along with one letter of recommendation from yourself.
2. Once a candidate is nominated, s/he will receive notification of the nomination from ASID headquarters and will be asked to provide supporting documentation. See below for list of submission materials.
3. The SRB award recipient is selected from the submitted complete applications.

Candidate Submission Materials

(must include the following items)

- ☐ One letter of recommendation from an ASID professional member, faculty member, Student Advisory Council member or fellow ASID student leader. The letter should share specific examples of activities the SRB has accomplished that
 - exemplify the ASID brand
 - demonstrate ASID leadership and ASID initiatives, such as interior design legislation and/or sustainable design
 - detail how the SRB has improved interaction between the professional chapter and its associated student chapters
- ☐ 200 – 500 word typed essay written by the candidate,
 - stating the candidate's accomplishments during her/his SRB tenure
 - include specific examples such as "traveled to all ASID student chapters in region"

Correct ASID branding and use of the ASID logo is required in all communication.

Submission Deadline

- ☐ Nomination Application and one letter of recommendation must be received at March 22, 2013. Late nominations will not be considered.
- ☐ Candidate Submission Materials—including additional letter(s) of recommendation—must be received by March 22, 2013. Late submissions will not be considered.
- ☐ E-mail to ASID headquarters emergingleaders@asid.org. E-mailed applications must be submitted in .pdf format only.
- ☐ You may also mail submissions to: ASID Student Chapter Awards, 608 Massachusetts Avenue, NE, Washington, DC 20002-60006. Mailed entries are to be submitted as 8.5" x 11" documents in a bound portfolio.
- ☐ You may also fax submissions to (202) 546-3240, attn: ASID Student Chapter Awards

see application form on the next page.

Application Form: SRB Information

(to be completed by the person submitting the nomination)

Your Name

Your Professional Chapter Name

SRB's Name

SRB's Address

SRB's Phone

SRB's E-mail

Please include one letter of recommendation for the SRB candidate with this application.

Award Notification

The chair of the ASID Student Advisory Council will notify, in writing, the award recipient no later than mid-April 2013.

The winner of this award will be asked to submit a headshot for publicity purposes.