Application for Invalidation Benefits

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you are a Member of the Military Superannuation and Benefits Scheme (MSBS) and you are being discharged from the ADF as medically unfit for further service.

Do not use this form if you have ceased employment with the Australian Defence Forces other than on the ground of invalidity.

When to use this form

This form can be completed up to three months before discharge and no later than three months after discharge. However, it is more usual to complete the application as part of your discharge procedures.

Options

Before completing this benefit application form you are advised to read the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and the Military Super Book for the MSBS, available from the MilitarySuper website at www.militarysuper.gov.au or by ringing 1300 006 727.

On discharge on the ground of invalidity the benefits will vary according to your invalidity classification. For more information regarding this process please read the Invalidity Benefits fact sheet.

There are two components to your Benefit: Employer Benefit and Member Benefit. You may also have a third component, an Ancillary Benefit.

Employer Benefit

If you are classified Class A or B you will be entitled to a pension. However, if you are classified Class C you do not have any option to access your Employer Benefit – it must be preserved in the MSBS until you reach at least age 55. Your Employer benefit can be paid out earlier in some limited circumstances (e.g. severe financial hardship, specified grounds). Please see the fact sheet 'Early Access to your superannuation benefits' available from the MilitarySuper website for further details

Member Benefit

Your Member Benefit consists of the number of units you hold in the MSB Fund plus any earnings thereon. Benefit payments result in the withdrawal of existing units at the unit price applicable on the later of:

- the day after exit; or
- the day on which a Member's application is received in ComSuper.

If you transferred from the DFRDB Scheme, your Member Benefit includes your DFRDB contributions plus notional earnings on those contributions.

The options for your Member Benefit are:

- the pre 1 July 1999 component can be taken as a cash lump sum, rolled over, or preserved in the MSB Fund.
- the post 30 June 1999 component must be preserved in the MSB Fund or rolled over to another Fund until you reach your preservation age and retire from the workforce.

If you preserve any of your pre 1 July 1999 component with MSBS, any future withdrawal must be in multiples of $10 000. There must be a minimum of six months between withdrawals.

Ancillary Benefit

You may also have an Ancillary Benefit. An Ancillary Benefit consists of any of the following that have been paid into your MilitarySuper account.

- 1) Additional Personal Contributions
- 2) Salary Sacrifice amounts
- 3) Transfer amounts
- 4) Spouse Contributions (please note that spouse contributions are those paid by your partner into your MilitarySuper account)
- 5) Co-contributions
- 6) Super Guarantee amounts

You may rollover your Ancillary Benefit at any time. The Ancillary Benefit may be cashed out once you have reached your superannuation preservation age and:

- if you are less than 60 - you have permanently retired from the workforce or
- if you are aged 60 or more - you have permanently retired from the workforce or your current employment has ended.

Payment

Lump sum payments and rollover cheques are normally paid within 15 working days after your discharge is confirmed or after the date we receive all necessary documentation to enable us to process your application, whichever is the later.

Rollover fund nominations

If you are choosing to rollover part of your benefit, it must be paid to a complying superannuation fund, rollover fund or Retirement Savings Account (RSA). We will not deduct tax from any amount rolled over to another fund however, the receiving fund will deduct 15% tax from any untaxed component of the rollover.

You can nominate two rollover funds or RSAs to receive all or part of your lump sum benefit. Complete one nomination if you are going to roll over your entire benefit to one fund. If you are going to split the amount, complete both nominations with details of the second fund.

We will make all rollover cheques payable to your nominated rollover fund(s) and send them directly to your nominated fund(s). Please make sure you have the correct postal address of your fund(s).

When completing this section you must include the name and Australian Business Number (ABN) for the nominated rollover fund or RSA. Providing the Superannuation fund number (SFN) is optional. If you have a membership number for the rollover fund or RSA, please include this number. If you do not have a membership number, please list a Superannuation Product Identification Number (SPIN) or a Rollover ID number. You can get these details from the rollover fund or RSA. If you don't include these details, it will result in payment delays of your benefit. Please ensure your nominated rollover account(s) is active and can receive deposits from other superannuation funds. Failure to do so will result in the payment being returned to our office.

Surcharge debt

If you have a superannuation contributions surcharge debt, it will be deducted from your benefit before payment. In deducting the debt from your benefit, default provisions apply if you do not make an election.

The default provisions are:

- if the Employer Benefit is converted to pension in part or full, any surcharge debt will be taken from the Employer Benefit after conversion to pension, or
- if the Employer Benefit is taken as a total lump sum, before tax the debt will be taken from the Employer Lump Sum Benefit.

Alternatively you can elect that instead of the default provisions applying, the debt be deducted from:

- the Employer Lump Sum Benefit before it is converted to pension, or
- the Member Benefit before it is paid as a lump sum, or
- the Ancillary Benefit before it is paid as a lump sum.

Proportioning

If you have not reached your preservation age and you claim your non-preserved (ie. pre 01 July 1999) member benefit, the payment would normally include both tax free and taxable components. However, you can choose to apply all your available tax free amount against your lump sum (up to the amount of your pre 01 July 1999 benefit). For further information on how your benefit is taxed it is recommended that you read the MilitarySuper Book “Tax on Military Super Benefits” or fact sheets which are available from www.militarysuper.gov.au called Taxation of lump sums and Taxation Concessions for Pensions.

Tax file number

In accordance with the Taxation Laws Amendment (Tax File Numbers) Act 1988, ComSuper is required to deduct PAYG tax at the Top Marginal Rate plus the Medicare levy from benefits if a person does not provide a Tax File Number (TFN).

If you have not been issued a TFN you should lodge an Australian Taxation Office Application/Enquiry form with the Taxation Office. Forms are available at all Taxation Offices. You must provide proof of identity at the time you lodge the form.

Tax file declaration form

If you are eligible to claim a pension benefit please complete the Tax File Number Declaration form, available from your local Tax Office. The information you provide on this form will determine how much tax will be deducted from your pension. Please note that you can only claim the tax free threshold against one source of income.

Privacy

The Commonwealth Superannuation Corporation (CSC) and its Administrator, ComSuper, are collecting the information on this form for the following reasons:

- to confirm your identity
- to assess your eligibility for payment/rollover of the benefit
- to record up to date details relating to your spouse (if applicable) for future benefit eligibility
- to pay your benefit or to roll it over
- to contact you.

CSC and ComSuper are committed to protecting any personal information we hold about you. Your information will not be used for any other purpose or disclosed to another party unless:

- you authorise us to do so
- the disclosure is authorised by law. This may include disclosing your personal information to other Government agencies that have specific legislative authority to collect this information (for example the Australian Taxation Office, Centrelink or the Department of Veterans' Affairs). We will not disclose your personal information to these agencies unless it is lawful to do so
- it is to an independent firm who may, on our behalf, invite you to participate in a survey about our service (they are required to protect this information from disclosure to another party). If you do not want your contact details passed to this independent firm, please put a cross in the box at Question 35 on page 15 of the benefit application form.

Advice and more information

If you wish, you can seek advice from ComSuper on 1300 006 727 on your options and completion of this form.

Identification Requirements

22. To protect against fraud, safeguard your benefit and comply with the Government's Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Legislation, we need you to provide documentation to prove your identity. Please be aware that under some circumstances we may request further information from you. If you are unable to provide documentation of the type set out below you should speak to an information officer on 1300 006 727.

All documents provided to confirm your identity must be certified.

You will need to provide certified copies of

- one document from column A in the table below, OR
- one document from column B AND one document from column C

For example, you could provide a certified copy of your driver's licence (from column A) OR a certified copy of your birth certificate AND a certified copy of your tax return with your current residential address.

Birth certificate or birth extracts are required to support all applications for children's benefits and where the person is over the age of 18 for identity purposes they must also supply a document from column A, column C or photographic ID from the school or college. Where a child is under school age the claimant must also provide a medicare card or other documentation listing both the caregiver and child.

These documents may be the same as provided to confirm the eligibility of a child of the deceased, and need to be certified.

All copies of documents provided to MilitarySuper must be certified as true and correct copies of the original by one of the persons listed in the section Attachment Reference at the end of this form.

The person certifying your documentation must confirm in writing that you are the valid holder of the ID that you are presenting and that any copies are true copies of the original.

The certification must include the name, address, occupation, telephone number and registration number (if applicable) of the certifying authority.

If you are providing copies of bills or statements, you should black out any personal financial information or details of transactions in order to protect your privacy. Copies of identification provided will be stored electronically in a secure environment. The paper copies will be securely destroyed. All copies will only be used for the purpose of confirming your identity.

PART K

Tax file number

33. Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, we are authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes.
- These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. We may disclose your TFN to another superannuation provider when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request in writing that your TFN not be disclosed to any other superannuation provider.

It is not an offence not to quote your TFN. However, giving us your TFN will have the following advantages (which may not otherwise apply):

- we will be able to accept all types of contributions (subject to scheme rules);
- the tax on contributions to your superannuation account/s will not increase;
- other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted when you start drawing down your superannuation benefits; and
- it will make it much easier to trace different superannuation accounts in your name so that you receive all your superannuation benefits when you retire.

If you have already provided your TFN to us, you are under no obligation to provide it again in this application.

Your tax file number

Your tax file number remains confidential

Can ComSuper give your TFN to the Rollover Fund(s)/RSA(s) nominated above?

Document checklist

34. If applicable, when you lodge this form, please provide the following documents:
- A copy of the Defence Force's acceptance of long service leave credit – If you joined the Defence Force before 1 July 1983, your eligible service period (for PAYE taxation purposes in respect of any lump sum payments) may include periods of employment recognised for long service leave purposes. If such a period is not already included in your total period of effective service, you should provide details of the periods if you wish to have them included in your eligible service period. If you claim an additional period, you must attach to this application a copy of the Defence Force's acceptance of the periods for long service leave purposes.
 - A Marriage Certificate or Registered Relationship Certificate.
 - Medicare Levy Variation Declaration (if you are claiming a Medicare Levy exemption against a pension entitlement) – the form is available from your local Taxation Office.
 - Print from Department of Defence showing In-service Education Training (you must provide this document if possible).
 - Print from Department of Defence showing In-service Employment History (you must provide this document if possible).
 - Certified copies of documents requested to prove your identity

PART M

Member declaration

35. I declare that:
- I have been advised to read the Product Disclosure Statement for the MSB Scheme, before completing this application form
 - I understand the options available for my benefit entitlement
 - the information I have supplied is complete and correct.

I also declare in relation to my Tax File Number (TFN) that:

- I have read and understood the information set out in Part K – I understand that supplying my Tax File Number is optional and that if I have not provided my Tax File Number, tax will be deducted at the highest marginal rate
- the Tax File Number I have provided is the same number advised to me by the Australian Taxation Office
- the Tax File Number will be provided to a rollover fund unless I advise you not to.

I understand that if I have not provided all the required information, this application may be returned to me for completion and payment may be delayed.
