

Name _____

Date _____

Class Practice! Reading Log!

Before you read:

Name of article _____ page _____

Author's name _____

Turn the title into a question. Question words: who, what, when, where, why, how

What can you get from reading this? (Purpose)

___learn something new ___learn about somebody's life

___find something that relates to my life ___better my life

___challenge myself ___imagine a different world

something else _____

Now skim the article:

Kinds of pictures: ___graphs ___maps ___ drawings ___photos

How many paragraphs? _____ How many pages? _____

What will you find out?	How do you know?

Three words that look hard but you may need to know

Word	Another word (synonym)

Name _____

Date _____

Now read the article.

Who (people or character) _____

Where (Place) _____

When (time) _____

What (What happened) _____

Why (you may have to guess or infer) _____

How (the action) _____

Something(s) that interests you (surprised you, caught your attention)	This makes you think about...

What do you think the author is trying to do?

___ give important information

___ express a feeling

___ give an opinion/make you agree

___ share an experience

___ explain something

___ tell a story

Something you could tell a friend _____