

Pueblo City-County Health Department Internship/Volunteer Opportunity

Posting Date: 2/27/2013

Application Deadline: 3/31/2013

Title/name of Opportunity: Intern with Health Disparities, Food System Assessment

Opportunity type: (please see descriptions below)

Community service

Internship

Student project/rotation

Other

Description: (e.g. will work be completed off site, is work space available, involve working weekends, etc.)

Purpose of the project is to assess the local and regional food system to improve food access, food security, and health of all Pueblo residents by providing more fresh and healthy foods.

Approximately 200 hours, May involve working nights and weekends as needed, Conducting surveys and data entry as well as other duties as assigned to support the Food System Assessment occurring in Pueblo County.

Requirements:

Time/length of opportunity: March 15 - June 30

Experience: Exercise Science and Health Promotion Student

Technical experience: none

Degree requirements: 60 college semester credits

Division/program: DPEP