New Headway Elementary – the third edition Test Booklet

Note to the teacher

This booklet contains:

- 14 Unit Tests which revise the corresponding unit in New Headway Elementary – the third edition Student's Book. There are two versions (A and B) of each test. They cover the same material, but have been reorganized to allow easier administration of the tests in the classroom. Each test has a total score of 100.
- Six Review Tests: Two separate tests after Units 1–4, 5–8, and 9–12.
- Two separate Exit Tests (Units 1–14)
- An optional Listening Test at the back of the booklet for each unit, using original recordings.
- An Answer Key for all the exercises.
- Tapescripts for all the listening exercises.

There is a separate audio CD (40NHWEL3ECD05) containing the recordings for the optional Listening Tests.

Track	Tapescript
2	1 Meeting people
3	2 In a café
4	3 What do they do?
5	4 How do you live?
6	5 My house
7	6 What can you do?
8	7 Ellie then and now

Hedwig Eva Maria Kiesler was born in Europe in 1914. In the early 1940s, she moved to the USA with one of her six husbands. When she got to Hollywood, she changed her name to Hedy Lamarr and became a very famous film star.

Hedy Lamarr was famous because she was very beautiful but she was also very clever. She said, 'Any girl can be wonderful. All she does is stand still and look stupid.'

What a lot people don't know is that she and George Antheil invented a secret communications system in 1942. Their idea was very clever because it couldn't be blocked or interfered with. At the time, people didn't think the invention was good so no one made it.

Lamarr and Antheil's machine wasn't used in World War II. In 1957, engineers at New York company used their idea and they put in military ships in the 1960s.

Tick (✓) the true sentences. Correct the wrong sentences.

9 Read and answer the questions.

Hedwig Eva Maria Kiesler was born in Europe in 1914. In the early 1940s, she moved to the USA with one of her six husbands. When she got to Hollywood, she changed her name to Hedy Lamarr and became a very famous film star.

Hedy Lamarr was famous because she was very beautiful but she was also very clever. She said, 'Any girl can be wonderful. All she does is stand still and look stupid.'

What a lot people don't know is that she and George Antheil invented a secret communications system in 1942. Their idea was very clever because it couldn't be blocked or interfered with. At the time, people didn't think the invention was good so no one made it.

Lamarr and Antheil's machine wasn't used in World War II. In 1957, engineers at New York company used their idea and they put in military ships in the 1960s.

MEN ARE BETTER AND HAPPIER SHOPPERS THAN WOMEN!

A new study by a British credit card company shows that men are better shoppers than women. Men don't think shopping will make them happy and they usually buy only what they need. Women, however, look forward to shopping because they think it will make them happy – and they are often disappointed. Also, women buy more things without thinking and are sorry when they get home.

Over 75% of the women in the study said they buy things they don't need. They also said they often don't like the things they buy. The scientists asked women shoppers why they bought things they didn't need – and the answers are interesting:

- I wanted to buy a present for myself.
- It was a good idea in the shop.
- I thought I needed it.
- I don't like going home with nothing.
- I don't know.

WARNING! One interesting discovery is that if you buy a lot of things you don't need, you will buy more – not less – in the future. So don't start!

- 1 T Men are the best shoppers.
- 2 Men like shopping more than women.
- 3 Women buy the most expensive things.
- 4 Shopping doesn't make women happy.
- 5 Women think carefully about what they buy.
- 6 25% of men buy things they don't want.
- 7 Women never like the things they buy.

- 9 People who spend a lot will buy less in the future.

Once upon a time there was a little girl called Katy. Sometimes she was well behaved, but sometimes she was horrible. At school, she worked hard for her favourite teachers, but she did nothing for the ones she hated. At home, she sometimes played nicely with her brother, but sometimes she shouted at him.

One day, Katy went to see her grandmother for lunch. She walked happily through the forest. Suddenly, Katy saw a big hungry animal with the biggest teeth in the world: it was a wolf!

'Where are you going, little girl?' said the wolf.

'I'm going to see my grandmother for lunch. What are you going to do?' asked Katy.

'I'm very hungry, so I'm going to eat you,' said the wolf.

This made Katy very annoyed, so she carefully opened her bag, quickly pulled out a gun, and killed the wolf.

ERIC AND MOLLY BARTON have just won the prize for being the couple with the longest marriage in Britain. The couple have been married for more than 80 years. They met when they were teenagers and married in 1920 when Eric was 16 and his bride, Molly, was 17.

The couple have four children, nine grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren. They have lived in the same village for all of their married life and have never travelled abroad. Mr Barton said, 'We've been to London three times and we went to Birmingham to see my sister once.' His wife added, 'I've never liked travelling. I like being at home with my family around me. I've never wanted to go very far.'

Their oldest son, Ned, 79, said, 'It's great to see them still alive and so happy together after all these years. They have enjoyed good health all their lives: my father worked on a farm all his life and my mother has always worked hard in the home. They have never smoked and they haven't had any wine or beer for more than forty years.'

Our reporter asked Mrs Barton what she liked about her marriage and she said, 'I've been very lucky. Eric was my first – and only – boyfriend and we've had a very happy marriage.'

7 Sample answer

Once upon a time there was a beautiful, kind princess. She was very unhappy because she didn't know any good-looking princes. One day, she went for a walk in the field near her home and she found a very old, tired horse. Suddenly, it started to rain so she covered the horse with her coat. The princess waited quietly until the horse fell asleep then she went home to bed. The next day, the princess took some food to the old horse but she couldn't find it. Instead, standing in the field, was a very good-looking prince in her coat!

Hi!
I'm on holiday in Sicily. I'm staying in a small hotel near Palermo with my cousins. Yesterday, we went to Monreale and visited the cathedral. Today we're shopping and writing postcards and emails. Tomorrow we're going to Etna and Taormina. I love the food here but the weather is very hot and there is a lot of traffic in Palermo.

Bristol and London are two cities in Britain. Both cities are in England but Bristol is in the south west and London is in the south. There are about 400,000 people Bristol and about nine million in London. In Bristol there is a university and lots of 18th century houses and in London there are famous places like Buckingham Palace.
The best thing in Bristol is the Clifton Suspension Bridge.
London is great because it's an international city.

T4 How do you live?

I = Interviewer, W = Woman

I Can I ask you some questions?

W Yes, of course.

I OK, number one: what time do you get up?

W Usually 7.00.

I Thanks. And number two. How do you travel to work?

W I travel by bus, I never walk.

I By bus. Next question: Do you go out on Friday nights?

W No, never. I relax at home on Friday evening. I go out on Saturday but never on Friday.

I What do you like doing when you go out?

W I like going to restaurants.

I Restaurants ... And question five: Do you like your job?

W Yes, I do.

I That's good! This is the last question: where do you like going on holiday?

W In summer I like going to the beach.

I Thank you very much.

W You're welcome.

T5 My house

Speaker 1

This is our kitchen. There's a cooker and there are lots of cupboards. It isn't very big so there isn't a table or chairs. Of course there's a fridge, but there isn't a dishwasher, so there's always lots of washing-up to do. There are pictures of food on the walls – but there aren't any photographs, they are on the living room wall.

Speaker 2

This is our living room. Those photographs are my friends and family. There is a television and three comfortable armchairs. There's a rug in front of the fire – the cat likes sleeping there. There is a small table with some fresh flowers on it. There aren't any lamps because I don't like them.

Speaker 3

This is my bedroom. Of course there's a bed ... there are lots of books on the floor next to the bed but there isn't a bookcase. There is also a glass of water on the floor next to the bed ... and there's an old pizza box somewhere under the bed. There isn't a mirror and there aren't any photos but there is a big picture of Jennifer Lopez on the wall.

T6 What can you do?

I can do some things ... and there are a lot of things I can't do. Let me think ... sports ... I love the sea so I can swim and I can sail ... I hate the cold so I can't ski or ice-skate.

Which languages can I speak? English, of course. I can't speak any European languages, you know, Spanish or French, but I can speak Japanese. I was in Japan for three years so I can speak the language.

Musical instruments? I sing and I can play the piano – and the guitar a bit, but I can't read music.

T7 Ellie then and now

F = New friend, E = Ellie

F When did you go to university?

E I didn't go to university. I left school in 1999 – I was 17 – and I got a job in an office.

F I didn't know that. What was the job?

E It was in an architect's office. I did everything ... made coffee, posted letters, went shopping for my boss ... anything they wanted, I did it.

F Did you enjoy it?

E I liked it for a year but then I was bored. I wanted to do something interesting.

F What did you do?

E I wrote to lots of architects in London and asked them for a job.

F That was cheeky – did you get any answers?

E Not many! I wrote about thirty letters and got two answers. One was from the company I work for now. It's a small company. I started there on my nineteenth birthday. I work there four days a week and I study computer assisted design one day a week at the local college.

F That sounds good.

E It is. I don't want to study full time.

T8 How did you meet?

I = Interviewer, N = Nick

I Nick, tell me how you met your wife, Nancy.

N It isn't very exciting, I'm afraid. My sister, Juliet, was at school with her – Nancy. They were in the same class for about ten years but Juliet never brought Nancy to our house.

I So when did you meet?

- N It was at my eighteenth birthday party. I was at an all-boys school and my sister was at an all-girls school. I didn't know many girls so I asked Juliet to invite some girls from her class.
- I So you were eighteen, how old were Juliet and Nancy?
- N They were both seventeen.
- I So when did you go on your first date?
- N The day after the party – we went to the cinema and I can remember that we saw Star Wars. Nancy didn't like the film but I thought it was great. I was very surprised when she said she wanted to see me again.
- I How old are you now?
- N I'm twenty-nine – so Nancy's twenty-eight. We got married three years ago and we have one son, Carlos.
- I Congratulations. Where is Juliet now?
- N Ah! She married a friend of mine from school – they met at the same party.

T 9 A conversation in a restaurant

W = Waiter, C = Customer

- W Are you ready to order?
- C Yes, I am. I'd like steak, please.
- W And would you like some vegetables with it?
- C Yes, please. Have you got any carrots?
- W Sorry, we haven't got carrots on the menu, but we have got some peas.
- C OK, I'll have peas.
- W And would you like some potatoes?
- C No, I'd like chips, please.
- W And to drink? What would you like?
- C Wine? Fruit juice or water?
- C I'd like a glass of white wine and some still water.
- ...
- W Did you enjoy your meal?
- C Yes, it was delicious.
- W What about a dessert – or a coffee or tea perhaps?
- C No dessert thanks, but I'll have a black coffee, please. ...

T 10 Living in the country

I = Interviewer, E = Emma

- I Emma, tell me about living in the country. Do you like it?
- E Sometimes! In the summer it is better than the city because you can enjoy the weather and go for walks.
- I But what's it like in the winter?
- E It's horrible, I don't like it. It's the most boring place in the world – it gets dark early and I don't have any visitors. In the summer, I'm the most popular person I know because all my friends come to see me – in the winter I go into the city to see them.

- I But your neighbours – the other people in the village – are friendly?
- E No, they're not. It's not true that people are more friendly in the country – some are friendly, some aren't friendly. It's the same as in any town or city. And they are definitely not more interesting! They don't go anywhere or do anything, all they talk about is the village and the church.
- I I'm surprised you say that. I think people are much friendlier in the country.
- E OK, you think that but you don't live with them. One good thing about the country: you can drive faster. There are fewer cars on the roads and there aren't any speed cameras. But the public transport – buses – are terrible. There are only five buses a day! I drive everywhere or take a taxi.
- I It's boring, you don't like the people, the buses are bad. Why do you live there?
- E Because it's cheaper than living in the city and, as I said, it is lovely in the summer ... (fade)

T 11 Who's that?

J = Jim, P = Pete

- J Who are all these people? Tell me about them.
- P Well, those three women over there: the one wearing jeans and a blue T shirt is my sister, Faith. And she is talking to Helen and Deborah.
- J Helen and Deborah. Which one is Helen and which one is Deborah?
- P Helen's wearing a short skirt and Deborah's got short dark hair.
- J Thanks – and who are those men?
- P The man wearing shorts and a baseball cap is Faith's husband, Joe. I don't like him. The man he's talking to, the one with grey hair – wearing a suit – is my father, Ted.
- J OK ... Faith's wearing jeans ... Helen's wearing a skirt and Deborah's wearing a dress. Sorry, the man wearing shorts, is he Joe or Ted?
- P He's Joe. The older man is Ted, my father. Over there is ... (fade)

T 12 When I retire ...

I = Interviewer, M = Man on the street

- I Can I ask you some questions about your plans for retirement?
- M Yes, OK. What do you want to know?
- I First, are you going to stay at home when you retire?
- M Definitely not! I'm going to buy a motorbike and travel from Quebec to Toronto. I want to get away from New York for a while.
- I No ... you're going to drive across Canada. Question two: are you going to see more of your family?
- M Yes, I am going to see them because I'm going to stay with them while I'm riding my motorbike to Toronto. I'm not going to spend money on hotels.
- I Yes, you're going to see more of your family. Next, are you going to learn another language?
- M Why? I can speak English – I don't want to learn another one.
- I No, you're not going to learn another language. I know you're going to drive across Canada but are you going to visit any other countries?
- M I'm not planning to, I'm going to stay in Canada.
- I OK, you're not going to travel to other countries. Are you going to stay in Canada for a long time?
- M Yes – one year or two. I want a change from New York.
- I Now, tell me, are you going to spend a lot of money on your trip across the country?
- M No, I'm not. I'm only going to spend money on petrol for my motorbike; on food and on beer.
- I Sounds wonderful. I hope you enjoy it.

T 14 Have you done it yet?

M = Mum, J = Jake, T = Tara

M Jake, have you done the things on your list?

J I've done some of them.

M Have you done your homework?

J Yes, I have.

M And have you tidied your bedroom?

J No, I haven't. But I have taken the dog for a walk.

M Oh that's good, thanks. What about your grandmother – have you phoned her yet?

J I tried but she isn't at home. I'll ring again later.

M And the piano?

J What about the piano?

M Have you practised?

J I haven't had enough time. I've been too busy ... I took the dog out, I did my homework and I phoned grandma.

M Yes, that's great but you haven't tidied your room or practised the piano yet.

J Oh Mum ...

M OK Tara – what about you. What things on your list have you done?

T Well ... I've finished my homework, and I've tidied my room.

M What about the washing-up. have you done that yet?

T No, not yet – I'm going to do it now.

M ... and I can see that you haven't cleaned your school shoes either ...

T No, I haven't. But I'm going to do that in the morning before I leave for school – and I'm going to make my sandwiches in the morning, too.

M OK, good girl.

T 15 What do you hear?

- 1 They lived in Rio.
- 2 David has a friend.
- 3 Who are you?
- 4 She's from Egypt.
- 5 He's a teacher in Spain.
- 6 They don't like working.
- 7 Do you like eating in restaurants?
- 8 There are some books.
- 9 I can't swim.
- 10 She couldn't speak French.

T 16 The interview

I = Interviewer, B = Mr Burnett

I Good morning Mr Burnett. Please come in and take a seat.

B Good morning, thank you for inviting me for an interview.

I Would you like some tea or coffee?

B I'd love some tea, thank you.

I Let's get started with the interview.

First, can you tell me a little about yourself? Your background, where you live, where you went to school ...

B I live here in Leeds. I was at university here so I've been here for five years – more or less. I have just bought a flat in the city. Before I came here, I was in Glasgow – that's where I went to school, and my family still lives there.

I I see. And your qualifications. I know you studied at Leeds University. Can you tell me a little about your studies?

B Yes, I did a three-year engineering course – I have a degree in engineering.

I So you finished your degree two years ago. What have you done in these two years?

B My first job was in a local engineering company. I was there for eight months. Then I worked abroad in Saudi Arabia for a year. I came back to Leeds about three months ago, and I've been looking for a job.

I Why have you applied for this job?

B There are several reasons. I think the company is the best in the area, the job described in the newspaper advertisement matches my skills and qualifications, and the opportunity for further study is interesting.

I OK. And what about the future? What will you be doing in ten years?

B I'm going to stay in Leeds, I'm not going to work abroad again. I hope I'll be working for this company and I hope I'll have your job.

I An interesting idea. Now, can I just ask if arrogance is a problem for you?
