AMHERST BALLET
29 STRONG STREET, AMHERST, MA 01002

AMHERST BALLET is a non-profit organization under the direction of Sueann Townsend and a volunteer Board of Directors that is dedicated to dance education and professional training. In nurturing local, young dancers, we help them achieve an understanding of artistic excellence, which inspires leadership, discipline, and a lifelong appreciation of dance.

Classes and camps are held in the Amherst Ballet facility at 29 Strong Street next to Wildwood Elementary School. Two spacious studios, a reception room, dressing rooms and porch provide a comfortable setting for workshop participants.

CAMP DIRECTOR/FACULTY HEATHER REICHGOTT has been dancing since age 3 and playing the piano since age 7. She performed her first composition at age 8. As a dancer she trained with Eva Szabo (of the Hungarian National Ballet and the Rock School), Marilyn Budzynski, the Pacific Northwest Ballet School, Ohio Dance Theatre, the Oakland Ballet, and Amherst Ballet.

Heather has been accompanying and teaching ballet classes at Amherst Ballet for several years and was the choreographer and director of Alice in Wonderland, The Tempest and The Wild Swans each performed by 30+ dancers from Amherst Ballet. She has created and directed vacation and summer camps including Pirates & Sea Creatures, Coppélia, Alice in Wonderland and Sleeping Beauty.
