Market Research - Close the Gap (1)

Fill in the gaps with the correct term from those listed

The starting point for	market research is to id	lentify the market {1}	:
- How big is the mark	et? (measured by sales,	volume etc)
- How fast is the mark	et {2} and	what is the market growt	h potential?
- Who are the existing	; {3} a	and what market {4} do they have?
- How is the market {	5}? (the	parts of the market where	e customers have specific needs and wa	nts)
- What kind of custon	ners are there in the ma	rket? What are their pref	erences in terms of when and where th	ney buy, what {6}	they pay and which	methods of {7} ar	e effective?
An important distinct	ion can be made betwe	en two broad kinds of mai	rket research data.
- {8} dat	a: data collected first-ha	and for a specific purpose	by the entrepreneur.
- {9} c	lata: data that already e	exists and which has been	collected for a different purpose.
